

NAZI RAIDERS SINK DEFIANT RAWALPINDI IN BLAZING SEA BATTLE OFF ICELAND

Rivers Backs Third Term If Roosevelt Makes Race

GOVERNOR WANTS UNINSTRUCTED 1940 DELEGATION

Says Members Should Be Pledged to Continuation of National Administration's Present Policies.

By L. A. FARRELL,
Constitution Staff Writer.
WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. 27.—Opening the door for his participation or possible leadership in a Roosevelt third-term movement, Governor Rivers today declared that he is "for an uninstructed Georgia delegation to the 1940 Democratic national convention, such delegation to be pledged to support continuance of the progressive domestic program and sound foreign policy of the present national administration."

The Governor revealed his views following a 30-minute visit with President Roosevelt, during which he insisted politics were not discussed. He was accompanied to the Little White House by Attorney General Ellis Arnall, of Georgia, who likewise said no mention was made of politics.

Watching Own Problems.
The Governor disclosed his views in answer to questions from reporters. He said he was not giving an interview but that he was willing for those views to be made known.

"At the same time I want the people of Georgia to know that I am devoting my entire time and energy to the solving of our own problems," the Governor said. "A few months ago when the war first broke out, we felt it necessary to devote our attention to our international situation. But now that the President has worked out a sound international policy which definitely will assure our country's continued adherence to strict neutrality, I believe we can again focus our attention on our problems and I think work them out satisfactorily."

Leaves No Doubt.
The Governor declined to elaborate on his view concerning the 1940 presidential campaign but he left no doubt that he will support Roosevelt if the President elects to seek a third term or that he will follow the President's leadership in the choice of another candidate.

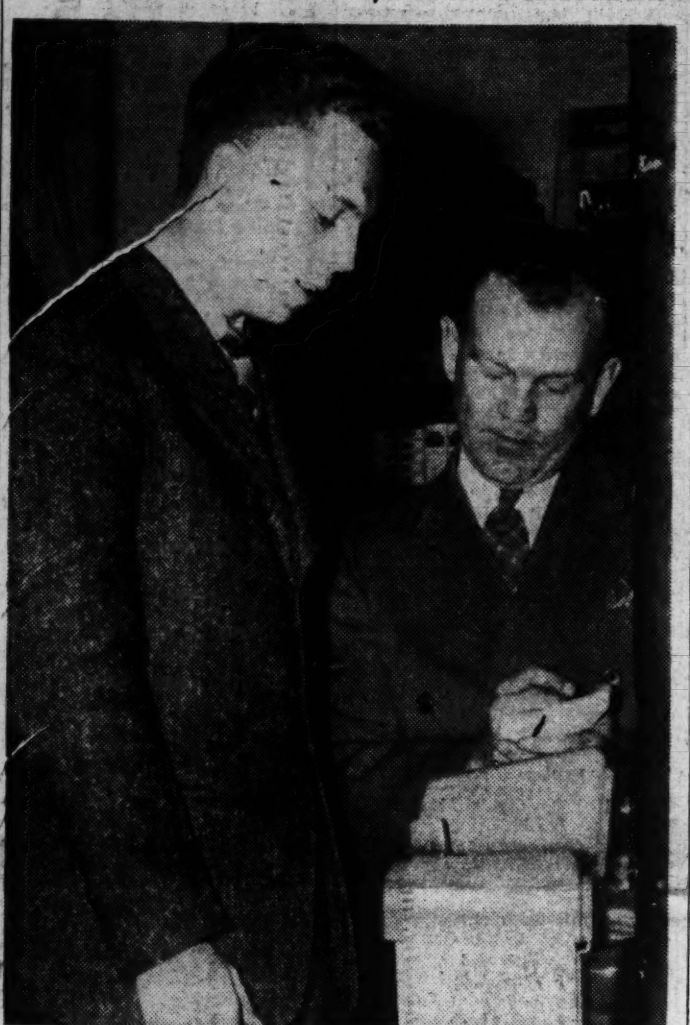

Governor Rivers said he and Arnall spent most of their time discussing Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd's antarctic trip with the President. Mr. Roosevelt had just received a telegram from Admiral Byrd and mentioned the possible results of the latest south polar expedition.

"I didn't come down here to

In Other Pages

Classified Ads. Pages 18, 19
Comics. Page 16
Daily Cross-Word Puzzle. Page 16
Editorial Page. Page 6
Financial News. Pages 17, 18
"Kiss After Midnight." Page 16
Louie D. Newton. Page 7
Radio Programs. Pages 15, 16
Sports. Pages 10, 11
Tarzan. Page 19
Theater Programs. Page 12
Weather. Page 20
Women's Page Features. Page 14
Dr. William Brady. Ida Jean Kain
Dress Patterns. Carolyn Chaffield
Harold Sharpsteen. Shelia Graham
Lillian Mae. Household Arts
Billy Sever. Today's Charm Tie

They'll Get a Taste of Wartime Nazism

Preparing for a four-week diet of nothing but Nazi war rations to determine whether the German people can subsist on the meager allotments is Henry Mayo, Georgia Tech sophomore. His weight, before he started the diet yesterday afternoon, is being checked at 153 pounds by D. Mitchell Cox, Tech English instructor.

Looking hungrily into the kitchen of the Georgia Tech College Inn, student dining room, are four students who are trying the experience of eating only what the German people are eating. Left to right are Henry Mayo, Ed Schmidt, George Stribling and James T. Scanlon. Blocking the door with a platter of meat loaf is Jack Lester, manager of the inn.

Starting their diet at lunch yesterday afternoon, three of the students saved a crust of rye bread for a midday snack but Henry Mayo ate everything save cabbage. Left to right are Scanlon, Mayo, Schmidt and Stribling.

Here Is Diet for Today

Here is the food which the Tech students endeavoring to subsist on the German rationing diet can have to eat today:

Breakfast.
Two ounces of corn flakes (divided between the four).
Dinner For the Four.
Eight ounces of spaghetti.
Twelve ounces of cabbage.
Four slices of rye bread.
Two scrambled eggs (divided equally).
Thirty-two ounces potatoes.
Sixteen ounces tomatoes.
Three apples. Skimmed milk. Beer.
Two ounces each of margarine, cheese and sugar.

NAZI WAR RATIONS ARE BEING TESTED BY TECH STUDENTS

Four Men Will Try Diet Until Christmas To See How Well They Fare Under Hitler Menu.

By CHARLES GILMORE.
Four Georgia Tech students, anxious to learn whether the German people can subsist on meager war rations, yesterday began limiting themselves to the diet required by Nazi food authorities.

Twice a day they will meet and eat only the amount of food available to the average German with his government-issued ration card. Other than those two skimpy meals these dietary masochists will eat nothing, they say, until Christmas or rickets overtakes them.

Although the voluntary starvation is a serious attempt on the part of the boys to see, or rather to feel, how the Germans are eating, yesterday at the start it provided a basis for good-natured college levity. Lightly they discussed the plan and joked about the small rations. They posed for pictures and laughed but said they thought the joke would be on them after the first week had passed.

See Loss of Weight.
Weighing themselves before starting the diet at lunch yesterday, three freshmen and a lone sophomore anticipated some loss of weight—just how much to be determined when they can't stand the bird-like menu any longer.

Planning the ordeal following an English class which they take from Professor D. Mitchell Cox, the four students are:

Henry Mayo, 19 years old and 153 pounds, a sophomore from Norfolk, Va.

Ed Schmidt, 18, of Long Island, 137 pounds.

George Stribling, 17, who brings his 145 pounds from Point Pleasant, N. Y.

James T. Scanlon, 21, from Belle Aire, N. Y., the group's heavyweight, at 158 pounds.

Argument Started It All.
An after-class argument on whether the German army or the German people would collapse first brought the whole thing on. Failing to find a solution for words, the four students decided to find it in practice.

Obtaining a copy of recommended food rations issued by the Nazi government from a New York newspaper, they took it to Jack Lester, manager of the Georgia Tech College Inn, one of the school's dining halls. He agreed to prepare the food, but left to them the problem of eating it.

So yesterday afternoon Mayo, Schmidt, Stribling and Scanlon sat down to their first lunch with individual servings of one and one-fourth frankfurters, one-fourth head of cabbage, three slices of rye bread, four tablespoons of black-eyed peas, one-half pat of butter and a glass of skimmed milk.

After starving most of the afternoon they ate a dinner, consisting of a saucer heaping full of potatoes mixed with one-fourth ounce of onions and one ounce of salt, four ounces of salt pork, mixed in a stew, which gave each of them about half a saucer full, one-half of a tomato, four slices of bread, three stewed apples for the four of them, and the usual glass of skimmed milk.

During the day each student may drink one bottle of beer. And they say this will go on until Christmas. Showing the worst first-day ef-

Varied are the thoughts mirrored on the faces of these Finnish soldiers on the march as they prepare to defend their "country of a thousand lakes" from any possible threat of invasion during the current European war. This photo was received by Clipper mail.

FARM INCOME RISE FACT FINDERS' AIM

17 Georgia Groups in Movement To Improve State's Economic Status

This is the first of a series of six news releases by the Citizens' Fact-Finding Movement dealing constructively in detail with Georgia's pressing farm problems. The purpose is to double Georgia's farm income will be advanced by study of the facts presented in these releases. They constitute spot news of the first magnitude.

Georgia's failure—by $100 per person per year—to attain the national average of farm income has captured the attention of the Citizens' Fact-Finding Movement. This movement, which has been undertaken by 17 Georgia organizations to advance the state along economic and social lines, has approached the problem in a simple, practical way.

The movement has enlisted the aid of a group of outstanding Georgians for a series of reports on various phases of Georgia. In the preparation of the report on agriculture this group, under the chairmanship of Dean Paul W. Chapman, of the University of Georgia's College of Agriculture, asked more than 1,000 well-informed persons for their views of Georgia farm needs.

"Can the farm problems of Georgia be solved?" the report inquires—and promptly goes on to point out that there are at least 20 counties, in each of which more than 500 farm families have achieved an "A" rating, the highest income grade given farmers by national advertising agencies. The report expresses the conviction that the problem can be solved with intelligent effort.

Importance of the question is underscored by this declaration in the report:

"The degree of prosperity enjoyed by the people of Georgia is limited by the total farm income of the state. Statistics dealing with per capita wealth and income, and other averages by which states are compared, give Georgia a low rank because of the earnings of our farm population. Georgia is measured by the income and standard of living of her farm population."

Only Texas and North Carolina exceed Georgia's proportion of total population living on farms. Ten individual problems, each

Continued in Page 9, Column 4.

CLAYTON JURORS CALL COMMISSION

Bill of Indictment, Which Hasn't Been Voted, Charges Malfeasance.

A copy of a bill of indictment containing five charges of alleged malfeasance in office, but which has not been voted by the Clayton county grand jury, was served yesterday on four of the five members of the Clayton county commission, it was stated last night by Sheriff Lloyd Dixon and Roy C. Leathers, solicitor general of the Stone Mountain circuit.

The papers notified the commissioners of their right to appear to answer the accusation before the grand jury which meets in Jonesboro at nine o'clock this morning.

The document was directed to all five members of the Clayton county commission, but, according to Sheriff Dixon, service was obtained only on Commissioners W. S. Lee, of College Park, E. L. Stephens, of Jonesboro, F. C. Cargile, of Riverdale, and Dr. J. R. Wallis, of Lovejoy. The remaining commissioner, H. G. Moore, of

Continued in Page 3, Column 5.

FINNS REFUSE RED DEMAND AS MOSCOW WHIPS UP POPULACE

Helsinki Denies Russian Charges That Cannons Were Fired Behind Finland's Side of Frontier.

(Map on Page 8)

HELSINKI, Nov. 27.—(AP) Finland told Soviet Russia today she was willing to negotiate on a demand for withdrawal of Finnish troops from the border on condition that the Red army likewise withdraws.

A Finnish note forwarded to the minister in Moscow for delivery to the Kremlin said investigation had shown there was no firing from the Finnish side yesterday, as alleged in a Soviet note, but that it had been learned there had been firing from the Russian side of the border.

The Soviet note had alleged that 13 Red soldiers and officers had been killed or wounded by seven Finnish cannon shots at Mainila, north of Leningrad.

Shellholes Made by Reds.
The Finnish reply said shellholes made by Red artillery could be seen 800 meters (over 700 yards) from the frontier on the Russian side and that seven shots were heard.

All details, the note said, were recorded in the journals of the Finnish frontier guard at the time of the shooting before the Russian protest was filed.

The Finnish conclusion was that "perhaps" an accident had occurred on the Russian side but that there had been no inimical act by the Finns.

Diplomatic observers interpreted the Finnish answer as one designed to give the Russians the opportunity to resume negotiations which were broken off by Finland on November 13 when Finland refused to make further concessions to Soviet demands for border revisions and naval bases.

Opportunity Afforded.
An opportunity was afforded, it was pointed out, for Russia to relieve any embarrassment caused by the firm Finnish stand regarding earlier demands.

This view was based on the be-

Continued in Page 8, Column 2.

Armed Merchantman, Riddled by Shell, Goes Down With Her Colors Flying After Struggle.

By ROBERT E. BUNNELLE.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—(AP)

The story of a blazing sea battle in which two German raiders, one the pocket battleship Deutschland, sank the armed British merchantman Rawalpindi off the southeast coast of Iceland, was told tonight in a vivid admiralty communique.

Fighting until riddled by shot and shell, the Rawalpindi went down with colors flying in a fight against overwhelming odds, on November 23, the admiralty said.

Britain's warships are searching night and day now for the swift, heavily armed raiders which eluded a British cruiser in darkness and storm after sinking the 16,697-ton Rawalpindi with an estimated loss of 259 lives.

Stringent Reprisal.

A stringent economic reprisal was decided on today by Great Britain to counter Germany's intensified sea warfare by armed raiders, mines and submarines, which added three more ships to the growing toll of merchant vessels.

Tomorrow the new parliament will be addressed by King George VI who today signed an order in council proclaiming Britain's right to seize all goods of "enemy destination, origin or ownership," even in neutral ships.

Reprisal Order.

The order, expected to become effective within a few days, was taken in reprisal for German mine-laying. It provided for seizure of all German exports, as well as contraband imports.

(The increased number of sinking was seen by Senator Pittman, Democrat, Nevada, as a ray of hope for the United States. The chairman of the senate foreign relations committee predicted withdrawals of neutral nations

Continued in Page 8, Column 6.

My 'Gone With Wind' Diary

By Annie Laurie Fuller Kurtz.

The Constitution presents herewith the exclusive diary of Mrs. Annie Laurie Fuller Kurtz, Atlanta, who worked with her husband, Wilbur Kurtz, as technical director in the filming of "Gone With the Wind." Since the filming of a picture has no regular order, the diary, likewise, maintains no sequence. This is the first of 15 installments:

JANUARY 14, 1939.

We received a letter from Henry* this morning which made us shriek with laughter. The poor boy certainly found himself in a jam!

We had written him to get exact measurements and to make scale drawings of one of the old Atlanta lamp posts—those that stood on the downtown streets during the war period. They are now collectors' items, but we told him where he could find them. This information was desired so that the shops at the Selznick studios could reproduce 40 of them exactly like the originals.

At his noon hour Henry measured the one at the corner of Ponce de Leon and Peachtree, creating some comment from passersby, but he did not answer any questions as to why he was acting in, what appeared to be, such a strange manner.

Coming home from his classes at night school at about 10 o'clock he saw the two posts in the yard of the U. D. C. chapter house, at the corner of Juniper and Sixth streets. Thinking this would be a good chance to check up on measurements made at noon, he put his books on the ground, climbed the post and, by the corner light, began work with ruler, and notebook.

"I don't know who called the cops," wrote Henry, "but while I was busy at the top of the second post (1 measured both), I heard the siren! The car stopped, two officers got out and one of them said, 'Hey buddy, what do you think you are doing on top that post? Come down and give an account of yourself!' Gee, I was scared! I showed them the drawings I had made of the Ponce de Leon post, my social security card and my Tech school books, and while reluctant to believe me at first, I finally convinced them and they let me go, but they looked at me like they thought I was just plain nuts!"

FEBRUARY 23, 1939.

The letters pour in, not by the dozens, but by the hundreds! From all over the south they come—offering to sell, rent or lend everything from great-grandfather's clock, his second-best bed, Aunt Tilly's sun bonnet, Grandma's hand-made quilt or her old plaid shawl, to the family piano that "stood in the old house that Sherman used," etc., etc. These people feel that "Gone With the Wind" cannot be accurately produced without these items.

Some letters are accompanied by photographs and in many instances garments themselves have been sent to the studio. Music, poetry, too—all dedicated to "Gone With the Wind."

Every letter must be answered and as they

Continued in Page 9, Column 3.

MRS. ANNIE LAURIE KURTZ.

*Henry Kurtz, second son of Mrs. Kurtz.

State Will Pay Teachers With Diverted Gas Taxes

$443,785 Taken From Highway Funds Being Distributed to School Systems for Use in Paying Salaries for November.

By The Associated Press.
State fiscal officers began payment of November teachers' salaries yesterday from a treasury bolstered by $443,785 in impounded gasoline taxes.

The money, which State Auditor Zach Arnold said would assure full payment to all teachers through November, was taken from the State Highway Department by executive order of Governor Rivers. The maneuver brought to $3,500,000 the amount temporarily diverted from gasoline and tobacco revenue since September—the limit of borrowing permitted by the constitution. Arnold immediately arranged disbursement of $443,785.87 to county and city school systems, raising to $3,481,366.20 the total paid this fiscal year for teachers' salaries.

The auditor said revenues anticipated from general property taxes—due December 20—would allow prompt payment of December salaries, but added this would "exhaust funds available for this purpose on the basis of general fund revenue."

Arnold disclosed a statement of obligations against the highway board totaling $2,257,930.56, and cash on hand or expected from the federal government $389,930.50. He said $1,875,000 would be needed to pay all bills to date, and explained the Governor had authorized disbursements to cover this from $2,661,925 recently obtained by a highway refunding bond issue.

BLACKWELL AND DAVIS MARKET

We Deliver

1019 Peachtree St. SE. 4961

HENS 13c

UNDER 4 LBS. WHILE THEY LAST

We Also Have a Complete Line of Barred Rock Fryers.

GEORGIA MILK

SWEET MILK

12c QUART IN 8-QT. LOTS

At Our Dairy Stores

SWEET MILK

10c QUART IN 12-QT. LOTS

At Our Whitehall St. Plant

21 Retail Dairy Stores

In Greater Atlanta

Georgia Milk PRODUCERS CONFEDERATION

Man Arrested For Pulling Own Molars

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—(AP)—The law had a little trouble today with its well-known teeth and a couple of additional molars, too.

"My husband came home intoxicated," complained Mrs. William Franz. "He got a pair of pliers and started to pull his back teeth. I called the police."

Officers took into custody Franz and two extricated molars. They were puzzled over how to put a legal bite on him but finally charged him with disorderly conduct.

"They hurt something awful," Franz explained to Judge Stephen Adamowski. The jurist advised him to see a dentist and continued the case to December 21.

LAWYER PROVES OWN INNOCENCE

Judge Then Rebukes Him, Says He Appeared in Court While Drinking.

Louis A. Burton, lawyer, won himself a "not guilty" verdict in Fulton criminal court yesterday but he drew a sharp reprimand from Judge Jesse M. Wood, who said he appeared in court under the influence of an intoxicant.

Burton was tried for passing bad checks but the jury, after hearing him argue his own case, brought in an acquittal. Judge Wood called him to the stand and lectured him on drinking.

"I would not have let this case come to trial if I had realized you were drinking," the judge said.

MEETING PLANNED ON TUBERCULOSIS
Control Methods To Be Discussed Tonight.

A number of leading physicians will speak and a motion picture, "Behind the Shadows," will be shown at a tuberculosis control program tonight at the DeKalb Theater, presented by the Atlanta Tuberculosis Association.

Various phases of the prevention, diagnosis and cure of tuberculosis will be discussed by Dr. T. I. Willingham, chairman of the medical staff of the Atlanta Tuberculosis Association, and Dr. C. C. Aven, Dr. Champ H. Holmes, Dr. George F. Klugh, and Dr. Evert A. Bancker Jr., members of the executive committee of the association's medical staff.

Following these talks, a period of questions and answers on tuberculosis will be conducted by the doctors, and a demonstration of the tuberculin test will be given by Dr. J. R. Evans and Mrs. Nelle Cheatham.

Hunters' Entertainers Make Trip a Success
DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Ninety tenderfeet went into a river bottom to hunt.

None too proudly they displayed their kill—six possums.

Six negro fiddlers, who went along to entertain the hunters, bagged all the game.

MARINES' EX-MASCOT ENTERS THE SERVICE
A former mascot of the United States Marine Corps has enlisted as a regular member of the service, according to an announcement by Sergeant G. G. Shelton, local recruiting officer.

He is Sterling K. Bush, 18, of 1574 Jonesboro road, who eight years ago was the "good luck piece" for the local recruiting force.

The office also announced the enlistment of George S. Price, 25, Myrtle Beach, S. C.

May Break Precedent Before Dies Group

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Miss Cecil Jones, president of the Junior League, which Mrs. Roosevelt addressed yesterday in Washington after her press conference at which she expressed her willingness to appear before the Dies investigating committee.

Mrs. Roosevelt Is Willing To Testify at Dies Hearing

Alleged Communism in Youth Congress Causes First Lady To Express Herself; Will Answer Anybody's Questions Asked in the Interest of Truth.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—(AP)—The unprecedented prospect of a President's wife testifying before a congressional investigating committee arose today.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt told her press conference that she would be willing to testify before the Dies committee regarding the American Youth Congress, whose leaders she has often defended against accusations of Communism, and "would answer anybody's questions asked in the interest of truth."

Committee members immediately expressed eagerness to hear her. Mrs. Roosevelt made it clear that she would not volunteer to testify and Chairman Starnes, Democrat, Alabama, of the subcommittee now conducting the hearings, said that, "of course, we couldn't subpoena the First Lady of the Land."

May Issue Invitation.
It was distinctly possible, however, that the committee might invite her to appear. A decision probably will await a conference of committee members with Chairman Dies, Democrat, Texas, who was out of town today.

The First Lady's attitude toward testifying was brought out when she was asked about a suggestion by Alfred M. Lillenthal, of New York, that he and she should appear as opposing witnesses on the subject of alleged Communism in the Youth Congress. Mrs. Roosevelt said she would not care to take sides in opposition to Lillenthal, leader of a group which split with the congress.

Meanwhile the committee heard testimony that the American Student Union, an affiliate of the Youth Congress, was an instrument by which Communism had been spread through schools and colleges. Major Hampden Wilson, an investigator leading the committee by the Veterans' Administration, reported that the Student Union "is always a 'noisy' minority wherever it exists" and "invariably gets representation on the school paper, if not full control."

Wilson's testimony brought a prompt denial in New York City from Joseph P. Lash, national secretary, that the Student Union was dominated by Communists or had ever "expressed any belief in or sympathy for Communism."

He said the union's aim was to "voice the student's concern for his own and his country's welfare."

Wilson asserted that, among other schools, he had contacted the city schools in Atlanta.

The committee also heard testimony from Professor George W. Hartmann, of Columbia University Teachers' College, and Dr. Henry R. Linville, executive director of the New York Teachers' Guild, that Communists are active in the American Federation of Teachers, an AFL affiliate, and control its New York City local.

When a proposal to revoke the New York local's charter was defeated at the 1935 national convention, Linville said, "some conservative groups" joined the Communists against it. He named the Atlanta local and said the others were in Massachusetts cities, which he did not name. He mentioned the action only incidentally and did not go into details.

Later in the day Mrs. Roosevelt told Junior Leaguers that she thought women who work for money when they don't need it should be sure to do something that causes employment—or else give the money away in a manner which increases jobs.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS FAIL TO RECALL "RED" SURVEY
Officials of the Atlanta public school system yesterday were unable to identify anyone with a survey of alleged "Red" activities among local school students.

Dr. Willis A. Sutton, superintendent, was out of the city, but Dr. H. Reid Hunter, M. E. Coleman and Thomas W. Clift, assistant superintendents, said they had never heard of any study of the attitude of students towards the Soviet.

"We have military training in our boys' high schools, have been honor schools in proficiency in this

Dionne Quints Will Not Duck War Dangers

CALLENDER, Ont., Nov. 27.—(AP)—The Dionne quintuplets are subjects of the King and will take their chances in wartime with their fellow Canadians.

Thus spoke Dr. Allan Roy Dae in rejecting today an offer of the Hawthorne, California Democratic Club to remove his famous charges to Hawthorne for safety.

FOUR ARE KILLED IN SHOOTING SPREE

Stranded Husband Beats Wife Fatally With a Hammer.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.—(AP)—A fourth victim died tonight from a shooting spree police blamed on an estranged husband who practiced marksmanship two months, then tip-toed into his wife's home with a pistol in one hand and a hammer clutched in the other.

Shots that broke the pre-dawn quiet killed the husband, Stanley Krygier, 30; his mother-in-law, Mrs. Josephine Nieckoski, 45, and her 17-year-old daughter, Florence.

Krygier's 22-year-old wife, Regina, died later.

Detective Peter McCormick said Krygier, angered by disputes over whether he and his bride should live with her parents, shot the others, then beat his wife with a hammer as she clung to the edge of a roof to which she plunged through a window to escape. Her father, Felix, 54, escaped—wounded badly—by sliding from a window down a rope of bedclothing.

MASONS NOMINATE C. R. BAUMGRAS

Was Recruiting Officer Here 17 Years.

Cassius Rufus Baumgras, widely known in Atlanta and Georgia, has been nominated by Georgia Masons as "representative of the Grand Lodge of the Philippines near the Grand Lodge of Georgia."

Baumgras served as marine recruiting officer in Atlanta for 17 years prior to his retirement several years ago. He is extremely active in Masonic circles.

Today's Specials

LUNCH
Braised Beef Tips with Buttered noodles 20c
Hot Turkey Sandwich with Giblet gravy
Cranberry sauce
Mashed potatoes 25c
SUPPER
Two (2) Grilled Lamb Chops
Potatoes
Vegetable 35c
(All prices include Roll and Butter)

Thompson's RESTAURANTS
2 IN ATLANTA AIR COOLED

WATERWORKS UNIT UNDERGOES AUDIT

Ex-President's Expense Account Being Studied.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 27.—(AP)—J. Monroe Johnson, assistant secretary of commerce, said today a "thorough audit" of all affairs of the Inland Waterways Corporation under its former administration is being made.

The $5,000 yearly expense account of Major General Thomas Q. Ashburn, displaced November 15 as president, is under investigation by the Justice Department, Johnson added, to see if legal action can be taken to bring about its restitution.

Johnson was here with Chester C. Thompson, of Rock Island, Ill., named to succeed Ashburn after the Commerce Department took over supervision of the corporation from the War Department.

MAN COLLAPSES ON STREET HERE

E. O. Atkinson Pronounced Dead at Hospital.

A man later identified as E. O. Atkinson, of 118 Piedmont avenue, N. E., collapsed yesterday morning in front of 57 Bell street, and was pronounced dead on arrival at Grady hospital. Death was said to be due to natural causes.

Surviving are four sisters, Mrs. F. C. McCown, Mrs. William Anderson, Mrs. A. W. Hinton and Mrs. Frank Van Horn, and two brothers, C. H. and Frank Atkinson.

The body was taken to Newnan last night for funeral services and burial under direction of J. Allen Couch.

BUEHLER BROS.

28 Broad St. S. W. DOWNTOWN 825 Gordon St. WEST END
DECATUR, GA. 117 E. Court Square

TODAY ONLY

FRESH PORK

CHOPS lb. 13 1/2c

T-Bone Club STEAK 13 1/2c lb.

Tenderloin STEAK 15 1/2c lb.

RINDLESS SLICED BACON lb 17c

Best Rib STEW 10c lb.

Fresh Chuck ROAST 11 1/2c lb.

HOCKEY PICNICS lb. 15c

Unadorned SAUSAGE 15c lb.

Tenderized STEAK 25c lb.

We're proud of the big things! Both parties win when you use Constitution Want Ads do.

Kamper's

1315 Peachtree Road, N.W. (Corner Peachtree & 13th St.)
1317 Peachtree Road, N.W. (Corner Peachtree & 14th St.)

Enjoy a "Yankee Doodle" Turkey

Large Pumpkins 2c Lb.
York Imperial Baking Apples, 5c lb.

Large Clusters Extra Fancy Red or Green Grapes, 30c lb.

Celery Hearts (bundle of 3) 15c
Yellow Yams, 4 lbs. 10c
Cobler Potatoes, 5 lbs. 15c
Yellow Onions, 3 lbs. 10c

15 to 20 lb. Young Turkeys 25c lb.
Fine to eat! We have only 80 of them... order early!

25c lb. Fine Fat Capons, 40c lb.
Fresh Dressed Hens (3 to 4 lbs.), 25c lb.
Fresh Pork Shoulder Roast 15c lb.
Fresh Pork Loin Roast 18c lb.

Southern Lady Mince Meat lb. jar 15c

Delightful Sweets!
Fernell Quince Preserves lb. jar 31c
Fernell Pure Grape Jelly 6-oz. glass, 18c
Fernell Pure Maple Syrup 8 oz. 35c—16 oz. 65c 32 oz. $1.00
Ohio Pure Maple Syrup gal. tins, $2.89

Jumbo Dried N. Y. State Marrow Beans, 10c lb.
Dried Black Turtle Soup Beans, 10c lb.

Send to Friends up North! Ga's. Finest Pecans Thin Shell Schleys 35c lb.
A 4 or 5-lb. box of these fine Pecans will make a grand gift!

Good Things to Complete Your Menu!
Phillip's New Pressed Tomato Juice (10 1/4 oz.), 12 for 55c
Duffy's N. Y. State Apple Juice (12 oz.), 12 for 59c
White House Sweet Apple Cider, 60c gal.
40c R. & A. Mammoth Ill. Green Asparagus, 3 for $1.00
Fernell Whole Golden Bantam Corn on Cob (tall cans), 25c
Small, Whole, Peeled New Irish Potatoes (No. 2 tin), 10c
Prince Finest Succotash (No. 2 tins), 15c
Burnham & Morrill Oven-Baked Pea Beans (28-oz. pot), 25c—3 for 69c

Now Is the Time to Bake Your FRUIT CAKE
For best results get a special Kamper's package of assorted fruit cake materials... everything you need but the flour, sugar, shortening and eggs. Send some to the folks back home!
Materials for 5-lb. Cake.....$1.49
Materials for 10-lb. Cake.....$2.89
Mail Orders Filled Postage prepaid within 300 miles of Atlanta.

Kamper Stores close 1:00 P. M. Wednesday (as usual)—open all day Thurs.

Buy the Best Things to Eat at Kamper's

What the Hotels of Atlanta Mean to Atlantians Who Entertain.

"The Nicest Party I ever gave—and the easiest..."

"Oh, John, it was such a delightful party—you should have heard the compliments I received... the hotel has such complete facilities and everything was so perfect..."

Let Specialists in Entertaining Help You When You Entertain

"Why, I'd have to employ dozens of servants to equal the staff that was at my disposal! And the co-operation of the hotel management—they think of everything, relieve you of so many details... I'm not a bit tired, as I usually am after entertaining... I know you're glad to see our house in perfect order; that's something else I gain—I don't have to straighten it out this time..."

"Yes sir, I'll give all my parties at the hotel from now on! I didn't know how well equipped they are; special rooms of all sizes, for any number, large or small, any time—simple refreshments if you want them, or elaborate meals, ideally prepared and served—and so inexpensive; I was really surprised..."

Next time you are entertaining, delight your guests, save yourself worry and responsibility—give your party at one of the modern, convenient hotels listed below.

The Hotels of Atlanta

Members of Atlanta Hotel Association

Analey	Cox-Carlton	Imperial
Atlanta Biltmore	Fire Fifty One	Jefferson
Atlanta	Ponce de Leon	Kimball House
Briarcliff	Georgian Terrace	Piedmont
Clermont	Hampton	Robert Fulton
Colonial Terrace	Henry Grady	Wincoff

I JUST ZIP THE LITTLE RED RIBBON AND THERE ARE MY EXTRA FRESH OLD GOLDS!

Wonderful! NO MORE FUSSING WITH A LOT OF 'CELLOPHANE'. NO MORE BROKEN FINGER NAILS... NOW I'LL BUY O.G.S!

Old Golds ZIP-TOP pack for Tiptop Freshness

Just Lift the Tab at the Arrow point and ZIP the Top is off!

DOUBLE "CELLOPHANE" OPENS DOUBLE QUICK!

Kuhn's Counsel Calls Him 'Insignificant and Strutting'

Says Power Lost When Alliance With Blonde Was Brought Out.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(UP)—

Fritz Kuhn, omnipotent Fuehrer of the German-American Bund, tolerantly heard himself described today as an insignificant, strutting figure whose power has been shorn by revelation of his dalliance with an attractive blonde. She was identified as Mrs. Florence (My Golden Angel) Campbell.

The description was by Kuhn's own defense counsel, Peter L. F. Sabatino, who spent three and one-half hours pleading with a blue-ribbon jury to give his client fair play in the American tradition and acquit him on charges now reduced to larceny of $1,217.92 in two counts of third-degree forgery, from an original degree of larceny, from an original 12 counts which totaled larceny of some $16,000.

Prosecutor Herman J. McCarthy will make his final argument tomorrow and, after Judge James

G. Wallace has charged the jury, it is expected to retire before nightfall and deliberate the fate of Kuhn, who is liable to as many as 22 years' imprisonment if convicted.

(The Associated Press reported Kuhn liable for a total sentence up to 15 years.) In the course of Sabatino's impassioned argument, Kuhn heard himself compared—as an extramarital romantic—to Napoleon, Julius Caesar and Marc Anthony and, as a victim of prejudiced prosecution, to Dreyfus, who was a Jew.

Housewife's Sermon Produces Results

GARY, Ind., Nov. 27.—(P)—Mrs. Peter Yesh came home late at night to find a burglar in the front room about to walk out with her husband's sweater.

She gave him a five-minute lecture on the sinfulness of stealing. When she finished, the intruder dropped the sweater and ran.

APPLAUSE IS WON BY ROTH QUARTET

String Group Merited Every Curtain Call, Declares Reviewer.

By MOZELLE HORTON YOUNG.

The Roth String Quartet, with its personnel three-fourths new since its last Atlanta appearance, won an ovation from the large audience at Glenn Memorial auditorium last night. Feri Roth, first violin, is the only member of the present quartet who was with the original quartet. The new members are Harry Weinstock, second violin; Julius Shaier, viola, and Oliver Edel, cello.

Their reception last night was equally as enthusiastic as for the former quartet, and indeed, they merited every curtain call of the many they received. They are a superlatively fine ensemble.

For this reviewer the highlight of the program was the Dohnanyi Quartet in D flat Major, No. 2. The composition is one that lends itself well to audience enjoyment, and in the hands of these artists the richness of the harmonic color of the work and the subtleties of tonal colors received exquisite treatment.

Carson Makes Nice Gain Around Left End in Agnes Scott Classic

Miss Helen Carson, flashy quarterback of the Boyd Cottage "Beauties" at Agnes Scott, begins a sensational 40-yard dash around the left end of the "Gorgeous Gals" from Gaines Cottage in the "Curve Bowl" classic yesterday afternoon. Slightly ahead of her interference, Captain and Fullback Ann Fisher, she eluded the white-sweated Alice Cheeseman, Gaines' right end. Miss Virginia Milner, Boyd halfback, came up in front to block out Miss Cheeseman. Gaines, after fighting hard and patiently, however, was overwhelmed, 33-0.

(Story in adjoining column).

BOYD COTTAGE WINS 'CURVE BOWL' TILT

'Beauties' Pile Up 33-0 Victory in Agnes Scott Battle.

A powerful and beautiful eleven from Agnes Scott's Boyd Cottage yesterday afternoon overwhelmed a less powerful but equally beautiful squad from their neighboring Gaines Cottage in the nation's first, and probably last, "Curve Bowl" classic.

Sparked by lovely Quarterback Helen Carson, who rang up three touchdowns, the Boyd "Beauties" scored once in each of the first three quarters and twice in the final eight-minute period for a 33-0 victory.

The game was scarcely under way before the fleet quarterback followed Captain Ann Fisher around right end for a 40-yard dash ending in a score. Not content she then plunged through the surprised Gaines line for the conversion, first in a series of three.

In the next frame she tossed a wobbly lateral to Captain Fisher on the 25-yard line, who was downed inches from the goal. On the next play Miss Fisher took it over.

But Gaines fought hard, if futilely. Handicapped by the absence of a consistent punter, they did not once kick out of danger but heroically tried to make long yardage on last downs. Eleanor Hutchens, Gaines quarter, did most of the ball carrying when Boyd was not scoring.

Officials were Dr. Philip Davidson, head of the history department, as referee, and Dr. George Hayes, head of the English department, as linesman.

The game was a challenge event between the two cottages and was not sponsored by the college's gymnasium department nor was it a part of the regular extra-curricular activities.

THE LINEUPS.

BOYD: Pos. L. E. Gaines; L. T. Williams; C. G. Hardie; R. E. Handley; R. G. Cheeseman; Q. B. Hutchens; A. B. Fisher; P. B. Brag.

GAINES: Pos. L. E. Gaines; L. T. Williams; C. G. Hardie; R. E. Handley; R. G. Cheeseman; Q. B. Hutchens; A. B. Fisher; P. B. Brag.

4,000 HEAR OPENER AT METROPOLITAN

Carriage Trade There—Late as Usual.

By JOHN SELBY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(P)—

More than 4,000 persons filled the gaudy old Metropolitan Opera House tonight for the musical "first night" which in half a century has not failed to be the brightest social event on the calendar.

The season's opener was "Simon Boccanegra," which is not Verdi's masterpiece by quite a bit. But the talented, emerald and jeweled carriage trade was there as usual—and late as usual.

The ancient "Met" isn't quite the same, though. The patrician box-holding contingent is trying to get out from under by selling their interests in the building to the operating company.

Old Friends Succumb Almost at Same Time

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 27.—

Jacob Iverson visited his old friend, Neil D. McKinnon, who was ill.

After he left McKinnon died. Ten minutes later, unaware of his friend's death, Iverson himself fell dead of a heart attack.

KING
HARDWARE COMPANY
53 Peachtree Street

Christmas Things at KING'S
In the China & Gift Dept.

Exquisite China Figurines

Single Figures $1.49 pair
Double Figure $1.29 each

Exquisitely beautiful things... with Patrician features, delicately shaped fingers and all the refinements usually found in more expensive Figurines. Both styles illustrated here are available in delicate pastel colors... or in white with gold.

Colonial Boudoir Lamps

Two of them
... like the one shown here. $2.49 pair

- Colonial hob-nail type glass base
- Frosted China shade, shaped just like the real old-fashioned ones
- White Silk cord
- Attractive for mantels, tables—as well as bedrooms
- One of the BETTER Gift ideas for Christmas!

Mail Orders Sent Express Collect

Free Deliveries in Atlanta KING Use Your Charge Account

HARDWARE COMPANY

China and Gift Department—53 Peachtree and Convenient Neighborhood Stores

FIREMAN INJURED FIGHTING FLAMES

Machinery Valued at $15,000 Damaged by Chemical Company Blaze.

One fireman was slightly injured last night in battling a stubborn blaze in the rear of the one-story plant of Stodghill & Co., Inc., a chemical manufacturing company at 716 Ponce de Leon place, N. E.

The injured man is Thomas Wayne McGhee, 48, of Company No. 19, who was caught beneath some timbers when the roof of the loading platform collapsed. He was treated at Grady hospital and dismissed.

C. M. Stodghill, manager of the company, said that machinery valued at $15,000 had been badly damaged by the blaze but that finished products of equal value apparently had not been hurt. The loss was partly covered by insurance, he stated.

The fire was discovered about 10:25 o'clock by Radio Patrolmen R. M. Holland and H. W. Waters and was not brought under control until near midnight. The cause was undetermined.

GOVERNMENT FINISHES WITH COAL TESTIMONY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—(P)—Secretary Ickes announced today that the bituminous coal division of the Interior Department had completed presentation of government testimony at the final hearing on minimum prices for bituminous coal.

Ickes said that the trial examiners expected to conclude testimony for producers within three weeks and would hold night sessions if necessary.

He said that the examiners would now hear testimony from a few representatives of district boards and of a few individual producers.

CHURCH OFFERINGS SHOW AN INCREASE

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 27.—(P)—Members of 25 Protestant denominations in the United States gave an average of $13.57 each to the church last year.

This amount represents an increase of 10 cents per capita over the year before said Dr. Harry S. Myers, of Hillsdale, Mich., secretary of the United Stewardship Council, in his annual report before the association here today.

By adding the contributions of three affiliated church bodies in Canada, Dr. Myers explained, the individual average is $14.10 as compared with $13.62 a year ago.

STALLINGS RENAMED AS DIRECTOR OF FCA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—(P)—F. F. Hill, governor of the Farm Credit Administration, announced today the re-election of Will Stallings, of Soperton, Ga., as a director of the FCA, for a three-year term beginning January 1, 1940.

Stallings was re-elected by National Farm Loan Associations of Georgia, North and South Carolina and Florida.

MOROLINE 5
PETROLEUM JELLY

INJURIES FATAL TO T. R. DUTTON

Atlantan Was in Auto Accident; Funeral To Be Tomorrow.

T. R. Dutton, 37, Campbellton road, died at a private hospital yesterday of injuries received Wednesday night in an automobile accident on Ponce de Leon avenue near Drexel avenue, Decatur.

A resident of Atlanta for 30 years, he was connected with the Moncrief Furnace Company and was a member of the New Hope Baptist church.

Surviving are his wife; his father, G. B. Dutton, Ben Hill; four sisters, Mrs. A. L. Johns, Mrs. C. M. Johns, Mrs. C. E. Cole and Mrs. W. L. Peppers; and three brothers, S. G. J. B. and W. M. Dutton.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11:30 o'clock tomorrow morning at Spring Hill by the Rev. Homer Johnson and the Rev. W. C. Wilson. Burial will be in the New Hope churchyard under direction of H. M. Patterson & Son.

Dutton was injured when the car in which he was riding crashed into a tree. Harold Padgett, said to have been the driver, was less seriously injured and was dismissed from the hospital after treatment. Padgett was charged with being drunk and disorderly, DeKalb county police reported.

EXPECT SUB-FREEZING WEATHER IN FLORIDA

LAKELEND, Fla., Nov. 27.—Sub-freezing temperatures and frost in north and central Florida early tomorrow were forecast tonight by the State-Federal Frost Warning Service.

Groves of Florida's rich citrus and truck crops were advised northerly winds and slowly dropping temperatures would be experienced during the night. The thermometer was expected to skid to its lowest point at 7 a. m.

Frost was expected to form at places where temperatures drop to 33 or lower.

SQUALUS SISTER SHIP COMPLETES FIRST DIVE

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Nov. 27.—(UP)—With the sole civilian survivor of the submarine Squalus disaster aboard, the sister-submersible Sea Raven successfully completed her first trial dive late today and radioed she would remain off shore all night.

Harold Preble, naval architect, who regarded today's tests as merely routine, was one of 60 men aboard the Sea Raven when she was put through her paces on the Isles of Shoals proving grounds where the Squalus sank May 23 with loss of 26 lives.

JUSTICE M'REYNOLDS IS UNHURT IN CRASH

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—(UP)—Supreme Court Justice James Clark McReynolds and his man servant, Harry Parker, narrowly escaped injury today when an automobile driven by the jurist crashed into a bridge abutment.

Police said the car zigzagged nearly 100 feet after the crash before plunging into a marsh. First arrivals to the scene found the 77-year-old jurist, the last remaining member of the one-time conservative majority of the bench, climbing casually from the wreckage.

'Romeo' Stalks His 'Juliet' To Lair---Awaits the Dawn

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(P)—Through his attorney, George (Romeo) Lowther III, made it known tonight he had discovered the hideaway of his lovely lady, 20-year-old Eileen (Juliet) Herrick, and tomorrow he hopes to see her.

Ever since the expiration last Friday of a 10-day separation, decreed by Supreme Court Justice Isidor Wasservogel in the interests of Eileen's health and her parents' peace of mind, Lowther has been in rapturous pursuit.

The court said he might woo, even marry, the daughter of former City Park Commissioner Walter R. Herrick after that time, the parents' objections to the contrary notwithstanding. Eileen's affection for the 30-year-old Romeo is a matter of court record.

Lowther's legal tactics brought Eileen and her parents into court on a writ of habeas corpus, charging that the insurance broker had been prevented from seeing his Juliet.

If he doesn't get to see her by Wednesday, said his lawyer, there'll be another writ applied for.

THOUSAND JOBLESS STORMILY ASK FOOD

Demand That Cleveland Council Restore Curtailed Relief Services.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 27.—(P)—A thousand shouting unemployed persons stormed a city council meeting tonight and asserted they would obtain food on our own authority unless the city takes immediate steps to restore recently curtailed relief services.

"That is anarchy," sharply retorted Mayor Harold H. Burton.

The group's demand was voiced by C. B. Cowan, head of an association of unemployed Clevelanders. He did not elaborate on its plans.

"If it is necessary to destroy the city's services, that will be done. Relief comes ahead of every obligation."

Cowan demanded that the council restore to all relief districts regular food orders drastically reduced because of dwindling relief funds.

LATIN TRADE PACT URGED BY GRADY

Wants U. S. To Expedite Negotiations.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—(P)—Henry F. Grady, assistant secretary of state, urged tonight that the United States expedite negotiation of new reciprocal trade pacts with Latin-American nations to develop and increase two-way trade that would out-last conditions brought about by the European war.

Grady said in a radio speech that this country's trade with Latin-America and other neutral nations would be subject to modification because of the war.

"Any neutral countries," he said, "including those in Latin-America, may turn to us for supplies previously purchased from other sources but now no longer available from them."

CLAYTON JURORS CALL COMMISSION

Continued From First Page.

Conley, had not been served up to a late hour last night.

E. L. Adamson, former sheriff of Clayton county, and County Police Officers Thompson and Brown, were subpoenaed as witnesses.

The copy of the charges is said to contain complaints that the county commissioners paid a salary to the former sheriff and placed policemen on the county payroll without levying a tax for that purpose. There were three other counts reported, but the details could not be ascertained.

Admits Being Served.

Commissioner Stephens, over the long distance telephone in Jonesboro, last night admitted he had been served, but could not recall what made up the basis of the papers. He said he had been ill for 15 days and did not know whether his health would permit him to appear before the grand jury today. He said he asked Sheriff Dixon to notify the grand jury of his illness.

W. S. Lee, of College Park, also said last night that he was ill and doubted his ability to be present today. He said he had asked his attorney, Colonel Ormsby, of Route 42, to appear in his behalf. J. B. DeRoo, grand jury foreman, who lives at Morrow Station, and W. W. Wells, secretary, of Forest Park, could not be reached last night.

DEKALB FARMERS TO HOLD MEETINGS

AAA Program for 1940 Will Be Discussed at Eight Sessions.

Eight local meetings designed to acquaint DeKalb county cotton farmers with the 1940 Agricultural Conservation Program of the AAA, prior to its annual market quota election December 9, were announced yesterday by Candler C. Miller, county administrative assistant.

Meetings will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the Lithonia school, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at Candler school and at 7 o'clock tomorrow night at Radian school.

Thursday meetings are scheduled for Stone Mountain school at 2 o'clock and Tucker school at 7 o'clock. Friday mornings will be held at 2 o'clock at Salem church and at 7 o'clock in the Panthersville High school. A meeting will be held at 7 o'clock December 4 in the Chamblee school.

TWO PUT ON TRIAL IN WEIRD MURDERS

'Kiss of Death Widow' Helps Pick Jury.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.—(P)—A woman whose five marriages gave her the police sobriquet, "Kiss of Death Widow," assisted attorneys today in examining prospective jurors for her trial on charges of killing one man for insurance.

Mrs. Rose Carina, plump and 43, was one of two women placed on trial as the commonwealth renewed prosecutions against the 10 remaining defendants in the fantastic eastern murder ring cases. Five have been convicted, eight pleaded guilty and one woman was acquitted.

In a separate courtroom, selection of another jury began for the trial of Mrs. Millie Giacobbe, 51-year-old widow, charged with killing her husband, Antonio, for $3,381 insurance.

GIFT PILLOWS
1.00 to 2.98

- SMART STYLES
- NEW SHAPES
- MATERIALS—Damasks, tapestries, taffetas, satins, brocades, repps and plain fabrics.
- FABRICS—Fringed, corded, quilted.

This wonderfully varied selection of pillows offers an easy way to check names on your Christmas list—with gifts that combine beauty, usefulness and comfort. Beautiful new shapes, in new fabrics and in almost every color imaginable for every room and nook in the house.

Pillows, Fourth Floor

DAVISON-PAXON CO.
AFFILIATED WITH MACYS-NEW YORK

Follow The War With The New Constitution War Map EUROPE and the WORLD

To have a full appreciation of war news—be able to follow the movements of both sides—know locations of major battles—proximity to important cities and borders—penetration of territory and other up to the minute news—get the full story of the war—this is the only map of Europe and the World. It is large—20x30 inches—clearly printed and easily read. It is really two distinct maps. A complete map of Europe and another of the whole world. It also contains pictures and names of the heads of all countries. Get this map to get a clear understanding of foreign news. Excellent for home, office and classroom use. Through special arrangement with the publishers, The Constitution offers this map at far less than the regular retail price.

Save This Coupon

Coupon
No. 66

To get this map at special low price you must use Constitution Special Offer Coupon! One coupon appears in The Constitution each day. This coupon and two others, or any THREE CONSECUTIVELY NUMBERED coupons together with 20c entitles you to one copy of the big map. Secure maps on the first floor of The Constitution Building, corner Alabama and Forsyth Streets. Map will be folded and mailed to you on receipt of THREE CONSECUTIVELY NUMBERED coupons and 25c. Address order: Map Department, Atlanta Constitution, Atlanta, Ga. Be sure to write name and address plainly when ordering by mail!

Use
SHOPPERS
TICKETS
2 RIDES
10 CENTS
BY STREET CAR AND BUS

18 OF 26 CHARGES AGAINST MAVERICK QUASHED BY JUDGE

San Antonio Mayor
'Will Stand Trial on the Eight Remaining Poll
Tax Payment Counts.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 27. (AP)—Eighteen of 26 counts in one of five indictments against Mayor Maury Maverick and three others charging illegal payments of a state poll tax were quashed tonight. He will be tried on the other eight.

The mayor, his secretary, Richard Jeffrey, Miss Rebecca Taylor and George Glass, Garment Workers' Union leaders, are charged with payment of the state-required elector tax for R. L. O'Brien.

The 18 counts were quashed by District Judge Bryce Ferguson on a motion by Maverick's attorney, Carl Wright Johnson. The judge refused to quash the entire indictments and overruled a plea by Maverick's counsel that San Antonio voters condemned acts attributed to the former congressman in the election that restored him to public life.

Informed by the defense that the state supreme court had held the word "procure" could not be properly defined in law, the judge dismissed all counts in the true bill which alleged that Maverick and the other defendants had "procured or conspired to procure the purchase of a poll tax receipt for a citizen."

A jury to hear the evidence against Maverick, who was defeated for a third term in congress before he was elected mayor in March, may be selected tomorrow.

Maverick's attorney had attacked constitutionality of the Texas poll tax law. The motion was opposed by District Attorney John R. Shook, political foe of Maverick, who upset the San Antonio political machine headed by C. K. Quin.

Before a jury can be selected, Judge Ferguson will hear another defense motion, which is to be offered tomorrow.

CHURCH IS NEARING 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Will Celebrate Event Thursday, December 7.

Indian Creek Baptist church in DeKalb county will celebrate its 100th anniversary at 7 o'clock Thursday night, December 7, the

SAVE TIME THIS CHRISTMAS

Send your out of town gifts right from your doorway by Railway Express. Packages are called for and delivered in all cities and principal towns without extra charge. Low rates. Just phone Railway Express or Western Union.

RAILWAY EXPRESS
AGENCY INC.
Use Air Express for super-speed!

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to loosen germ laden phlegm, increase secretion and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with this understanding that you are to like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

CREOMULSION
for Coughs, Chest Colds, Bronchitis

How To Relieve Itching Skin

Don't scratch and claw itching skin. This tends to irritate and spread inflammation, and is dangerous. Skin itching, when due to Scabies, Eczema, Ringworm, Athlete's Foot, Surface Rash, or Inocuous insect bites, is soothed by applying Tetrine, a quickly palliative preparation that acts with surprising speed to kill every parasite it contacts and your itching goes galloping away. Recommended too for baby's tender skin. Test it for yourself. 50c at your dealer's or direct from Shuprine Co., Dept. D, Savannah, Ga. (adv.)

ASPIRONAL
DELICIOUS PALLIATIVE for COLDS

EARLY TO TOWN
AND EARLY BACK 10¢

Use
SHOPPERS TICKETS

9 A.M. to 4 P.M.
BY STREET CAR AND BUS

Maury Maverick Answers Poll Tax Paying Charge

Maury Maverick, facing camera, discusses his case with attorneys. Left to right, William Hensley, Henry Dielman, Maverick and Ira Kirshman. Maverick's father, Albert, is hidden partially by Hensley and Dielman. (Story in adjoining column).

program to be continued the following Sunday.

Members, friends and ex-pastors of the church and representatives from neighboring denominations have been invited to join in the celebration. Special delegations will attend from Clarkston Baptist, Zion Baptist, Mountain View Baptist and Avondale Baptist—all offspring of the Indian Creek church.

The Rev. J. B. Spivey, a former pastor, will deliver the centennial sermon. Captain A. J. Holcombe, of the Atlanta police department, will be in charge of special singing, and Commissioner Scott Candler will speak. A new church is expected to be completed in time for the celebration.

MASONIC CHAPTER ELECTS OFFICERS

DeKalb Council Holds Tenth Annual Assembly.

Election of new officers at the 10th annual assembly of the DeKalb Council No. 21, R. & S. M., held in the Masonic temple at Decatur was announced yesterday.

They are J. W. McCormick, I. M.; Marvin Dodson, D. M.; H. H. Hunnicutt, P. C. W.; Roger H. Bell, C. G.; A. L. Cole, C. C.; Charles J. Kamper, steward; S. L. Adams, sentinel; Donald Donaldson, treasurer; W. J. Lyle, recorder; W. J. Parr, chaplain, and a finance committee composed of H. L. Glenn, H. H. Hunnicutt and W. T. Parr.

The annual turkey dinner was served by the ladies of the Decatur Chapter No. 148, O. E. S.

UTILITY OPPOSES PHONE CUT ORDER

Tennessee Firm Sees Loss of Profits.

Representatives of the Tennessee Electric & Power Company yesterday told the Georgia Public Service Commission that telephone rates in Blue Ridge, Ga., could not be reduced and still permit the company to show a profit. Under the blanket order of the commission several years ago the rates, commissioners held, should be reduced to $2.50 for business phones and $1.50 for residences. Present rates are $2 for residence telephones and $3.25 for business. The commission took the matter under advisement and will render its decision later. The electric company contended they had "no revenue above expenses since TVA took over."

SCHEDULE REVISED FOR PATROL EXAMS

Hours and Places Are Set by Sullivan.

The Department of Public Safety yesterday announced a revised schedule for state safe driver examinations, necessary for obtaining a driving license.

Commissioner Lon Sullivan said the new schedule will become effective December 1, and that applicants should report to the county courthouse in each city.

It follows: First and third Monday, 8 to 12 o'clock, and McDonough, 1 to 5; second and fourth Monday, Tallahassee, 8 to noon, and Manchester, 1 to 5.

First and third Tuesday, Zebulon, 9 to noon, Thomson, 1 to 5; second and fourth Tuesday, Franklin, 9 to noon, and Newnan, 1 to 5.

First and third Wednesday, Hamilton, 9 to 5, and second and fourth Wednesday, Greenville, 9 to 5.

First and third Thursday, Barnesville, 9 to noon, and Forsyth, 1 to 5; second and fourth Thursday, Jackson, 9 to 5.

First and third Friday, West Point, 9 to 11:30; LaGrange, 12:30 to 5; second and fourth Friday, LaGrange, 9 to 5.

First and third Saturday, Fayetteville, 9 to noon.

Every Saturday, Griffin, 9 to 5.

DANIEL IS CALLED TO CAIRO CHURCH

Atlanta Presbytery Permits
Acceptance, Ordains
Evangelist.

Pastoral relations between the Rev. Eugene L. Daniel and the Jackson, Fellowship and Bethany Presbyterian church were dissolved at a meeting of the Atlanta Presbytery yesterday to permit the minister to accept a call to the First Presbyterian church of Cairo.

A native of Atlanta, the Rev. Mr. Daniel is a graduate of Georgia Tech and Columbia Theological Seminary. During his pastorates, the Butts and Newton county churches have shown marked progress.

The Rev. R. O. Flinn Jr., pastor of the Carrollton church, was ordained as an evangelist at the meeting. He is the son of the Rev. R. O. Flinn, of the North Avenue Presbyterian church.

The Presbytery also recommended and approved the Rev. Robert Ernest, pastor of the Al-Haven Memorial and Glen Haven churches of Decatur, for foreign mission service in South America. He is a native of Johnson City, Tennessee.

DEWEY PLEDGED SUPPORT.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 27.—(AP)—The Association of New York State Young Republicans, Inc., has pledged its support of Thomas E. Dewey, New York district attorney, for the Republican nomination for President.

Guesses Football Scores But Fails To Foretell This

William M. Ritchey, whose ability to foretell the scores of Saturday football games had put him out in front in a guessing contest sponsored by an Atlanta brewery, was bound over to the federal grand jury yesterday, charged with using the mails to defraud.

Guessing well, but not too wisely, Ritchey was leading the pack for first prize, a new sedan, and had collected three cases of beer for winning weekly contests.

Beer company officials, suspicious of Ritchey's accuracy, and because his answers usually arrived a little later than the others—though they were postmarked before the Friday deadline—wondered if he had a friend in the postoffice, and called in the postal inspectors.

Inspectors found Ritchey had been in the employ of the postoffice for years, and had done so well he was marked for future promotion.

They also found, they told United States Commissioner David J. Meyerhardt, that he addressed letters to himself lightly in pencil before the Friday deadline, erased his name after delivery and substituted the name of the beer company. Then according to the inspectors, he inserted the scores after the games had been played, and placed the letter in the proper place in the postoffice.

DR T. F. PEABODY

DENTIST
301 Broad St.
JA. 2583 Nights & Sundays By Appointment
Over Loftis Jewelry Store

His bond, which he made, was set at $500.

Commissioner Meyerhardt reported Ritchey kept silent during the hearing, announcing at its conclusion:

"I have nothing to say at this time, except I made a mistake and have learned my lesson."

ADMIRAL SNOW DIES.

BRYN MAWR, Pa., Nov. 27.—(AP)—Elliot Snow, retired admiral of the United States navy, died unexpectedly today of a heart attack.

JOHN & FRED SCHEER

120 Inside Peachtree Arcade
Serving Our Patrons Since 1888

ALEXANDER SEEWALD CO.
410-12 W. PEACHTREE ST.

PRESTONE
WHOLESALE ONLY

St. Joseph
ASPIRIN

The leader in its field in bringing you the extra-protection that cellophane affords. Make St. Joseph your first thought at the first warning of inorganic pain or colds' discomfort.

THE WORLD'S LARGEST SELLER AT 10¢

WARNING!

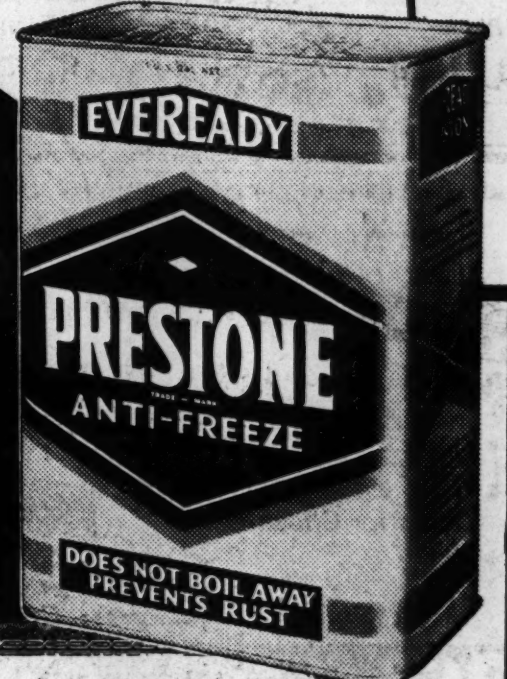

FREEZING WEATHER MAY COST YOU PLENTY!

Don't let cold weather catch you without anti-freeze... or with the wrong one. Either way you may be out real money. Don't be confused by conflicting claims—or by new and untried anti-freezes. Play safe with "Prestone" brand anti-freeze—the winter protection that has proved itself in more cars than any other brand ever made!

LOWEST PRICE
IN HISTORY

$2.65
PER GALLON

GUARANTEE

"National Carbon Company, Inc., specifically guarantees that 'Prestone' brand anti-freeze, if used according to printed directions, in normal water cooling systems, will protect the cooling system of your car, against freezing and clogging from rust formations for a full winter; also that it will not boil away, will not cause damage to car finish, or to the metal or rubber parts of the cooling system, and that it will not leak out of a cooling system tight enough to hold water."

This famous guarantee is another reason why "Prestone" anti-freeze was selected to protect cars through more than 24 billion miles of driving last winter! See your dealer today.

Get "Prestone" Anti-Freeze... and get complete protection!

One filling of "Prestone" anti-freeze lasts all winter long. Unlike dollar-a-gallon anti-freezes, it will not boil away. You're safe every minute of every day—and you know it!

"Prestone" brand anti-freeze is made with highly refined and purified ethylene glycol...fortified with exclusive ingredients that curb leaking, foaming, and rust-clogging!

The words "Prestone" and "Eveready" are registered trade-marks and identify products of National Carbon Co., Inc.

"PRESTONE" ANTI-FREEZE

TRADE-MARK

F. D. R. KEPT BUSY TRIMMING BUDGET FOR COMING YEAR

Total Cut Not Revealed; He Previously Had Hinted 500 Million Increase in Defense Costs.

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL, WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. 27. (P)—President Roosevelt and his budget officer, Harold D. Smith, used the pruning shears today on the government's budget for the year beginning next July 1. How much was shaved off in dollars and cents was not disclosed.

Smith told reporters after a three-hour conference with the chief executive: "We continued the operations on the budget."

Asked whether they were pruned...

...the budget officer, Harold D. Smith, used the pruning shears today on the government's budget for the year beginning next July 1.

How much was shaved off in dollars and cents was not disclosed. Smith told reporters after a three-hour conference with the chief executive: "We continued the operations on the budget."

Asked whether they were pruned...

Mate Truthful But Not Funny; Wife Quits Him

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 27.—(P)—Her husband did bad enough when he ran around with other women, complained a woman seeking a divorce here, but it was worse when he came home and described the good times he had away from the home fires.

"I think he must be crazy to come home and tell me all those things," she insisted.

"Don't you think he was doing the right thing by coming clean with what he was doing on the outside?" asked Judge A. L. Franklin.

"Well, I don't think it's funny," the woman responded as the courtroom crowd rippled with laughter.

"Sign the decree," Judge Franklin ordered quickly.

ing operations and whether the operations had been a success, the budget director replied with a smiling affirmative and a remark that "we were taking out a few appendices."

He intimated that the President might have something to say about the budgetary situation at a press conference tomorrow.

50 Per Cent Cut Hinted.

Although he has projected a $500,000,000 increase in defense expenditures in the next fiscal year, Mr. Roosevelt has suggested the deficit might be trimmed 50 per cent. This year's deficit is expected to run around $5,500,000,000.

An appreciable reduction in that figure, he told reporters Friday, is contingent upon the levying of a new tax to finance the extra expenditures for defense, a continuation of the increase in revenues from present taxes, and congressional co-operation in not exceeding the new budget.

There were indications that the total budget for next year's government expenses had not been finally determined. For the current fiscal year the figure was upwards of $9,000,000,000. It appeared, also, that while no final estimate of the federal income had been made for next year, the administration was not counting any too heavily on revenues approaching $7,000,000,000.

MORGENTHAU ASKS $500,000,000 LOAN

Money Needed for Imminent Federal Expenses, He Says.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—(P)—Secretary Morgenthau, asking the public to lend the treasury $500,000,000 for imminent federal expenses, said today that congress must do something about increasing the national debt limit or levying new taxes, "if the boys are going to eat."

He made the "eating" comment in a joking tone and declined to explain it. However, it was understood the secretary meant that if congressional appropriations were going to be met the treasury would need some means of getting the money.

The $500,000,000, for which bids will be received tomorrow, will be an addition to the public debt, now $41,286,551,646. With more deficits in view, the treasury is getting close to the $45,000,000,000 limit placed on the debt more than 15 years ago.

Morgenthau, grinning to show that he was "not worried" about the debt situation, said his confidence in public investment demand for government bonds was shown by his choice of a 2 per cent interest rate on the 9 to 11-year bonds to be sold to raise the $500,000,000. This was, he said, the lowest interest rate ever offered on a comparable government security.

3D TERM SUPPORT IS GIVEN BY RIVERS

Continued From First Page.

discuss politics and I do not think the President wants to discuss them," the Governor said. "We came to pay our respects. I have made it a custom to pay a brief formal call on the President every time he comes to Georgia. This morning I decided to stop by Attorney General Arnall's home at Newnan and bring him along. He had met the President before but not since he became attorney general."

Rivers smilingly admitted that he had informed the President that Arnall is the youngest attorney general in the United States and the youngest such official Georgia has ever had.

Is First Expression.

Discussing the presidential situation, Rivers spoke not only as Governor and Democratic national committeeman but as titular head of the party in Georgia. For some time it has been known that his friends planned to seek an uninvited delegation to the convention next year but until today the Governor never had publicly expressed his views.

Under the rules of the state democratic executive committee, which Rivers controls, the committee can determine whether or not a preferential primary is to be conducted and that if no primary is held the committee is empowered to name the delegates, either instructed or uninstructed. Jim L. Gillis, of Spouton, member of the State Highway Board, himself a Roosevelt and Rivers follower, is chairman of the committee.

Senator George is the only other Georgia political leader who has announced his views on 1940. Before leaving Washington at the close of the regular session of congress last summer, Senator George gave out a statement announcing his definite opposition to a third term. Since that time there has been a mild Garner campaign launched in the state and it is believed that Senator George is sympathetic to the Garner movement, although for the most part the Garner activity has been more noticeable from without the state's borders than from within.

Senator Russell has refrained from commenting on 1940 possibilities, as has former Governor Talmadge, once President Roosevelt's most noted critic in the state but of late a critic of Roosevelt's domestic policies rather than a critic of Roosevelt. It will be recalled that Talmadge announced his support of Roosevelt's foreign policy when the President successfully advocated repeal of the embargo clause. Senator George was a leader in the senate fight for the President's program on embargo repeal but Saturday when all other members of the Georgia congressional delegation paid a social call at the Little White House, Senator George remained at his home in Vienna.

Rivers Plans Speech.

Governor Rivers indicated today that he would not launch any fight to win the state to his views on the 1940 convention but that he would continue his efforts to finance his state program. He said he planned to start writing a speech tomorrow for delivery Saturday night following two addresses on the state situation last week.

Gillis Supports RIVERS' STAND

Jim L. Gillis, chairman of the Georgia Democratic executive committee, joined Governor Rivers last night in support of an uninvited delegation to the party's national convention.

"That's my position," he said leonically.

Explaining his desire for an uninvited Georgia delegation, Gillis said: "I'm backing up the present national administration. I'm for the President."

"Yuletide is High Time" FOR GIFTS

SALE FLOOR SAMPLES AND CLOSEOUTS OF FAMED CIRCULATING HEATERS

2-Eye Cast Iron Heater
Heavy cast iron heater, has round collar, removable shake and dump grate. $2.98

2-Eye Hot-Water Heater
Coll heater. Sizes to meet your requirements! $14.75

2-Room Circulator Heater
Oval porcelain circulator, installed! $29.75

STOVES—HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

$98.50 3-Room FLORENCE Oil-Burning Circulator

Price Includes Installation! $59.50

39 inches in height! With two powerful 7-inch sleeve-type burners, using range oil or kerosene! Tilt back for easy lighting with a match. Provides a constant circulation of heat through several connecting rooms!

$129.50 ESTATE 4-Room Oil-Burning Circulator

Just 2 Floor Samples to Sell! $98.50

54-inch high circulator! With 6-gallon fixed tank. Excellent construction for perfect performance! Finished in full porcelain enamel, in dark grained walnut with chromium trim.

SALE OF SEWING NOTIONS and CLOSET ACCESSORIES

$1 Linen Hat Boxes... airway-luggage-type... in oval and square shapes. Grey with black and blue trim; tan with brown... 89c

$1.29 12-Pocket Shoe Bag... with 2 velvet hangers, 1 pair shoe trees! Gift wrapped! $1

Chintz-Covered Waste Baskets... large, high, gay! With splashy floral designs. 4 sizes at this price! $1

Quilted Chintz Sewing Basket... dainty looking, spacious, useful! White grounds, with colorful floral print. 2 sizes $1.49

$1.98 60-In. Garment Bags... Holds 8 garments! Convenient snap side! Floral chintz in dark or light grounds $1.69

$1 Fitted Sewing Kit... with pin cushion, darning needles, scissors, thread, tape measure! $79c

10c Utility Baskets... for sewing, tool assorted color combinations 8c

3"-44" Talon Zippers... a complete collection! Black, white, colors 20c-90c

Novelty Metal Buttons... for street and afternoon frocks. Gold and silver filigree types! Dozen 50c-$3.75

25c Stocking Top Ruc Material... assorted colors! 1 pound! 19c

NOTIONS—HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

SEWING HELPS

Regularly 10c Each! 8c

BIAS TAPES
RIC RAC BRAID
HEM TAPE
NEEDLES SNAPS

HOOKS & EYES
TAPE MEASURES
MIDDY BRAID
DARNER FORMS SAFETY PINS PIN CUSHIONS

NOTIONS—STREET FLOOR

GIFTS MONOGRAMMED FREE

Monogrammed gifts are special gifts! That's why we're specially proud of this Christmas feature! LINGERIE, LINENS, MEN'S WEARABLES... every department is participating in this offer! Enjoy this advantage NOW!

BUY ALL YOUR GIFTS With HIGH'S "LETTER OF CREDIT"

The thrift-wise payment plan that lets you indulge yourself in gift-giving! "LETTER OF CREDIT" gives you five months in which to pay for all you buy! Investigate... in our Credit Department today! HIGH'S FOURTH FLOOR

SALE OF BETTER $1.69 and $1.98

HANDBAGS $1.29

- Simulated Calf
- Simulated Patent
- Pigtex Finishes
- Swagger Styles
- Soft Pouches
- Dressmaker Types
- Black, Navy
- Wine, Green

Don't miss this opportunity—for anything! 600 hand-picked bag successes... at savings! Wait 'til you see all the styles, details, workmanship! Nicely fitted with change purses, mirrors, zip-pockets!

HANDBAGS—HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

SALE FLEECY WARM PART WOOL

DOUBLE BLANKETS

2 PAIRS $3

The last shipment was an immediate sell-out! We're lucky (and so are you) to get more of this low price! Billowy blankets in pastel plaids of rose, green, orchid, blue, gold, cedar. With luscious satin binding to match!

BLANKETS—HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

LIONEL ELECTRIC TRAINS

$5.98 to $16.50

Complete with remote transformer and track! Passenger and freight styles. Cars with 4-wheel trucks. Heavy steel.

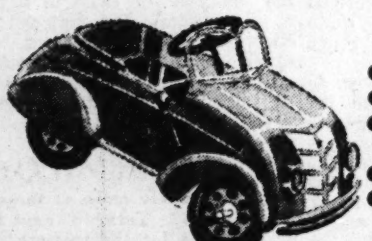

STREET FLOOR

Give Him the Thrill of His Young Life! RADIO SQUAD FIRE CHIEF AUTO

$6.98

36 IN. LONG! 16 1/2 IN. WIDE! STREAMLINED COASTER WAGON

Of Auto Body Steel! $3.49

- 33 1/2 in. Long
- 16 in. Wide
- 8-in. Artillery Wheels
- Bell and Radio
- Red and Ivory Trim

TOYS—STREET FLOOR

TOYS—STREET FLOOR

TOYS—STREET FLOOR

TOYS—STREET FLOOR

TOYS—STREET FLOOR

TOYS—STREET FLOOR

TOYS—STREET FLOOR

TOYS—STREET FLOOR

...the morning after and what a HEADACHE

"BC" brings quick relief

Occasionally you have a bad night and wake the next morning feeling foggy, jittery and generally "off". When this happens, let "BC" lend a helping hand. The quick-acting ingredients in the "BC" formula work fast and relieve in a hurry.

Keep a 10c or 25c package of "BC" handy. Use according to package directions for the relief of annoying headaches, the pains of neuralgia or tantalizing muscular aches. When pains of this character persist or recur frequently, consult a physician.

EXTREMELY LOW FARES

FARES FROM ATLANTA TO	In Coaches		In Pullmans		Air-Conditioned Coaches and Pullmans
	One Way	Round Trip	One Way	Round Trip
Albany, Ga.	2.95	5.35	3.90	7.80
Columbus, Ga.	1.80	3.25	2.35	4.70
Daytona Beach, Fla.	6.85	12.35	13.55	20.35	$22.60
Jacksonville, Fla.	5.20	9.40	10.25	15.40	17.10
Macon, Ga.	1.35	2.45	1.80	3.60
Miami, Fla.	10.40	18.75	20.75	31.15	34.60
Orlando, Fla.	7.10	12.80	14.05	21.10	23.45
Savannah, Ga.	4.20	7.60	5.60	11.20
St. Petersburg, Fla.	8.10	14.60	16.20	24.30	27.00
Sarasota, Fla.	8.15	14.70	16.15	24.25	26.95
Tampa, Fla.	7.55	13.60	15.00	22.50	25.00
Tifton, Ga.	3.00	5.40	3.95	7.90
Waycross, Ga.	4.00	7.20	5.30	10.60
W. Palm Beach, Fla.	9.45	17.05	18.75	28.15	31.25

*Rate for Pullman Space Occupied in Addition. Corresponding Fares to All Other Points.

For Additional Information Inquire PASSENGER AND TICKET OFFICE 95 Forsyth Street, N. W. Phone WA. 8181 G. W. STRADTMAN, Division Passenger Agent

CENTRAL OF GEORGIA RY.

BRING THE BOYS AND GIRLS TO HIGH'S TOYLAND

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL
Editor and Publisher

R. E. TROTTER
V.-Pres. and Bus. Manager
RALPH T. JONES
Associate Editor

Entered 1st the Post Office at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

Telephone Walnut 8265.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By Carrier or Mail
Daily and Sunday	1 Wk. 1 Mo. 3 Mo. 6 Mo. 1 Yr.
Daily only	25c 1.10 3.25 6.50 12.50
Single Copies—Daily 5c, Sunday 10c
BY MAIL ONLY
Daily and Sunday	1 Wk. 1 Mo. 3 Mo. 6 Mo. 1 Yr.
Sunday only	10c 45c 1.25 2.50 5.00

Mail rates for R. F. D. and small or non-dealer towns for 1st, 3d and 5d postal zones only, on application.

KILLY-SMITH COMPANY, national representatives, New York, Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Philadelphia, Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York City by 3 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had: Hotelling's News Stand, Broadway and Forty-third Street (Times Building corner). Request a copy of The Constitution to be delivered to your room each day when you register at a New York hotel.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. Receipts for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates are not authorized; also not responsible for subscription payments until received at office of publication.

Member of the Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

ATLANTA, GA., NOVEMBER 28, 1939.

Court "Housekeeper"

Naming of a business manager by the United States supreme court marks what may become a constructive move by that body. Although the appointment of Henry P. Chandler as first director of administrative affairs was little publicized, his assumption of the post is highly significant. The appointment was made under a far-reaching, but little-noticed, law passed by congress last August.

Chandler is eminently well qualified for the post. A former president of the Chicago Bar Association, he has practiced law in Chicago since 1906. He also served two years as secretary to the president of the University of Chicago. He is a graduate of Harvard and the University of Chicago Law School.

In effect, Chandler becomes "housekeeper" of the supreme court and all federal courts. He takes over the responsibility of organizing the federal courts' business affairs, dealing with congress in the matter of the judicial budget.

An elaborate unification and co-ordination program, aimed at speeding federal dockets and increasing efficiency in the business side of court organization, becomes effective with the new appointee.

President Roosevelt and former Attorney General Cummings backed creation of the new administrative office in the court reorganization bill. At that time, the office contributed its share to the storm of opposition to the famous reorganization bill. Now, Chandler has assumed his post, virtually without a ripple of attention.

This Is America

For five years James Armenaki, waiter, has been employed at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, in New York. Came the time when wedding plans were to be made for his daughter, Marie. It was decided to hold the ceremony in a hotel. Armenaki didn't hesitate in his choice of hostelry. Hadn't the Waldorf-Astoria paid his salary for five years? Wasn't it but fair to reciprocate, when he had money to spend at a hotel? Certainly.

So Marie Armenaki was given in marriage to August R. Zicha, in the swankiest five-room suite the hotel boasts, while 50 guests, including the hotel manager and his wife, beamed and wept and celebrated, as at all weddings.

This is America. A country where there is nothing out of place in a waiter engaging the best to be had at the hotel where he works, for his daughter's wedding. This is America, where the man who has to spend money thinks first of those who have traded or spent with him. There are, perhaps, other countries, numbers of them, where the same situation could occur. But only in America could it be considered the natural and proper thing.

Undersea Freighters

The ever-tightening blockade against Germany by Great Britain and France once more has aroused interest in the possibility of submarine freighters. During the first World War the U-boat "Deutschland" made four trips to the United States, successfully evading British and French naval patrols. This, in a measure, proved that commerce could traverse the seas, to a limited extent, beneath the surface.

The inventor of the modern submarine, Simon Lake, believes under-sea freight carriers are the only solution Germany will ever find to the problem of naval blockade. While his idea of moving ocean commerce at a depth of 500 feet sounds a trifle fantastic, it should be recalled that his idea for a modern submarine fighting craft was also regarded as impracticable 35 years ago. It was rejected in the United States and every other country except Russia, where the first so-called modern under-sea fighting craft was built during the Russo-Japanese war.

Lake's present plan calls for boats 400 feet in length with a capacity of 7,500 tons displacement. Operating at 500 feet below the surface, he contends, would keep them well out of the reach of depth bombs.

They would carry a crew of 30 and travel at 10 to 15 knots. This is about the average speed of surface freighters. An observation tower raised to 20 to 30 feet would enable the navigators to obtain a full view of the ocean without the necessity of bringing the vessel to the surface.

There are a number of objections to the plan, of course. The cost would be tremendous, for one thing, measured by the amounts expended in building fighting submarines. The ability of Germany to build them in sufficient volume to prove of practical value, for another, is to be doubted.

Disbarring Lawyers

There is nothing in professional life more distasteful, or more likely to engender lasting bitterness, than disbarment proceedings against practitioners of the law.

On some few occasions, to be sure, personal antipathy of one individual for another has been responsible for a grievance being magnified to such proportions as to result in charges of unprofessional conduct. Yet, despite apparent mistakes here and there, none will say lawyers should not be made to observe the highest professional ethics, particularly by themselves or by their professional organizations.

Lawyers have been given a trust, a special classification among citizens, by the people. In guarding that trust and maintaining its high level of integrity, they are in a better position to know where the trust has been abused and where discipline should be administered than the laity. There should be no hesitancy in punishing where punishment is deserved.

Nevertheless, it is always a matter of delicacy to bring charges against a fellow member of the bar, let alone voting for his disbarment. In the case of Louis Samter Levy, of New York, however, there seemingly should have been no qualms of conscience to interfere with a duty. In ordering the disbarment, Judge John Knox, of the United States district court in the state of New York wrote, "In my judgment Levy, in mind, heart and action, was venal and corrupt."

The lately disbarred member was, of course, no small-bore barrister. His fees ran into the millions. His clients were among the largest corporations. Unfortunately, he permitted himself to become enmeshed in some of the same questionable stock manipulations which brought ruin to former Federal Judge Martin T. Manton, the only United States judge ever to suffer such disgrace.

Luckily for the people, the Levy-Manton doings were isolated instances of professional malpractice. The cases attracted nation-wide attention because of that very infrequency of misconduct which engenders public confidence in the courts and in the members of the bar.

Dangerous Thoughts

A dangerous voice sounded a few days ago when Senator George W. Norris attacked present plans for army and navy bolstering in the face of the threatening international situation.

The veteran Nebraska solon said "I don't think we are going to get into the war," and upon that thought rested his announced intention of opposing increased expenditures, which are designed to bring the army and the navy to the minimum strength necessary for the defense of this country. He does not know this country will not become involved. He merely thinks it will not, as though thoughts could be of possible value when anti-aircraft guns become vital to the lives of the American people and to the safety and integrity of the nation.

It was this same thought that motivated the Nebraskan in his leadership of a bloc during the early years of the World War, when preparedness was blocked by its fight. Those beautiful thoughts later were to cost the lives of thousands who died because this country was not prepared.

The expansion programs for both the army and the navy are based upon defensive plans and represent minimum defense needs. They do not envisage any more overseas excursions and are far short of filling the needs for that type of army. Should danger threaten on these shores, the United States must be prepared. Today it is not. Let not the same mistake be made twice. Thoughts, beautiful though they may be, cannot match enemy guns. The one way to assure they will not threaten American shores is by making America strong, at sea and upon the land.

This will go down as the strange war in which the heroic flyer of the British R. A. F. had a paper route over Germany.

Maybe Britain maintains a ministry of information for the same reason that we kept a Department of Commerce through the long depression—in case some turns up.

China invented gunpowder, and the invader turns it on China. Gutenberg gave the world printing, and what happens? Germany is crushed with handbills.

Coast savants report a vitamin in molasses which prevents hair from turning gray. But doesn't it make it hard to get the hat off?

Editorial of the Day

GOVERNMENT SHOULD SHEAR, BUT NOT SKIN ITS FLOCK OF TAXATION SHEEP.

(From the Houston Post.) Taxes are the sinews of government. It was Halliburton who said that "death and taxes are inevitable."

Benjamin Franklin believed "idleness and pride tax with a heavier hand than kings and parliaments." Those philosophical views, however, do not help the average businessman, who must pay 221 different taxes in order to keep out of trouble. No single businessman pays all of them, but he must keep up with enough tax legislation to fill a library to know just what levies apply to his particular type of business, and when he leaves his office he must pay taxes as an individual. Lake other Americans, he is taxed when he doesn't know it. The collector for some agency of government slips his hand into his pocket stealthily during almost every hour of his life.

The federal government alone levies enough taxes to make the average businessman utterly dependent upon a corps of tax experts, and the experts themselves must pore over complicated reports day and night to keep up with busy lawmakers.

When the federal taxes are paid, business still faces 64 different state and county taxes and 52 varieties of municipal taxes.

Those figures are formidable enough. They suggest how serious our tax situation has become. But the end is not yet in sight. Public officials, from highest to lowest, and literally thousands of lawmakers, lie awake at night devising new taxes.

No wonder the businessman echoes in anguish the lament of Herrick, who said: "Kings ought to shear, not skin their sheep."

THE CAPITAL PARADE

By JOSEPH ALSOP AND ROBERT KINTNER.

MURPHY APPOINTMENT SURE WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Frank Murphy's appointment to the supreme bench seems so sure that even now, before the judicial robes have been officially draped about the attorney general's shoulders, it is interesting to speculate on what sort of judge he may make.

The problem is probably best approached from the negative angle. Murphy will not resemble the conservatives, for he has not James C. McReynolds' coldly angry faith in an antique reading of the law, nor the chief justice's Jehovah certitude, nor the genial practical-mindedness of Owen Roberts. Nor will he be very like the liberals. Hugo L. Black's tireless pursuit of logic's ultimate extreme will never be imitated by the more sentimental Murphy. Both Black and Douglas are further to the left than he, and Douglas' humorous earthiness is foreign to him. Felix Frankfurter is far more learned and more brilliant. He has little kinship with the colorless Stanley Reed.

Altogether, it would seem that Murphy will be a sort of middle-of-the-roader among the New Deal justices. He will be liberal enough to satisfy the President, but he will not follow Black and Douglas all the way along the trail they are now blazing. He is a rather solemn, pious fellow, and he will accept Frankfurter's high view of the judicial function, in this respect being more royalist than the king. And, as he always suggests an ascetic oddly strayed from his appropriate cloister, he will make himself very much at home within the cloisters of the court.

"GOOD LIGHTS" Perhaps it is this trace of frustrated monasticism, which causes Murphy to make such a curious impression on the casual beholder. He is soft-spoken, youngish, with a high complexion, conspicuously blue eyes, and something birdlike in his expression and gestures. The pattern is not monastic, yet the monasticism is somehow there.

His personality is equally puzzling. He is, as such things go, an extremely successful man. His family were Michigan Irish of moderate means and he got an excellent education at the University of Michigan and Trinity College in Dublin. He taught law, was named judge of Detroit's recorder's court, entered politics and was elected mayor of Detroit, was sent to the Philippines as governor general and finally returned to become governor of his state—all with apparent ease. His record as governor made him the biggest of the New Deal's 1938 lame ducks, and his choice for the attorney generalship was an obvious move. At the Justice Department, he has achieved much, particularly improving departmental management and the system of judicial appointments.

Yet, Murphy cannot claim great intellectual stature. He thinks rather slowly, and his tendency to Celtic sentimentality and sentimentalism makes him. The answer to the puzzle must be sought, therefore, in his peculiar fervor, the intensity of his belief in what he is doing, and the frankness of his good intentions. He insists upon them with such naive emphasis that cynics are inclined to accuse him of self-righteousness, but sympathetic eyes discern the truth in his assertions. In the old New England phrase, he is a man of "good lights."

ARBITRATOR He is eminently available for Justice Butler's vacant seat on the high bench, being a Roman Catholic, geographically suitable, and reasonably popular with rank and file Democrats. His greatest political liability used to be the prevailing though confused impression of his handling of the sit-down strikes. By now, everyone knows that he only delayed enforcing the law against the strikers in order to obtain a wise strike settlement. During those negotiations, there were stirring scenes, when John L. Lewis defied Murphy to a return of defiance, and when Lewis took to his bed, feigning illness, and Murphy followed him to the pretended sick-room to force resumption of negotiations.

In fact, Murphy's settlement of the sit-downs, in the opinion of his New Deal friends, was his greatest achievement. There is talk now that, before his elevation to the court, Murphy may be asked to use his arbitrating talent for the last time. Despite the opposition of Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins, important elements in the administration would like to see Murphy empowered to impose peace on the warring CIO and AFL.

SILHOUETTES

By RALPH T. JONES.

Here's An Inexplicable.

Coming in, in the letters telling of real life, "inexplicable" experiences. We're going to get some fine items of this idea. Here's one from Mrs. Percy Adams that is exceptional, as well.

"I had among my treasures, many years ago," writes Mrs. Adams, "a lovely old gold pin. It had belonged to my great-grandmother and looked like a twisted knot of gold, beautifully chased. It was called a 'breast pin' in those days."

"I lost it one day, in downtown Atlanta, and in spite of much advertising, never recovered it. 'Many weeks later our telephone rang one night and a voice asked for the person who had advertised for the lost pin. I found it and have it here,' said the voice, a woman, and went on to describe it to me. It was undoubtedly my pin."

"I was overjoyed and asked when I could meet her. She laughed, and hung up the receiver and said, 'I'm sorry, but I can't advertise. I never heard from her again. This all happened 30 years ago and I still look and long to find my treasured old breast pin.'"

Familiar, Yet Missed.

It happened last Sunday afternoon I had an engagement to speak before the Lee-Roosevelt Chapter of the Spanish-Speaking Veterans. The meeting place was at the Wigwam, on Central avenue, and the hour 2:30.

Friend of mine was with me and we reached the vicinity about 10 minutes ahead of time. But couldn't find the Wigwam. Rode past it once and then had to enquire at a filling station.

The odd part about it is that the years ago I went to the Wigwam quite frequently, in the course of duty as a reporter. Funny how memory plays such tricks. Isn't it?

I've often experienced that, one night. There was a meeting and the city editor was quite anxious to get a full report of the proceedings, speeches, etc. I was assigned to it but, on arrival, was refused admittance. The crowd holding the meeting didn't want any newspaper reporters there at all and had two or three tough husky lads at the door to make sure about it.

I slipped upstairs, however, to the next floor above, found the hall there unoccupied and, through an open window, got on a fire escape and crawled down to the window of the hall where the meeting was going on. It was a hot night, the windows were open, and I heard everything from the fire escape. And, at the end, went further down and dropped to the ground in the side alley.

I've often wondered if the fellows holding that meeting were dazed how come The Constitution had such a detailed report, with verbatim quotation of excerpts from speeches, the next morning. Ah, well. Those were ancient days when youthful initiative was still rampant.

Telepathy Might Explain.

Let's fill out the column with another submitted "inexplicable." Though, if you believe in telepathy, this has an explanation. Atlanta woman writes she "dreamed one night I heard my mother crying, but when I walked toward where she seemed to be, I came to a high wall. Walking along by it, I met one of my brothers and asked him where I could find a door, so I could go to mother. He said, 'you can't possibly reach her and you couldn't help her now.' I woke next morning and although I had an uneasy feeling about the dream I didn't mention it.

"After my husband left to go to work, I was clearing the breakfast table and my daughter, then about two years old, was sitting on the floor playing with a doll.

"Suddenly she jerked up her head as though listening, and said, 'Sh-sh, mamma, dear, Ganna is crying.'"

"At that moment the door bell rang and I opened the door and found a telegraph boy with a cablegram from England, telling me my father had died. It was, incidentally, from the brother who appeared in my dream."

"I had not been worrying about his health and heard later by letter he had only been sick two days. "Also, regarding the baby. She had never seen her grandma and that morning I had mentioned nothing that could have caused her to think of her."

Twenty-Five Years Ago Today.

From the news columns of Saturday, November 28, 1914:

"London, November 27.—It was reported by Lloyd's today that two British steamers were sunk off Havre yesterday by German submarines."

And Fifty Years Ago.

From the news columns of Thursday, November 28, 1889: "The Athens Banner and the Chronicle will make their consolidated appearance next Sunday, the stock of the Athens Publishing Company having been raised. Editor Gant will be at the helm, which insures the success of the new venture."

Conscience.

Mayor Reed Wilson, Lexington, Ky., received a check from a Florida motorist for $4.50 to pay for a wheelbarrow the motorist said his automobile struck and broke several months before. The check was turned over to a construction company, owner of the wheelbarrow.

Constitution Quiz

Can you answer seven of these questions? Turn to want ad pages for the answers.

1. Where is the British crown colony, British Honduras?
2. What is the name for the main cabin of a ship?
3. When is it 2 o'clock p. m. (E. S. T.) in New York City, what time is it in Denver, Colo.?
4. What are the colors in the flag of Costa Rica?
5. Which two Presidents of the United States were born in the same city?
6. With what sport is Ducky Pond associated?
7. Where is the Juba river?
8. Name the secretary of state in the Harding cabinet.
9. What is the correct pronunciation of the word vociferate?
10. What event does the ballad "Marching Through Georgia" commemorate?

FAIR ENOUGH

By WESTBROOK PEGLER.

(Editor's Note: This is a continuation of Westbrook Pegler's series on the shakeup in Kansas City which led to the downfall of Tom Pendergast, political boss.)

Newspapers KANSAS CITY, Nov. 27.—Plain newspaper reporting made the first break in the fortress of graft and general corruption erected by Tom Pendergast, but it must be allowed that for years the newspapers of Kansas City were either complacent or deceived. Roy Roberts, the central boss of the Star, admits that he shared the popular belief that Pendergast was satisfied with the honest graft which he was known to receive from his companies dealing in concrete and concrete pipe, his garbage disposal company, his asphalt and paving interests and his liquor agency.

Moreover, when Henry F. McElroy, a cunning and picturesque little Iowa real estate dealer, became city manager and announced that he would keep his own accounts according to his own home-spun country-store method, he spoke of editorial acclamation. McElroy died suddenly a few weeks ago after he had been indicted in the state courts and just as Maurice Milligan, the federal district attorney, was on the point of indicting him for evasion of his income taxes.

When he fled from office he took along his primitive informal accounts as personal possessions, but the official books reeked of fraud. The federal government is now proceeding against his estate for taxes on unreported income, but he is understood to have divested himself of most of his personal wealth years ago by gifts to members of his family.

Made an Act McElroy, like Pendergast, was a politician.

Of Simplicity full advantage of the gullibility of press and public. He was a bossy, officious little man who developed into an act, his pose of simple, direct efficiency. He refused to answer questions and for years the city's books were as private as the financial records of the state of Louisiana under Huey Long and his political heirs until last spring, when, in Louisiana too, a newspaper editor, James Crown, broke through the gang's defenses with a minute exposure of graft.

Less than two years ago, when open gambling and prostitution flourished in Kansas City under police protection and, in one notorious place, nude waitresses served a "businessmen's" lunch, an impudent executive of the Journal-Post deprecated the Star's crusade against the ballot frauds on the ground that their importance was exaggerated to the detriment of Kansas City. He didn't know, and at that time, neither did Roberts, what rottenness existed behind McElroy's facade of respectability and Pendergast's fake reputation for generosity and kindness.

McElroy pretended that good government and economy were a hobby with him and that he had made his pile and was now indifferent to profit. He let it be understood that he was doing Kansas City a favor and that it would be gross ingratitude to question him on money matters. He would arbitrarily cut the pay of the cops and other city employees for months at a time as a show of his ruthlessness, nonpolitical economy, and the public cheered, not knowing that the rolls, nevertheless, were padded with hundreds of Pendergast's ward and precinct leaders with only nominal duties or none at all.

Roster Reduced

The roster has been reduced by 1,400 head and about a million dollars a year already and will be further deloused of the parasites in the near future. The unfortunate honest cops and other actual servants in the city administration had a miserable time, being robbed of earned pay so that McElroy could make a show of balancing a fake budget. The pay they lost in this manner was diverted to the political deadheads on the rolls and to such major robberies as a water leak inspection service which cost $5,000 a month for six years, almost a graft.

The political deadheads, in turn, and the legitimate city employees, too, were systematically looted of assessments and contributions for Pendergast's organization and his personal funds. He was betting hundreds of thousands of dollars on the races, and much of that money represented private in money represented private in the hands of his own henchmen the actual workers in the city's service.

The Journal-Post, under new management, has competed briskly with the Star in the latter and more scandalous phases of the crusade, but while Pendergast and McElroy were operating the most arrogant and ruthless robbery of a city that has been discovered since the revelations of Lincoln Steffens.

It'll Cramp Their Style.

Hoochies will have only an hour to drink next New Year's Eve—and that the first hour of 1940. Indiana law prohibits selling liquor on Sunday—the day of the week the old year ends—and after midnight through the week.

But it says drinks may be sold an hour later than usual on New Year's.

So, Excise Administrator Hugh Barnhart points out, celebrants will have the hour between midnight and 1 o'clock the morning of January 1 for their drinking.

Accidents Will Happen

In Louisville, Ky., Patrolman Thomas Akin, driving a police car, turned his head to warn two "jaywalkers" at a downtown intersection.

At that moment the cruiser crashed into the rear of an automobile just ahead. Three persons, including Patrolman Charles Gray, riding with Akin, were injured slightly.

ONE WORD MORE

By RALPH MCGILL.

THOSE WAR DEBTS Yesterday afternoon, during the tea hour at the Hanjara Institution across the street from our shop, there were a couple of gentlemen, a taxi driver and a delivery man for a tobacco house, engaged in a furious argument about the war debts.

The United States is getting ready to send out the official notices the debts are due and there had been something about it in the newspapers.

The taxi driver and his friend were ready to go and fight for Finland, an honest nation, even though they were confused and somewhat uncertain as to the location of Finland or the sort of people who live there. They thought they were something like Eskimos, but they said, or rather the taxi driver said, "They are damn good Eskimos, because they pay off."

I think this sets up the state of mind which the American people have with regard to the war. I mean the war in Europe. It is very difficult indeed to arouse the people on the basis that France and England are fighting for the future of democracy in the world. It may be true, but the average man has a feeling that if it is true it just happened that way by accident and not by design. It is very, very difficult to become excited about their heroic fight for the more idealistic life when even the taxi drivers and the delivery boys know they borrowed money in good faith and then welshed on the debts.

The debt in our section is more than 14 billion dollars and that is so much money that the fellow who is wondering if he can pay for a Christmas ring for his wife at $2.50 per week, can't figure out how many dollars it is. He just doesn't like it.

That money would reduce our own national debt down to a size where even the Republicans couldn't complain about it. It would do a lot of things for us.

IN THE LAST WAR In the last war the American people, who are your real idealists of the world, really went to war because they believed in the fight to make the world safe for democracy.

They didn't even figure it that fine. They just believed the Kaiser was a heel who was trying to oppress the people of the world. And so, they went to war.

When the British and English charged to let ships land and insisted on payment for railroad right of ways; when the mayors would demand payment for every tree shot down in target practice on the ranges, the boys got a little weary of it.

There were a lot of such happenings and when the war was done and the French and English led off in welshing on their honest debts, that settled it in the minds of a lot of persons in our country. Or, the Germans are as bad as anyone else. No worse. Poland owed us lots of money and so did Czechoslovakia. When Germany took those countries they refused to make a move on the debt to the United States.

We are a big, dumb country in many respects. We fed the Russians, the Czechs, the Slovaks and the Armenians. We gave money to build back French villages and we spent here and there on relief for this and that and out of it all we got only a few letters of thanks and later a few epithets such as "Uncle Shlyok." They called us that because we sent the bill on the first of each month, so to speak.

Well, after all, it may have been worth the money. The debts are due again. The nations which could spend all the billions needed on war couldn't pay a few millions each year on their debts. So, when the English tried to sell them a bill of goods about a new holy war in Europe, they yawned and said, "Oh, yeah, those are the guys that won't pay their war debts. Why help them?"

YOU CAN SEE WAR

In one respect at least, this is the finest example of war in so far as a horrible example is concerned. In the last war there were great battles and men went forth to die in charges against the enemy. Somehow, the horror and the glory of the war as it was fought in 1914-18, hid the real effect of war.

There were too many funeral marches and too many death lists; too many victories and too many defeats to see the war in its real aspects. But this war has the veil torn away. There are a few hundred poor devils dying at sea and a few dozen each week on the west front.

We can see the rest of it. We can see the neutral nations, with their armies under arms, losing track, getting their budgets out of balance, having their business ruined.

We can see England and France and Germany, covering at any sound from the sky, rationing food, living in terror, with business slowed down; with normal life abolished.

We can see just how empty and futile is the war. We can see what is going to happen to those nations if it drags on and the people at home get restless and hungry and that restlessness is transmitted to the men at the front and in the ships.

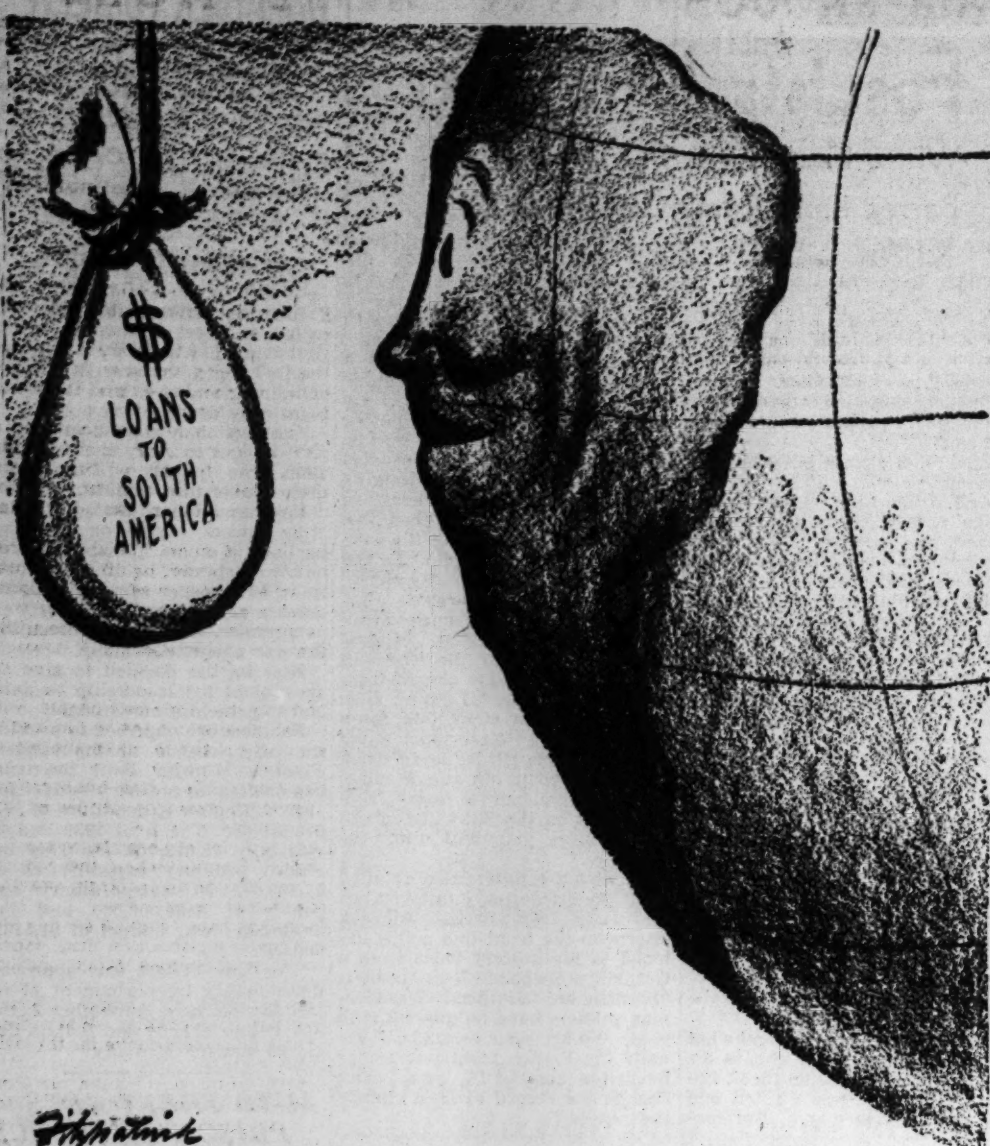

We can understand how England and France are almost as afraid to defeat and crush Germany as they are not to crush her. It is not a pretty picture. But there it is. The screen of death and glory which hid the machinations of the first World War is gone. We can see this one plainly; all its ribs show.

Take a look and know immediately we have no business in it!

Take Away All Things Not Scientifically Proved And Only Savages Would Remain

By ROBERT QUILLEN.

The so-called realist who believes only what he can prove by physical experiment is denying himself the benefit of his greatest powers.

There Is a Santa Claus.

Atlanta Audience Calmly Accepts Return 'Tobacco Road' Showing

Most Convincing Acting Done by John Barton in Role of Jeeter Lester as Cast Casually Presents Road Show Production.

By LEE ROGERS.

Atlanta very calmly accepted the return engagement of Jack Kirkland's road production of "Tobacco Road" last night at the Erlanger theater and it was presented just as casually by the cast, about half of whom appeared here last year in this sharecropper story, under court protection.

Performances will be given each night at 8:30 o'clock through Saturday, with matinees tomorrow and Saturday.

The most convincing piece of acting was done by John Barton in the role of Jeeter Lester, the lazy farmer, who is the personification of all which is bad in the sharecroppers and the system of which they are a part. Barton apparently has lost a bit of his overdone appearance, which lessened the realism of his portrayal last year and his tattered and torn garments helped with the under-nourished make-up.

After a slow start, in which the southern audience had some difficulty in adjusting themselves to the "northern" drawl, the people out front warmed to the performance and settled back to enjoy the humor of the play—greatly moderated and toned down from the New York version.

Audience Mixed.

The audience was a mixture of those who came to see from curiosity and those who had come back to see the play for the second, third, fourth or fifth time. Their reaction was just as mixed.

Comparing the opening night performance last year, which was delivered under the strain caused by an afternoon's tussle with the board of review, with the opening night's performance of the return engagement, one would hasten to prescribe a tonic tilt with the censors and the court.

However, if you haven't seen "Tobacco Road," you should. It is not just an indictment of a situation which exists in Georgia. Author Erskine Caldwell, a Georgian, says: "Tobacco Road" is a thoroughfare running an undeniable length through every state in the Union. Sometimes it is an alley, sometimes it is a paved highway; now it is a dirt road through Arkansas, now it is a boulevard through Massachusetts.

Play Is Challenge.

The play is a challenge—a challenge to the people of Georgia and everywhere to do something about an existing evil, and, to Georgia's credit, its people are awakening and doing something to rid themselves of tobacco roads. And this play had its part in the awakening.

Also in the cast are: Pitt Herbert as Duke Lester; Sara Perry, who must get awfully tired presenting the slow drawing of Ada night after night; Sheila Brent as Ellie May; Lillian Ardell as Grandma Lester; Edgar Hinton as Lov Bensey; Dick Lee as Henry Peabody; Mary Perry, of Gainesville, Ga., as Sister Bessie; Eugenia Wilson as Pearl; David Houman as Captain Tim, and Walter Ayers as George Payne.

COLLEGES OPEN AGAIN.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Nov. 27. Regular class schedules at Georgia State College for Women and Georgia Military College went into effect today after a five-day holiday for Thanksgiving.

JACOB B. JARRELL DIES IN GREENVILLE

Friend of Roosevelt Had Been in Ill Health Several Years.

GREENVILLE, Ga., Nov. 27.—(P)—Jacob B. Jarrell, about whose condition President Franklin D. Roosevelt had expressed concern only last Friday, died at his home here today. He was 79, and had been in ill health several years.

Known over Georgia as "Sheriff Jake," and since 1924 a personal friend of the President, Jarrell had served about 40 years as sheriff, deputy and town marshal.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow in the Baptist church, with the Rev. J. W. Cowart officiating. Assisting him will be the Rev. W. G. Harry, whose service was attended Sunday by the President, W. W. Ryner and William Greenway.

Born on a plantation just three miles from here, Jarrell was appointed a deputy in 1898. Two years later the Greenville town council appointed him marshal and he continued as a deputy sheriff, later becoming town jailer. In 1906 he was elected sheriff, holding that office until his voluntary retirement in 1932.

He met President Roosevelt when he came to Warm Springs in 1924 and attended an informal dinner. The friendship continued, Jarrell heading the welcoming party for Mr. Roosevelt when he came South after his election as Governor of New York.

Jarrell was a guest at the inauguration when Mr. Roosevelt was elected President, and became a friend of Postmaster James A. Farley. He was accustomed to greeting the President on his visits to the Little White House. His absence last Friday was noted by the President, who called Mrs. Elsie O'Neil of Greenville to his car and sent his friend a message by her.

Greenville residents still talk about the bird supper Jarrell gave for Farley on one of his visits.

DOWNES ASKS TRIAL ON FIVE OLD COUNTS

Ex-Bootlegger Seeks To 'Clean Up' Charges.

Seeking to "clean up" state charges against him while serving a 12-month sentence, Hugh Downes, admitted former bootlegger and hi-jacker, filed demand for trial on five old counts yesterday in Fulton superior court.

His attorney, F. Joe Turner, listed the charges as assault with intent to murder Byron Shaw, who was a witness in the recent racket and graft trials, carrying a pistol without a license twice, and two counts for pointing a pistol at another. All the cases resulted from an altercation October 3, 1937.

The indictments will be quashed unless Downes is tried this term of court or next.

GOOD MORNING

By LOUIE D. NEWTON.

A BLOW TO FOOTBALL.

The cleverest bit I have heard in a good while was the quoted remark of a wag to the effect that Poland had become so hard pressed as a result of the German invasion that she was having to recall all able-bodied young men from America and that would mean that many of our football teams would be ruined. A clever bit of humor, indeed.

But, like all genuine humor, does it not point a moral? It would, no doubt, prove a blow to the players of American football, but the question that has long been in my own mind is this, does college athletics really gain by inducing men who probably otherwise would never think of attending college to pay for so much money? Perhaps I would put it better if I asked the question of the colleges rather than the athletic associations.

Listening to the broadcasts of football games in this day and time is a sort of extension course in foreign languages as the announcers and commentators try to pronounce the names of the players. I always feel grateful to hear the names of teams where good old Anglo-Saxon names appear in the list of players. A little while ago I heard a father laughing about what his little boy said as together they sat one Saturday afternoon listening to a game between Georgia Tech and a famous American team. "Daddy," asked the little chap, "what nation is Tech playing today?"

Talking with another friend recently, he asked me if I could tell him the states and the nationalities represented on a certain Georgia college team in which we were both very much interested. I couldn't, but the next morning when I read the names of the players, I could easily see why he asked the question.

And I think we all pretty well know that these young men wouldn't just naturally drift into college, not many of them. And certainly they wouldn't find their way about the country so promiscuously, if left entirely to their own initiative.

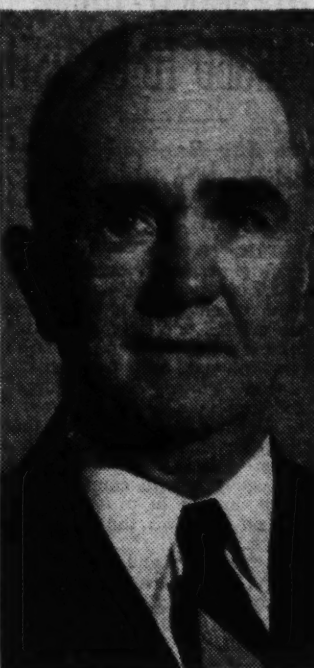

I know very well what my mail will presently reveal as a result of this column. There will be the fellow who will say that he is doing a fine piece of missionary work to lend aid to these aspiring young men by giving them scholarships, and so forth and so on. And not only scholarships?

Anyway, I claim that the fellow who thought of what might happen to American football if Poland does have to recall all her able-bodied young men is clever, very clever.

COLLINS TO SPEAK.

CARROLLTON, Ga., Nov. 27.—Dr. M. D. Collins, state superintendent of schools, will address the student body of West Georgia College here at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, and will speak to the Carrollton Rotary club at noon.

Southern Bell Director

PAUL M. DAVIS.

SOUTHERN BELL DIRECTOR NAMED

Paul M. Davis Will Succeed the Late Leland Hume.

Paul M. Davis, president of the American National Bank, Nashville, Tenn., was elected a director of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Leland Hume, Nashville, at a meeting of the board here yesterday.

A native of Tullahoma, Tenn., Davis has been identified with the business life of Nashville and the south for many years. In addition to being president of the American National Bank, to which position he was elevated in 1938, he is treasurer of the Tennessee Electric and Power Corporation, and holds directorates in several other concerns of southern and national prominence.

He is a graduate of Leland Stanford University, Palo Alto, Cal., is married, and has two children.

Z. SCHEINBAUM, 42, KILLED BY POISON

Leaves Letters to Wife and Brother.

Z. Scheinbaum, 42, of 433 Washington street, S. W., died at Grady hospital yesterday afternoon from what investigating officers said was a dose of "some kind of poison."

Two letters were found among his possessions, one addressed to his wife in Europe and another to a brother, S. I. Scheinbaum, of 638 Park drive. Both were written in Hebrew.

Coroner Donehoo said an inquest probably would be held. Funeral arrangements will be announced by S. R. Greenberg & Company.

HONOR BOOK LISTS ATLANTA STUDENT

Harry Williams in 'Who's Who in College.'

Harry Williams, son of Mrs. F. D. Williams, of 979 Crescent avenue, N. E., has been listed in "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges" from Newberry College, S. C., it was announced yesterday.

Included in the "Who's Who" each year are the most outstanding students on college campuses throughout the United States. Williams is president of the student body, head of the Student Council, member of the football team and sports editor of the Newberry Indian.

WALLACE EXTENDS FOOD STAMP AREA

All Jefferson County, in Alabama, Included.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—(P)—Secretary Wallace approved today extension of the Birmingham, Ala., food stamp plan area, effective December 11, to include all of Jefferson county.

Birmingham has been a stamp plan area since August 1. The population of Jefferson county, outside of Birmingham, is approximately 172,000, of whom it is estimated 37,000 will be eligible to buy food under the stamp plan.

NLRB Buys Printing From Firm In Strike

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(P)—The New York regional office of the National Labor Relations Board and two other federal agencies, today were purchasing printing supplies from a New York firm against which a labor strike is being waged.

The Labor Board, the Justice Department and the Securities and Exchange Commission are under contract to the Law Brief Press for supplies for the New York offices, representing about 70 per cent of the shop's output.

The printing firm has been picketed since September 12 on the contention of Labor Typographical Union No. 6 (AFL) that the company clandestinely changed from a union to an open shop in violation of the union's contract.

The federal agencies, however, said United States Attorney John T. Cahill, whose department drafted and awarded contracts for the printing, were compelled by federal regulations to accept the offer of the lowest bidder which, in this case, was the Law Brief Press.

RECIPROCAL TRADE DEFENDED BY HULL

Cites Chamberlain's Saying Commerce Between Nations Helps Peace.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—(P)—Secretary Hull defended his reciprocal trade program in the face of new criticism from members of congress.

In response to a request for comment on a speech of Prime Minister Chamberlain Sunday night, Hull expressed gratification because the British leader declared that a full and lasting trade between nations would be a necessary foundation for any enduring peace.

In his statement, Hull said the trade agreements program was developed as a means of restoring "balance and prosperity to American agriculture and industry, and thus to enable our farmers to exist satisfactorily and our workers to find steady employment." He added:

"If this point of view is put aside and our trade policy is again to be determined by the shortsighted and mistaken claims of particular interests, determined to win a completely favored position for themselves, we will fall again into the disorderly depression that followed the Hawley-Smoot tariff."

ORPHANAGE HEAD TO SPEAK TONIGHT

J. L. Fortney Will Address Intercity Civilians.

J. L. Fortney, superintendent of Baptist orphanage at Hapeville, will be the principal speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Intercity Civitan Club of East Point, College Park and Hapeville at 7 o'clock tonight at the East Point Woman's Club.

M. C. Padgett, president, will be in charge and will report on the meeting of the club's board of directors last week. Dr. Walker Curtis will report on the progress of the club's public health program and W. B. Pickle on the citizenship program. Dr. Paul West is program chairman.

STATE LIBRARIANS TO MEET IN MACON

Several Atlantans Will Attend Session Thursday.

Atlanta librarians will be represented at the meeting of the Georgia Library Association which convenes at Macon in biennial session Thursday by Miss Fannie D. Hinton, of the Carnegie library; Miss Marion Higgins, of the School of Library Science, Emory University; Miss Dorothy Spence, senior assistant state library supervisor, WPA, and Miss Edna Hanley and Miss Laura Colvin, of Agnes Scott College.

Speakers will include L. O. Moseley, chairman of the library committee of city council; Mrs. Mark Temple, Marietta; Miss Josephine Wilkins, president of the Georgia League of Women Voters, and B. F. Ballard, librarian at the federal penitentiary.

BED CATCHES FIRE; BABY BURNED HERE

Blaze Believed Started by Another Child.

Joe Jackson Wolfe, 8-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Wolfe, of 353 Pulliam street, was badly burned yesterday when his bed caught fire.

Firemen extinguished the blaze. They expressed the opinion it had been accidentally started by another child playing in the room. A nurse was in another part of the house at the time.

THE LIFE OF A FIREMAN.

MACON, Ga., Nov. 27.—(P)—Twice firemen were called to an apartment building where a winter stock of coal caught fire. Unsuccessful in their second effort at extinguishing the blaze, firemen began to shovel the fuel out of the basement. There was 30 tons of it.

SENATOR'S DAUGHTER TO WED IN DECEMBER

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 27.—(P)—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, announced tonight at his home here that his daughter, Mrs. Barbara Vandenberg Knight, would be married December 30 in Washington to John W. Bailey Jr., of Battle Creek, Mich. Bailey's father ran for United States senator against Vandenberg in 1928 and was defeated 974,203 to 375,873.

Referring to the political contest and the engagement, Senator Vandenberg said, "that just shows you what a good coalitionist I am."

Buy or sell, twice as well, with Constitution Want Ads.

The South's Finest LUGGAGE DEPT. for men and women! 6th Floor

Muska

FLANNEL ROBES

---for his Christmas!

$10

Fine French flannel and a silk fringe sash fastened on by a patented device distinguish these most desirable of Christmas gifts for him! Muse's selection of robes gives you a wide range to choose from... in rich, luxurious colors. Navy or maroon. Sizes... small, medium, large and extra large. For men over 6 feet, medium long and large long.

"Each Gift in a Muse Box!"

Muska The Style Center of the South

West End Shoppers' Bus Will Be Discontinued

After Thursday, November 30, the West End Shoppers Bus Line, operating to Lee and Gordon Streets, will be discontinued.

This five-cent service was put into effect last August 15 in the hope that patronage of the bus line would justify its permanent operation. This hope has not been realized. We are therefore withdrawing it in the belief that it serves no real need of the West End community.

Service on the City Hall, Fox and Ball Park Shoppers Bus lines will not be affected by the discontinuance of the West End line.

Georgia Power Company

LENOX PARK

Wide-Wooded Lots Convenient to Town Desirable Lots, $1,500.00 and Up Vernon 8723.

The Sign of Medical Relief

It is human to be sick and then the sensible thing to do is to send for your doctor. Unfortunately, though, most of us do not budget for the doctor. Thus his bill becomes additional expense.

The Sign of Financial Relief through which to pay doctor, dentist, nurse, hospital and for medical supplies is Our Personal Loan Department

BORROW FROM US and pay those bills. Then repay us monthly through a year. It will help you and your doctor.

THE CITIZENS & SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK

Is All You Need Pay for

$5 10 Modern Styles

GLASSES Complete Pay 50c Week

ON EASY CREDIT!

- White Single Vision Lenses
- OXFORD RIMLESS FRAME
- Any Prescription—No Matter How Complicated Your Case

4 Peachtree St., N. E. JA. 0857

RUSSIA IS THOUGHT SPURRED BY FEAR CONFLICT MAY END

Belief War Will Possibly Collapse Before Reds Realize Plans Put as Basis of Finn Crisis.

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON,
Associated Press Staff Writer.

Moscow's fears that the war between Germany and the Allies may collapse before Soviet Russia can realize completely her ambitious plans to seize a front seat at the post-war peace table may underlie the latest Russo-Finnish crisis.

Still blocked in the Balkans by the Allies and by increasingly formidable Italian resistance, the Moscow Goliath has turned again with menacing scowls on the Finnish David that is doubtfully withstanding Soviet demands for a dominant role in the Baltic.

Russia realizes, no doubt, that early peace in Europe would see frustration of both her Balkan and Baltic thrusts. This realization, in the opinion of diplomats and students of the situation, played a part in Moscow's decision to turn the heat on little Finland at this time. Whether the reported firing by Finnish border forces on Red army troops is merely a trumped-up incident, as Finnish leaders assert, or whether it did in fact occur, it affords Moscow a chance to drop broad hints of immediate military action if Finland stands pat against new demands.

Neutral military observers trace the timing of the new Russian demand to the fact that the icy grip of winter is already impairing the greatest Finnish safeguard. Lakes, waterways and marshes that make Russian invasion of Finland a difficult operation in the open seasons already are freezing up. They will stay frozen for months, possibly as late as the last of April.

NAVY PLANS QUARTERS FOR NEUTRAL PATROL

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(AP)—The navy announced today it would begin work immediately on a "neutrality patrol headquarters" adjoining Floyd Bennett field in Brooklyn at a cost of $500,000 to $600,000.

Included will be two large hangars, accommodating 24 large seaplanes, quarters for two squadrons of navy fliers, gasoline and ammunition tanks and a runway into Jamaica bay.

Rear Admiral Clark H. Woodward said the purpose was "to see that no foreign, or rather belligerent, nation comes within our waters or violates any of our rules and laws of neutrality."

AMERICAN MISSION BOMBED BY JAPANESE

PEIPING, Nov. 28.—(Tuesday) (AP)—Advices received here today said Japanese fliers bombed the American Christian and Missionary Alliance mission at Szechuan, Szechuen province, on November 10. Two bombs were said to have fallen on the mission garden. The mission residence collapsed and burned. Available information did not mention any dead or wounded.

For Misery from HEAD COLDS

use
MENTHOLATUM

Link them together
in your mind!

ARE you at the mercy of a sniffle, a sneeze, another head cold? Why endure so much misery? A little Mentholum applied in each nostril will soothe the irritated nasal membranes, check the sneezing, relieve the stuffiness, and help you to breathe more easily.

Also rub Mentholum vigorously on the chest and back to improve the local blood circulation, and thus gain extra help in relieving cold discomforts. Rub it on the forehead and temples to relieve headache and neuralgia due to colds.

PEOPLES Bank brings YOU a new service

Real Estate LOANS
First and Second Mortgages
(No Brokerage Fees)

In addition to the SPECIALIZED loan service

—the most down-to-earth, honest-to-goodness, helpful loan service for the little fellow who needs $20 to $5,000 in a hurry, repayable at his convenience. We specialize in working out arrangements to suit whatever collateral you have, at a rate and on terms to fit your needs.

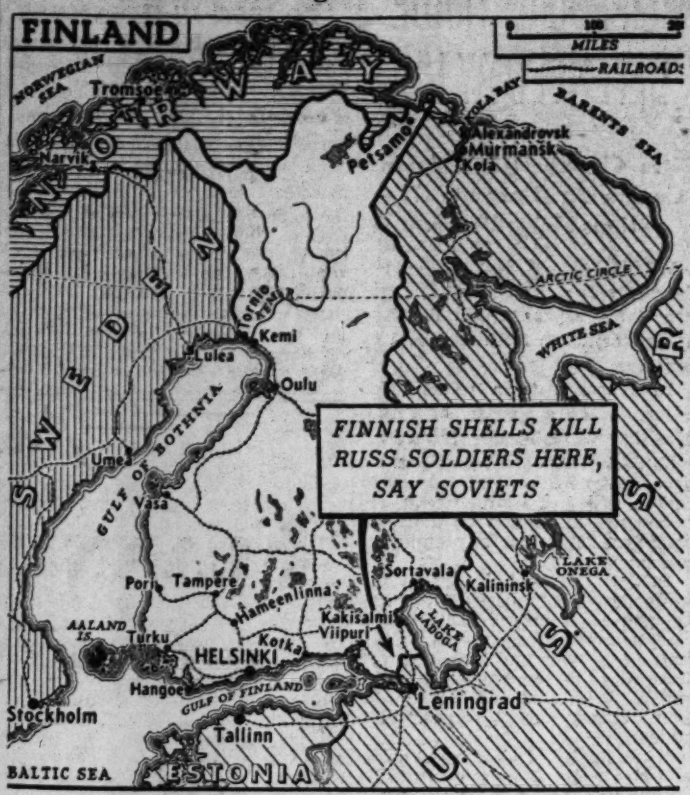

Enjoy These Advantages
Specialized Service—6 Authorized Loan Officials—Loans $20 to $5,000 on most anything—Bank rates.

Automobile Loans
Free parking Forsyth Building Garage while loan is made—you keep the car—no collision insurance required—this saves you money. 30-minute service.

WALNUT 9786—2nd Floor Volunteer Bldg. 4%
Terms 5 — 10 — 15 — 20 — 25 — 30 Months On Savings

PEOPLES Bank

Where Russia Charges Finns Made Attacks

Tension centering around the Karelian Isthmus, shown on the map above, mounted toward a breaking point last night as Finland refused to withdraw her forces from the border, though charged that Finnish artillery opened fire on Russian territory in the narrow isthmus.

Lieutenant General Lauri Malmberg (left), commander in chief of the Finnish Civil Guard and one of the six members of Finland's Council of Defense, is in charge of the republic's defense forces. At right is shown the small but defiant country's prime minister, A. K. Cajander.

FINNS GIVE TERMS FOR FRONTIER TALK

Continued From First Page.

lief in some quarters that Russia is not planning to use force, but hopes to use the alleged incident as a form of continued pressure on her little neighbor.

Nevertheless, it was pointed out, the Finnish note tonight rejected any unilateral concessions regarding disposition of troops which might later jeopardize her defense.

The answer proposed that Sunday's incident be investigated by a frontier commission already existing for that purpose.

MEETINGS AND PRESS BRING MASS EXCITEMENT
By WITT HANCOCK.

MOSCOW, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Soviet meetings and the press produced mass excitement today over the Russian charge that Finnish troops shot across the border and killed four and wounded nine Red soldiers.

Throughout the country countless meetings of soldiers, workers and farmers were held, at which resolutions were adopted, some expressing anger against Finland or threatening her or calling for the Russian government to take action by adopting "the strictest measures."

(The Soviet radio called upon the Finnish people to overthrow their government and "escape the fate of Poland" after Finland's official rejection of a Russian protest against an alleged attack on Red army troops by Finnish artillery according to the United Press.

(The radio appeal, repeated several times in the Finnish language, told the Finnish people that they need have no fear of attack by the Soviet Red army if they overthrow the government of Premier Aimo Cajander.

(There were open threats of an invasion of Finnish territory and Red army commanders of the Leningrad military district reported that "our batteries are ready at any moment" to open fire unless the Finns capitulate and withdraw their troops, the United Press said.

(Many observers in Moscow predicted imminent action against Finland, asserting that Russia in the past 24 hours has gone too far in whipping up mass indignation against the Finns to accept any compromise settlement.)

Workers at a bearings plant in Moscow were reported by Tass, official Soviet news agency, to have adopted a resolution declaring "our invincible Red army will reduce the enemy to dust on his own territory" if "provocateurs" ventured war against the "powerful country of Socialism."

"Lightning Meetings." The agency carried a summary of other resolutions adopted at "lightning meetings" and said a "storm of the peoples' wrath and indignation" had been called forth by the alleged incident.

"If need be we shall strike at the dirty paws of the Finnish militarists," said one such resolution.

"The people of the Soviet will send to the devil all political gamblers," this statement continued.

Meetings were being held all over the country, Tass reported, at which unanimous support was given the government's demand for withdrawal of Finnish troops 12 to 16 miles from the border, north of Leningrad.

No mention was made in the Soviet newspapers or over the Soviet radio of Finland's denial that any shots had been fired by Finns.

Finland's answer to the Soviet protest was delivered at the Kremlin tonight after the Finns apparently had been in possession of their instructions for some time but were unable immediately to make an appointment with the proper officials.

The Finnish answer, besides denying any shooting from that side of the border, met Russian proposals for withdrawal of Finnish troops by agreeing to negotiate on a mutual withdrawal.

Initiates Campaign. Meetings of troops stationed in the Moscow district adopted resolutions stating "there is a limit to any patience — 10 days were enough to conquer Poland."

Another said: "We request the Soviet government to break the provocateurs of war. We want the government to adopt the strictest measures."

(Authorized quarters in Berlin said that Germany "read with extraordinary interest" the Russian regards England and France as responsible for Finland's unyielding stand. The information service Dienst Aus Deutschland, which often reflects German foreign office views, said Germany sympathized with Russia's demands on Finland.)

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE
NOT TO BE GIVEN
OSLO, Norway, Nov. 27.—(AP)—The Nobel prize committee today decided not to award a peace prize for 1939.

'TWO-FACED' GAME CHARGED TO BRITISH

Nazis Say England Forced Poland Into War With Germany.

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—(UP)—The German government said tonight in a 3,000-word announcement that the recent British blue book on the origins of war contains indisputable proof that Great Britain played a "treacherous, two-faced game" which forced Poland into war with Germany.

The German reply asserted that on August 28, three days before the Nazi invasion of Poland, the British government committed a "forgery merely in order to gain time" and stave off the war for a few days.

This "forgery and sheer lie," according to the government statement, was a memorandum delivered to Germany from British Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax saying that Poland would send a plenipotentiary to Berlin to negotiate a settlement of Germany's demands.

Actually, it was contended, Poland had not consented to any such measure and was feverishly preparing for war.

"England wanted war against Germany," the German government said.

One of the most informative letters to be received in Atlanta during recent weeks is one written by a London business leader to an Atlanta businessman. The writer makes a penetrating analysis of the European situation and writes with a knowledge not only of United Kingdom and continental conditions, but of those in America and Atlanta as well, as he has been a visitor in this city.

The scene is fast changing, he says, with Allied diplomatic and economic victories being achieved. The Londoner looks for Allied supremacy in the air before long and then a change in the fighting tactics.

His letter says:

"The political scene is fast changing.

"The Anglo-Turkish pact, I think, is of the greatest importance and has, in my opinion, definitely sealed Hitler's fate, since the natural consequences will be the whole Balkans will follow Turkey's lead, and with the Balkans, Italy will have to side with the Allied cause, thus freeing the entire Mediterranean.

Whilst Russia, obviously, will continue to fish in troubled waters, and try to make the best of it in her own interest, I do not foresee Russia taking a very active part in Germany's favor at the worst—they are anxious to see both sides weakened as a result of present hostilities.

Political War Lost.

"Politically, therefore, I think that Germany has lost the war already, and it is now only a question of gain such a military advantage that a just peace can be enforced to clear the European mess.

"There is no doubt that the various blocs will realize where their advantages lie, and that, paradoxical as it may seem, the result will be to bring to light the basic facts that influenced European politics, from an economic, national and military point of view, has helped towards a reconstruction of the European problem.

"I think it would be fatal to stop before the Germans have been shown that they cannot enforce their will and assume European leadership, otherwise we shall be in much the same position as after the last war, namely,

STEEL COMPANY
REAFFIRMS PRICES

Move Causes Little Surprise
In Industry.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 27.—(AP)—In a move that caused little surprise in the industry, Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation today reaffirmed with minor exceptions current prices for the first quarter of 1940 despite "rising costs and many uncertainties."

The corporation, largest subsidiary of U. S. Steel, traditionally takes the lead in posting prices and its quotations usually are reflected in those of small companies.

UPTURN UNSOUND,
WEIR DECLARES

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—(AP)—E. T. Weir, steel producer, today described the current business upturn as unsound and declared that permanent recovery was prevented by government spending and the effect of New Deal "theories" on business.

The present high level of business activity, the chairman of the national steel corporation said in an address prepared for the Economic Club, of Detroit, has resulted largely from anticipation of war buying from Europe. Permanent recovery, he said, depends upon sustained high volume of private investment in productive enterprise.

(Authorized quarters in Berlin said that Germany "read with extraordinary interest" the Russian regards England and France as responsible for Finland's unyielding stand. The information service Dienst Aus Deutschland, which often reflects German foreign office views, said Germany sympathized with Russia's demands on Finland.)

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE
NOT TO BE GIVEN
OSLO, Norway, Nov. 27.—(AP)—The Nobel prize committee today decided not to award a peace prize for 1939.

ARMED RAWALPINDI
SUNK BY RAIDERS

Continued From First Page.

from world shipping would divert much business to this country, whose maritime industry has been partly handicapped by neutrality laws.

Pittman Speaks.

"If this war lasts another year," Pittman said in a Washington press conference, "I don't think we will have any of our ships left."

(Frank J. Taylor, president of the American Merchant Marine Institute, took a divergent view, however, pointing out in a radio forum Sunday he said that, while withdrawal of foreign ships from trade routes outside combat zones had led some American operators to order new vessels, "this will be discouraged to a large extent if all American liners thrown out of European service are entered in these trade routes.")

Meantime, it was understood, an effort will be made to smooth over objections of six neutral governments which protested the new blockade order on the ground it would stifle trade.

British naval authorities said the blockade, including German exports as well as imports, would be more effective than in the World War because the Reich now is in need of cash and credits.

(France announced a decree would be published to take similar measures to shut off all German exports.)

Ignored Warning.

The admiralty told how the Rawalpindi, on contraband patrol duty, ignored a warning, shot across her bows and then was blasted by salvos from the 11-inch guns of the Deutschland at 10,000 yards.

"The Rawalpindi replied with all four starboard six-inch guns," the admiralty reported.

The third salvo from the Deutschland put out all lights and broke electric winches of the ammunition supply.

"The fourth salvo shot away the whole of the bridge and wireless room.

"Both German ships now were closing rapidly and by this time the second had gone around the Rawalpindi's stern and was firing from the port side."

The account told how the Rawalpindi maintained the fight "until every gun was put out of action and the whole ship except the forecastle and the poop was ablaze."

For 30 or 40 minutes the combat continued before the German raiders ceased firing.

The British said three boats were lowered, loaded with more than 30 men. Two were believed to have been picked up by one of the German ships. Previous accounts said only 17 crewmen were

BALTIC PRESS HITS FINLAND'S ATTITUDE

Follows Lead of Soviet Papers and Calls Her 'Orientation' Weak.

RIGA, Latvia, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Newspapers in the Baltic countries, following the lead of Soviet Russia's press, today launched a campaign against Finland.

Latvia's semi-official Briva Zeme led by upbraiding Finland for attempting to pretend she is not a Baltic state in the same boat with Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, where Moscow gained army, navy air bases two months ago.

"Finland is completely a Baltic state and no self-hypnosis can help her," Briva Zeme said. "Finland, during her negotiations with Moscow, tried to draw a sharp line between herself and the other Baltic states. Twenty years ago Finland felt herself completely a Baltic state and took an active part of collaboration with the Baltic states."

"Since 1922 this orientation has been completely abolished and replaced by a Scandinavian or northern orientation."

The newspapers said the new situation in Europe made the "weakness of this artificial orientation immediately evident."

Anglo-Turkish Pact Defeated Nazis Politically, Londoner Says in Letter

One of the most informative letters to be received in Atlanta during recent weeks is one written by a London business leader to an Atlanta businessman. The writer makes a penetrating analysis of the European situation and writes with a knowledge not only of United Kingdom and continental conditions, but of those in America and Atlanta as well, as he has been a visitor in this city.

The scene is fast changing, he says, with Allied diplomatic and economic victories being achieved. The Londoner looks for Allied supremacy in the air before long and then a change in the fighting tactics.

His letter says:

"The political scene is fast changing.

"The Anglo-Turkish pact, I think, is of the greatest importance and has, in my opinion, definitely sealed Hitler's fate, since the natural consequences will be the whole Balkans will follow Turkey's lead, and with the Balkans, Italy will have to side with the Allied cause, thus freeing the entire Mediterranean.

Whilst Russia, obviously, will continue to fish in troubled waters, and try to make the best of it in her own interest, I do not foresee Russia taking a very active part in Germany's favor at the worst—they are anxious to see both sides weakened as a result of present hostilities.

Political War Lost.

"Politically, therefore, I think that Germany has lost the war already, and it is now only a question of gain such a military advantage that a just peace can be enforced to clear the European mess.

"There is no doubt that the various blocs will realize where their advantages lie, and that, paradoxical as it may seem, the result will be to bring to light the basic facts that influenced European politics, from an economic, national and military point of view, has helped towards a reconstruction of the European problem.

"I think it would be fatal to stop before the Germans have been shown that they cannot enforce their will and assume European leadership, otherwise we shall be in much the same position as after the last war, namely,

STEEL COMPANY
REAFFIRMS PRICES

Move Causes Little Surprise
In Industry.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 27.—(AP)—In a move that caused little surprise in the industry, Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation today reaffirmed with minor exceptions current prices for the first quarter of 1940 despite "rising costs and many uncertainties."

The corporation, largest subsidiary of U. S. Steel, traditionally takes the lead in posting prices and its quotations usually are reflected in those of small companies.

UPTURN UNSOUND,
WEIR DECLARES

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—(AP)—E. T. Weir, steel producer, today described the current business upturn as unsound and declared that permanent recovery was prevented by government spending and the effect of New Deal "theories" on business.

The present high level of business activity, the chairman of the national steel corporation said in an address prepared for the Economic Club, of Detroit, has resulted largely from anticipation of war buying from Europe. Permanent recovery, he said, depends upon sustained high volume of private investment in productive enterprise.

(Authorized quarters in Berlin said that Germany "read with extraordinary interest" the Russian regards England and France as responsible for Finland's unyielding stand. The information service Dienst Aus Deutschland, which often reflects German foreign office views, said Germany sympathized with Russia's demands on Finland.)

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE
NOT TO BE GIVEN
OSLO, Norway, Nov. 27.—(AP)—The Nobel prize committee today decided not to award a peace prize for 1939.

ARMED RAWALPINDI
SUNK BY RAIDERS

Continued From First Page.

from world shipping would divert much business to this country, whose maritime industry has been partly handicapped by neutrality laws.

Pittman Speaks.

"If this war lasts another year," Pittman said in a Washington press conference, "I don't think we will have any of our ships left."

(Frank J. Taylor, president of the American Merchant Marine Institute, took a divergent view, however, pointing out in a radio forum Sunday he said that, while withdrawal of foreign ships from trade routes outside combat zones had led some American operators to order new vessels, "this will be discouraged to a large extent if all American liners thrown out of European service are entered in these trade routes.")

Meantime, it was understood, an effort will be made to smooth over objections of six neutral governments which protested the new blockade order on the ground it would stifle trade.

British naval authorities said the blockade, including German exports as well as imports, would be more effective than in the World War because the Reich now is in need of cash and credits.

(France announced a decree would be published to take similar measures to shut off all German exports.)

Ignored Warning.

The admiralty told how the Rawalpindi, on contraband patrol duty, ignored a warning, shot across her bows and then was blasted by salvos from the 11-inch guns of the Deutschland at 10,000 yards.

"The Rawalpindi replied with all four starboard six-inch guns," the admiralty reported.

The third salvo from the Deutschland put out all lights and broke electric winches of the ammunition supply.

"The fourth salvo shot away the whole of the bridge and wireless room.

"Both German ships now were closing rapidly and by this time the second had gone around the Rawalpindi's stern and was firing from the port side."

The account told how the Rawalpindi maintained the fight "until every gun was put out of action and the whole ship except the forecastle and the poop was ablaze."

For 30 or 40 minutes the combat continued before the German raiders ceased firing.

The British said three boats were lowered, loaded with more than 30 men. Two were believed to have been picked up by one of the German ships. Previous accounts said only 17 crewmen were

Fascists Muzzled

White Finds Italian Officers
Barred From Rome Cafes.

By WILLIAM L. WHITE,
Special Correspondent.

ROME, Italy (Airmail).—"... And this street," she said, "well, there's nothing quite like it in America, but you might call it the Champs Elysees of Rome. Where all the best sidewalk cafes are and all the smart people come and sit in them."

"And pitch cigarette butts at royal palms?"

"And drink funny little Italian drinks out of little glasses and pitchers and spoons. Only most of them turn out to be vermouth. But it's so sad now!"

"Why, I think it's a fine street."

Officers Absent.

"But you should have seen it before the government declared it out-of-bounds for the army. Then there were the most heavenly officers sitting at all the tables. Lovely aquamarine lieutenants. Stunning golden brown majors. Breath-taking gray-green captains. Sometimes some deep-blue naval officers."

"But what was wrong with this street?"

"It was too good a street. The very best hotels where foreigners stay are on it. There are embassies and legations all around. And the officers sat at all the cafes and talked."

Too Much Talk.

"Because they talked about what each one thought Italy should do. Not that you can blame them, because every one was excited and talking the same way. But for-

ARMED RAWALPINDI
SUNK BY RAIDERS

Continued From First Page.

from world shipping would divert much business to this country, whose maritime industry has been partly handicapped by neutrality laws.

Pittman Speaks.

"If this war lasts another year," Pittman said in a Washington press conference, "I don't think we will have any of our ships left."

(Frank J. Taylor, president of the American Merchant Marine Institute, took a divergent view, however, pointing out in a radio forum Sunday he said that, while withdrawal of foreign ships from trade routes outside combat zones had led some American operators to order new vessels, "this will be discouraged to a large extent if all American liners thrown out of European service are entered in these trade routes.")

Meantime, it was understood, an effort will be made to smooth over objections of six neutral governments which protested the new blockade order on the ground it would stifle trade.

British naval authorities said the blockade, including German exports as well as imports, would be more effective than in the World War because the Reich now is in need of cash and credits.

(France announced a decree would be published to take similar measures to shut off all German exports.)

Ignored Warning.

The admiralty told how the Rawalpindi, on contraband patrol duty, ignored a warning, shot across her bows and then was blasted by salvos from the 11-inch guns of the Deutschland at 10,000 yards.

"The Rawalpindi replied with all four starboard six-inch guns," the admiralty reported.

The third salvo from the Deutschland put out all lights and broke electric winches of the ammunition supply.

"The fourth salvo shot away the whole of the bridge and wireless room.

"Both German ships now were closing rapidly and by this time the second had gone around the Rawalpindi's stern and was firing from the port side."

The account told how the Rawalpindi maintained the fight "until every gun was put out of action and the whole ship except the forecastle and the poop was ablaze."

For 30 or 40 minutes the combat continued before the German raiders ceased firing.

The British said three boats were lowered, loaded with more than 30 men. Two were believed to have been picked up by one of the German ships. Previous accounts said only 17 crewmen were

White Finds Italian Officers Barred From Rome Cafes.

By WILLIAM L. WHITE,
Special Correspondent.

ROME, Italy (Airmail).—"... And this street," she said, "well, there's nothing quite like it in America, but you might call it the Champs Elysees of Rome. Where all the best sidewalk cafes are and all the smart people come and sit in them."

"And pitch cigarette butts at royal palms?"

COMMISSIONERS TO STUDY FL. FAS. BUDGET PROBLEM

Between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000 Must Be Sold If Fiscal Operations Continue at 1939 Pace.

The necessity for selling between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000 of 1939 county tax fl. fas., between December 20 and the end of the year will be emphasized today by the county commissioners at a special conference with T. Earl Suttles, tax collector.

The commissioners at a recent session urged Suttles to make arrangements for disposing of the fl. fas., which will be due after the closing date for payment of taxes, December 20, but it was understood that no plan had been worked out.

Suttles, at the last meeting, suggested the fl. fas. (bills on past due taxes), be "placed in trust" with a company which would advance cash to the county, but the county legal department ruled that the fl. fas. must be sold.

In past years, little more than half the $4,000,000 taxes due the county have been collected by December 20, the legal closing date. If the same should occur this year, the county, in 1940, would be able to budget against only approximately $2,000,000—half the usual amount, and salaries and services would have to be drastically reduced, commissioners asserted.

LUGGAGE FROM TURNER'S is identified immediately as it has individuality others lack.
W. Z. Turner Luggage Co.
219 PEACHTREE ST.

$10,000,000 Falls Into Lap on Birthday

Mrs. Frances Dodge Johnson yesterday celebrated her 25th birthday anniversary and gained control of a $10,000,000 inheritance left in trust by her father, John F. Dodge, automobile manufacturer.

Heiress Reaches 25, Gets Control Of $10,000,000 Dodge Fortune

Inheritance Represents Mrs. Frances Dodge Johnson's Share of Trust Fund Established by Her Father, Automobile Magnate.

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—(P)—Mrs. Frances Dodge Johnson, celebrating her 25th birthday today, came into control of her inheritance of more than $10,000,000 from the Dodge automobile fortune.

The inheritance represents her share of a trust fund established by her father, John F. Dodge, and the accumulated interest from it. Income from the fund has paid her living expenses during the trust period which ended today.

The young heiress who had been called "Detroit's No. 1 glamor girl," was married in July, 1938, to James B. Johnson Jr., of Elizabeth, N. J., and Detroit. Johnson edits a musical publication, Swing. Accountings made of the expenditure of income from the trust fund have indicated an annual outlay of $25,000 for clothes by Mrs. Johnson, and an annual expense of $100,000 for upkeep of her extensive stables at Rochester, Michigan.

The trust fund, approximately $40,000,000, was set up by the will of John F. Dodge, automobile manufacturer, who died in 1921. Beneficiaries of the trust were Mrs. Johnson, her sisters, Mrs. Seymour and Mrs. Isabel Sloan, and a brother, the late Daniel G. Dodge.

Executors of the John F. Dodge estate in an accounting December 31, 1938, reported assets of $38,891,517 and income during 1938 of $1,356,109.37.

4 TECH STUDENTS TEST NAZI WAR DIET

Continued From First Page.

fects was Henry Mayo, who doesn't like cabbage. Towards evening he complained of a headache, but smiled wanly and said he would continue for "science and international relations."

Others Show No Ill Effects. The others survived in good order. Schmidt, who has relatives in Germany, prepared for a long siege, supported by the consolation that "if they can take it, I can." Stribling was quiet and reserved as he contemplated that Christmas was a short time for shoppers but a long way for him.

Scanlon argued that things would not be so bad if they could eat alone, but the College Inn at lunch time is crowded with students eating anything they want and a lot of it.

Mitchell Cox, the English instructor after whose lecture the plan was formulated, agreed to keep score and act as guardian of weights and measures. He did not comment on the future of the diet.

Said Manager Jack Lester, "We are cooking the food the way they want it and giving it to them free. I wouldn't charge anybody for the food those boys want to eat."

Jack O'Connor, our outside prop man, must have a magic lamp hidden away somewhere. One night he was told to have a tortoiseshell cat and young kittens on the set next morning—they were there! Another time it was white peacocks. Again, queer musical instruments of the period, a bell for a Civil War engine, Civil War writing pens, meal sacks, hard-tack, watermelons in February—and it took him less than a day to assemble, from a list I gave him, all the items Scarlett and Melanie took from the knapsack of the dead Yankee!

"Jack, how do you find all these things?" I asked him. "Oh," he replied, with his wide Irish grin, "I just do it with mirrors!"

HOMERANSACKED, LOOT WORTH $2,200

D. A. Limbert's Residence in Druid Hills Entered Some Time Sunday.

The largest burglary in recent months, and the second in fashionable Druid Hills within the week, was reported yesterday to DeKalb county police by D. A. Limbert, of 2115 Ponce de Leon avenue.

The loss, which amounted to more than $2,200 in silverware and jewelry, was discovered late Sunday night when Mr. and Mrs. Limbert returned home after spending the day with friends. Entrance had been made through a jimmied side window, and the dining room, with its silver cabinets, was ransacked.

Included in the loot was a complete silver service and a lady's white gold ring, star sapphire and platinum ring, an aquamarine ring with six diamonds, two gold wrist watches, two bracelets and a quantity of bed linen.

All uninsured, Mrs. Limbert said most of the items were gifts from friends. Police believed the loot was hauled away in a car.

On the night of November 20 the home of Mrs. H. M. Gerson, 1590 Harwood road, was robbed of $300 in silver, county police records show. Police expressed the belief that the same burglar was responsible for both crimes.

ALABAMA MAKES BID FOR SEMMES' SWORD

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 27.—(P)—Governor Frank M. Dixon today joined Mrs. Marie Bankhead Owen, history department director, in efforts to obtain for Alabama permanent possession of the sword of Admiral Raphael Semmes, Confederate naval hero, which has been held in Mobile for many years.

His request was made of Oliver J. Semmes, Pensacola, Fla., the admiral's grandson, who has asked the city of Mobile to turn the sword over to him. Alabama is seeking the sword, the executive said, for permanent preservation in the new history building now under construction at the state capitol.

FARM INCOME RISE FACT FINDERS' AIM

Continued From First Page.

of which proves inevitably an avenue to the whole comprehensive question of farm advancement, were selected finally for consideration. Practical solutions of each are offered in the report. The underlying principle of the enterprise "is based on confidence in the democratic process and on the recognized principle that in a democracy the driving force must come from the people."

At a concrete first step it is recommended that each of Georgia's 159 counties "prepare, adopt, print and place in the hands of every family a county farm program which shall, for a period of years, serve as a guide for the county's agricultural efforts."

The nucleus for such a county planning organization already exists in the membership of the 17 bodies, ranging from parent-teacher associations and Rotary clubs to the press and education associations, which now are located in the county and which, on a state-wide basis, form the fact-finding movement.

"When prepared and adopted, the county farm program could be presented and explained to groups representing all citizens in the county," the report points out. "Carried to its fullest development such a program might constitute a full year's work in science or agriculture for any school or class."

"It could be made the basis for county agent and home demonstration agent work; it could be the course of study used by vocational teachers; and it could serve as the guide for all other agricultural services represented in the county."

"Every organization in the Citizens' Fact-Finding Movement or other local organizations could help by selecting one or more phases of the program for support—not for a month, but for a period as long as the need for solving the problem exists."

"If this one recommendation were carried out faithfully in every Georgia county, we would in large measure overcome, in a few years, the serious handicap of an outmoded agricultural economy that for more than half a century has retarded the progress of the state."

The problems dealt with in the report are:
Low farm income.
"Living at home."
Eroded and impoverished soil.
The one-crop system.
Landlord-tenant relations.
Inadequate markets.
Low yields per acre.
Lack of pastures and roughage.
Land resources not fully used.
Lack of functioning farm organizations.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are the main organs of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of sleep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with a smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, and successfully pay millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Constitution Reporter Takes the Census Of the Census Taker—and Gets Answers

It was all in the day's work last night when O. T. Ray moved into his new offices in a downtown office building, where he will direct the census count as supervisor of the north Georgia area. Instead of counting "heads" in Georgia, Ray was counting lamps and desks.

BRIDGES ATTACKS 'POLITICS IN RELIEF'

RENO, Nov. 27.—(P)—Senator Bridges, Republican, New Hampshire, charged tonight that New Dealers sought to use relief funds "as a vehicle to carry out their plan for a new state."

In a speech prepared for a Republican rally, the senator declared that the present administration sought, with funds congress voted for relief, "to elect its own men to congress and purge those who were unfriendly to it."

KENNEDY PREPARES FOR CHRISTMAS VISIT

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy called upon Prime Minister Chamberlain today in a half-hour farewell before his return to the United States December 3. Kennedy plans to return after the Christmas holidays.

ROLLING MILL TO PAY DIVIDEND JANUARY 15

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio, Nov. 27.—(P)—American Rolling Mill Company directors today voted a dividend of $1.25 a share on account of dividends in arrears on the 4-1-2 per cent cumulative preferred stock, of $100 par value. The disbursement, payable January 15 to holders of record December 15, lowers arrears on the issue to $2.75 as of the payment date.

Principal plants are in Ohio, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Missouri.

DR. J. I. VANCE BURIED

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 27.—(UP)—Funeral services were held here today for Dr. James I. Vance, 78, internationally-known Presbyterian minister and pastor emeritus of the First Presbyterian church in Nashville. He died Friday at Blowing Rock, N. C.

Womanlike, She Asks a Lot of Questions About Everything.

By YOLANDE GWIN.

O. T. Ray, who will tell the census takers what to ask you when they come around in 1940, had plenty to tell last night on the subject of moving.

The supervisor of the north Georgia area established his headquarters yesterday in a downtown building and, although his friends say he has the patience of Job, this moving business really got him down.

"I didn't know there was so much to moving," he said, "and I have moved around a lot. That goes for business as well as home. But this office moving beats any home moving I have ever done. I keep wondering if I have forgotten anything. How I have I do not know, because I have checked lists for days on desks, chairs, table, lamps, index files and cabinets."

Takes Job Seriously.

Ray, who studied civil engineering at the University of Michigan, will be assisted by R. M. Cobb. Ray is the man who takes his job seriously. Last night, despite the upset of moving, getting this and that in place, keeping away from job-seekers—the time and place for them will be announced—he was as calm and as interested in the work, as he was when he held posts with the State Highway Board and the United States Bureau of Public Roads. Moving got him down, but he hardly showed it, and best of all, he didn't complain about it, except to take it as a good joke.

In other words, "when you gotta move, you gotta move," and the head census man who will soon know everybody's business in this section, was minding his own business last night, with his sleeves rolled up, moving into his new office.

Quiet, but forceful in speech in off-the-record moments, he displays an easy, happy-go-lucky disposition and a grand sense of humor. Nothing seems to bother him to the extent of being perturbed and upset by overwork. He can take it. Entering one of his two rooms of his office suite last night, he stumbled over a chair.

Just Like Home.

"Well, this is just like it is at home sometimes," he laughed. "The room will be dark, and my wife, just like other women, takes great delight in moving the furniture around when I am out. When I come home, the furniture and I have it out until we get used to our new location."

Reared in Americus, Ray has served for the past 20 years in south Georgia and Atlanta with the state. During this period he served for a time in an area position with the WPA. He served for three years with the planning survey for the State Highway Department and the United States Bureau of Public Roads.

He said last night he was "floored" with the number of applications pouring in for census work. He thinks women oftentimes make better census takers than men. Why? Well, a woman can think of so many questions to ask, on or off the job.

His favorite sports are fishing—deep sea and fresh water—and hunting, the latter finding him in south Georgia whenever his job can spare him. He is married and lives at 1012 Bellvue drive.

FLY
IT PAYS TO FLY

via DELTA

Delta's convenient, time-saving flights save whole days of travel across the South at fares that figure less than the actual cost of driving an average automobile. Arrive at your destination relaxed and refreshed with more hours for business or pleasure. It pays to fly Delta.

BIRMINGHAM	53 min.	$8.50
Augusta	1 hr.	7.00
Jackson	23 hrs.	18.50
Memphis	23 hrs.	20.40
Columbia	23 hrs.	10.00
Charleston	23 hrs.	13.50
Shreveport	41 hrs.	29.00
Los Angeles	15 hrs.	112.00

E. Bound 9:10 AM and 4:45 PM
W. Bound 8:50, 8:45 AM, 2:15, 5:30 PM, 12:30 AM
CITY TICKET OFFICE
91 FORT ST., 14th Floor, WALKER BLDG.
AIRPORT TERMINAL 1548
Musical Airport Tel. CATHOUSE 3188

DELTA AIR LINES
THE TRANS-SOUTHERN ROUTE

MISTAKES IN WILL-MAKING

A MAN dictated his will to his stenographer, signed it, had it properly witnessed. Later he inserted, in a blank space, the name of the executor. The court held that the insertion of that person's name was ineffective.

EVERY provision in your will is important to your family. Take no chance that some or all of your plans for the management and distribution of your estate will not be fulfilled. Have your attorney draw your will. If you decide thereafter to change it, have your attorney add a codicil or write a new will.

This bank has served as executor and trustee of many estates. Its experience, diligence, systematic methods, prudent judgment and financial responsibility will protect your estate and keep settlement costs at a minimum. Name it as executor and trustee.

FULTON NATIONAL Bank
COMPLETE SERVICE AT FIVE OFFICES IN METROPOLITAN ATLANTA MARIETTA STREET
CANDLER BUILDING
BUCKHEAD-DECATUR
PETERS STREET

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

EASE NERVOUS HEADACHES FAST

Genuine Bayer Aspirin swiftly relieves the pain that upsets you.

1. Take 2 Bayer Aspirin Tablets with a glass of water
2. Bayer Aspirin's quick work may change your whole day

Bayer Aspirin Costs Only about 1c a Tablet

If you have work to do, a morning headache calls especially for fast relief. And the sooner it's relieved the better for you. Your own doctor will tell you this.

That's why we emphasize, repeatedly, the speed with which genuine Bayer Aspirin starts to work—starts to relieve headache pain. To get it, ask you the instant pain starts, is take 2 Bayer Tablets with a full glass of water. Relief usually begins in a remarkably short time. It feels wonderful.

And since genuine Bayer Aspirin now costs only 1c a tablet, two or three cents worth relieves most headaches. So anyone really interested in fast relief can afford it. But be sure when you buy, to get fast-acting Bayer Aspirin. Get it by asking for it by its full name Bayer Aspirin... Never ask for "aspirin" alone when you want the real Bayer article.

15c FOR 12 TABLETS
2 FULL DOZEN 25c

Five Tech Regulars Injured; Vassa Cate To Play Saturday

All in the Game

—by Jack Troy

Today's drama (with music furnished by the office nickel-odeon):

Lamar Ball (Magazine Editor): "I have some friends who say the story is true, and I think you ought to use it since there has been so much talk of Sinkwich."

Sports Editor: "What sort of talk is that, Mr. Ball?"

L. B. (M. E.): "I understand this Georgia man was up in this Ohio town looking for students who played football on the side."

Sports Editor: "Yes?"

L. B.: "Yes. And he had dropped into a restaurant to eat. He engaged a waiter in conversation and casually mentioned his purpose for being in town."

Sports Editor: "What happened then?"

L. B.: "The waiter told him that he had come to the right place. 'We've got the very man you want. He spends a lot of time around here.'"

Sports Editor: "And that was Sinkwich, I suppose?"

L. B.: "Right. And the point I'm getting at is that in some restaurants you can get what you order."

A LARGE ORDER.

Someone, looking at Georgia's 1940 schedule, has just suggested it was too bad that a Grange wasn't included in the Ohio order.

"Why don't you write a poem about the schedule?" There seems to be food for thought there.

And, indeed, there is. The Bulldogs start with South Carolina, at Athens, and go on from there. Games with Ole Miss, Columbia, Kentucky, Auburn, Florida, Tulane, Dartmouth, Tech and Miami follow.

And Georgia next year is going to be loaded with sophomores for a strictly "big game" schedule. Ferdinand just walked in wearing a Santa Claus mask and a lady's red fur-trimmed coat and said he felt a poem coming on. It has now gone around and around in what he playfully calls a mind, and it comes out here—

"QUO VADIS, COACHES?"

Oh, yes, they got Sinkwich
Plus Davis and Blanton,
But the coaches aren't cheering,
They're raving and ranting.

The gap between freshman
And varsity ball
Is a gap full as wide
As Tallulah's great fall.

The coaches are eying
Tallulah's great fall
In fear of the day
Tulane's got the ball.

The song of the jungle's
A soul-stirring beat,
But in football's conducive
To a punt in the seat.

After a little more thought on the matter of the Lions, Tigers, Gators, Wildcats and other foes to be faced by the Bulldogs, Ferdinand grabbed his hat and went out scouting for a Grange. "Those Georgia coaches are nice fellows," he said, "and I'd like to help them out."

"ET, TU, BRUTE."

Ferdinand is not necessarily a Latin from Manhattan, but just before he left he handed over a letter from Everett Thomas and suggested the above caption.

"Major Scott better cut settin' and pointin' so much. It ain't polite," Ferdinand remarked in his quaint fashion. Mr. Thomas' letter follows:

"Dear Mr. Troy:

"Each morning I read your column with a great deal of pleasure.

"Several days ago, my good friend, Major Trammell Scott, took issue over a beautiful setter, completely surrounded by game, that had done his day's work and then with a clear conscience had completely gone to sleep on the back seat of his master's car. A few days later, Major Scott complained of the fact, in your column, that he and a pointer dog were 'snake bit,' due to the fact that the pointer did not place in a field trial in which Major Scott handled him. If I might offer a suggestion, I believe that the major is using poor judgment. Why doesn't he get him a setter? They have personality, and that goes a long way in this world.

"In your article, you stated that the dog that Major Scott ran found 10 coveys of birds. I presume that you mean from November 20 to March 1. After all, don't you think this is a pretty good season's work for a pointer dog?

"I think that all of Major Scott's friends should go by his office and look at the pictures of setters that adorn the walls. It is certainly a shame that the major has strayed from his first love. I personally own four setters, and get a great deal of pleasure from them.

"Sincerely,

"EVERETT THOMAS."

MAROONS SOFTEN UP FOES.

Another letter was received, from W. J. Coffey, who writes about Mississippi State and the effect the Maroons have had on some of their opponents this season.

Mr. Coffey points out that Auburn played Mississippi State before playing Manhattan, and, while beating State, was not the same against Manhattan, Boston College and Georgia Tech. And that while Alabama eked out a narrow victory against State, the Tide was successively tied by Kentucky and beaten by Tulane and Tech.

"It appears," says Mr. Coffey, "that Miss. State has

Continued on Second Sports Page.

BUTCH ADERHOLD MIGHT NOT PLAY AGAINST GEORGIA

Other Cripples Expected To Be Okay; Light Drill Held.

By JOHNNY BRADBERRY.

Coach Bill Alexander ordered light work for the first two days of practice this week as his high-flying Tech Yellow Jackets opened work for their traditional foe, Georgia, this Saturday.

The Jackets in their worst physical condition of the year, worked for only about an hour yesterday. Coach Alex indicated there would be no scrimmaging today with the first and only real hard session scheduled Wednesday.

Five first-stringers are on the injured list. However, all except

No tickets are now available for the Tech-Georgia game Saturday. It is possible there may be some after Wednesday morning, if any are returned from Athens.

one are expected to be ready to play and it is possible the fifth will see action. Alternate Captain Billy Gibson, who has missed the last two games, returned to running signals but still has a limp in his running.

EXPECTED TO START.

Eston Lackey, first-string tackle, hasn't fully recovered from his twisted knee but is expected to start the game. He saw about five minutes' service in the Florida contest.

George Webb, end; Butch Aderhold, guard, and Jimmy Wright, center, are the other injured members of the squad. Aderhold is the most seriously hurt of the trio and may be unable to play.

The Jackets spent part of the short practice running down under the booming punts of Hawk Cavette and then topped it off by running plays for half an hour. Pictures of their victory over Florida were shown.

With only Georgia standing between them and conference co-championship, the Techs are in excellent spirits. Despite playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, squad morale hasn't let down and supporters expect them to play one of their best games Saturday.

HARDEST BATTLE.

Indeed, the Techs are expecting their hardest battle. Records are destroyed when Bulldog and Jacket meet and one usually can't be sure of the results until the final whistle has blown.

Georgia's weakness in pass defense against Auburn is likely to make the Techs work all the more on their passing attack—one of the best in the country.

Little Johnny Bosch, Bobby Beers and Dick Bates are ready to do the tossing and five cracker-jacks ends the receiving.

Defensive work on how to stop the powerhouse running of Jim Fordham and Truck Kimsey is very likely to come in for its share of attention also.

Sugar Bowl Fans Like Texas A.&M. Over Tennessee

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 27.—(P)—Members of the Monday Quarterback Club showed a slight preference for Texas A. and M. over Tennessee as a Sugar Bowl opponent for Tulane in a poll taken at today's luncheon.

A Tulane-Texas Aggie game received 38 votes for first and 33 for second choice. Tulane-Tennessee got 36 firsts and 25 seconds. A tilt pitting Tennessee and the Aggies drew seven for first choice and three for second.

Cornell, Duquesne, Duke and Missouri got scattered votes.

Tulane was far in the lead in individual voting by the club of New Orleans Business and Professional Men. The Wave was picked on 138 ballots, Texas Aggies on 87 and Tennessee on 74.

The poll had no official connection with the Sugar Bowl. Although many members of the Sugar Bowl executive board were at the luncheon, they refrained from voting.

Yale Squad Names Whiteman, Nashville

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 27.—(P)—The Yale football squad elected Harold V. Whiteman Jr., of Nashville, Tenn., today as captain of the 1940 team. His election was announced as unanimous.

Forming an honorary escort for the 18-year-old youth, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Brawner Sr., of Smyrna, were coaches and players from Marietta High and North Fulton High. Brawner sustained a fractured spleen when he attempted to block an opposing player in the Marietta-North Fulton game.

An operation followed and he died Sunday from complications which set in 10 days later.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Mary and Harlette Brawner, both of Smyrna.

MARIETTA, Ga., Nov. 27.—Hundreds of persons, including members of the Marietta and North Fulton high football teams, paid tribute at rites here this afternoon for Albert F. Brawner Jr., Marietta grid star, who died Sunday of injuries received November 17.

Rites were conducted by Rev. L. B. Gibbs and Rev. J. W. Stephens, of Smyrna, and Rev. P. L. Bray, of Hogsheadville. Interment was in the New Smyrna cemetery.

Forming an honorary escort for the 18-year-old youth, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Brawner Sr., of Smyrna, were coaches and players from Marietta High and North Fulton High. Brawner sustained a fractured spleen when he attempted to block an opposing player in the Marietta-North Fulton game.

An operation followed and he died Sunday from complications which set in 10 days later.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Mary and Harlette Brawner, both of Smyrna.

SPORTS

JACK TROY, Sports Editor

Grant Rice - Melvin Pasol - Roy White - Thad Holt - Tom McRae - Johnny Bradberry - Kenneth Gregory

ONLY 11 TEAMS ARE UNBEATEN AS END NEARS

Six Have Ended Schedules; Vols Boast Only Uncrossed Goal.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(P)—Only 11 college teams have managed to come through to football's last big week with unblemished records.

When San Jose State, of California, beat neighboring Fresno State Thursday, that took the lone leader out of the group.

Of the 11, six have finished their seasons, and the others hardly look as though they would give up now after coming along this far without a defeat.

Cornell, Duquesne, Maryville (Mo.) Teachers, Slippery Rock (Pa.) Teachers, New Britain (Conn.) Teachers and De Sales of Toledo, have finished and are supposed to be receptive to bowl bids.

San Jose State, Louisiana State Normal, of Natchitoches; Texas Aggies, and Colorado Mines are each one game away from a perfect season that shows neither defeat nor tie.

Of the leaders, Tennessee, with two games still on their slate, is the only one to have its goal-line uncrossed.

THE RANKING ELEVEN:

TEAM	W	L	T	Pts.
San Jose St. (Cal.)	12	0	0	21
Louisiana State Normal	10	0	0	18
Texas Aggies	9	0	0	18
Maryville (Mo.) Teachers	9	0	0	20
Slippery Rock Teachers	8	0	0	20
Cornell	8	0	0	22
Tennessee	8	0	0	22
Duquesne	8	0	0	22
Colorado Mines	7	0	0	22
N. Britain (Conn.) Teachers	6	0	0	12
De Sales (Toledo)	6	0	0	12

x—Completed season.

3,000 Fans Try Picking Brietz' List

Church Bishops, Children, Old Men Deluge Writer With Letters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(P)—As far as Eddie Brietz is concerned, the football season is over, and he's glad of it.

Brietz, author of the widely read sports column, "Sports Roundup," good-naturedly challenged his fans to pick 10 winners out of 10 games he listed in the "Roundup"—it was all in fun, and no award for the winner except a chance to get his name in the paper.

The reaction was overwhelming. By the night before the week-end games, his desk was piled with 2,112 letters (he counted 'em).

When game time rolled around Saturday, there were more than 2,500. Belated arrivals brought the total somewhere around the 3,000 mark.

The pickers came from every walk of life—from church bishops to corner butchers, from a 9-year-old boy to a 90-year-old; from a college student and his sweetheart to fathers and sons, mothers and daughters, bank presidents and railroad executives. Even a Kansas City bridge club took time out between rubbers to mark their slips.

No one, least of all Eddie, was prepared for the avalanche, but with rare good humor he dug in to persevere them.

Brietz offered his first challenge "just for the fun of it" three weeks ago and climaxed it with "10 tuffies" last week.

The response from 43 states, the District of Columbia and Canada, caused Eddie to promptly declare "never again."

A member of the Associated Press staff since 1929, Brietz is one of the most widely read sports writers in the country. His daily column, "Sports Roundup," is famous for its bright humor and general newswiness. It appears in nearly 700 newspapers.

NO SUCCESSOR.

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Nov. 27.—(P)—The University of Maryland athletic board officially accepted the resignation of Frank Dobson as head football coach at a meeting today but took no action on naming his successor.

DOBBSON, who had coached the Terrapins for 12 years, was named to the post in 1927.

He was 61 years old and had coached at the University of Maryland for 12 years. He was married and had three children.

DOBBSON, who had coached the Terrapins for 12 years, was named to the post in 1927.

He was 61 years old and had coached at the University of Maryland for 12 years. He was married and had three children.

DOBBSON, who had coached the Terrapins for 12 years, was named to the post in 1927.

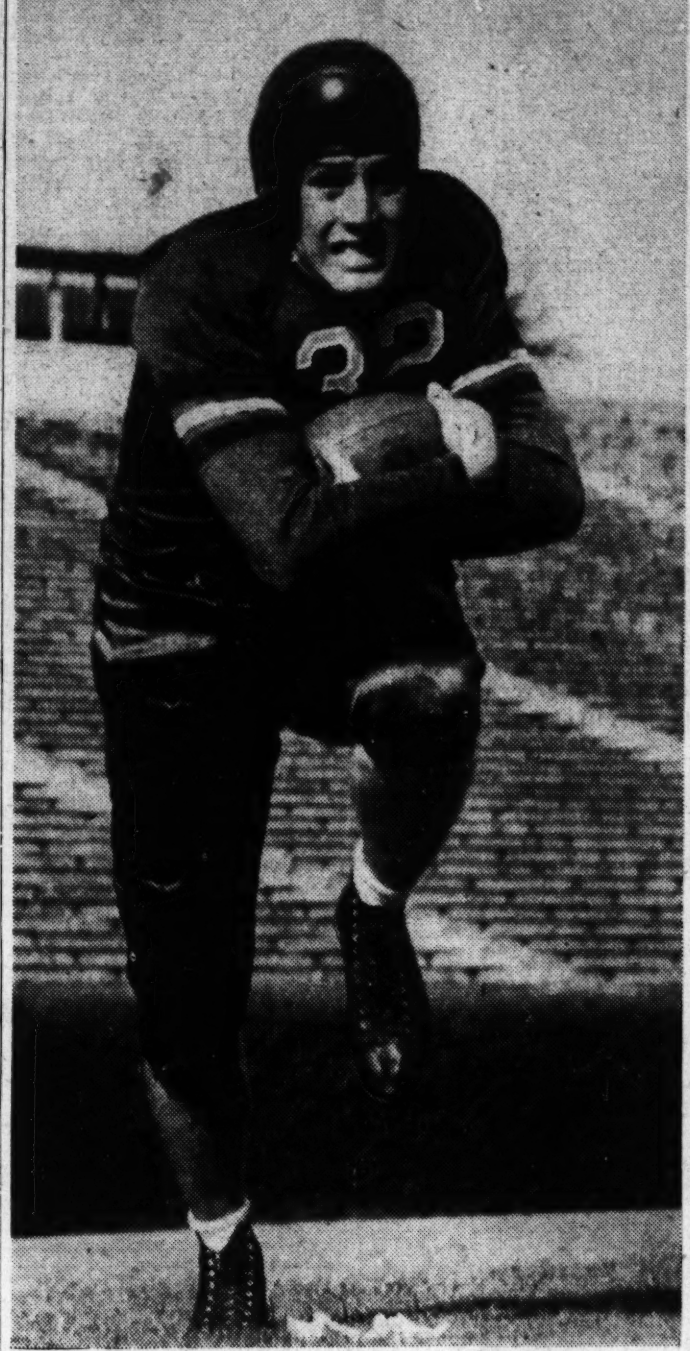

He was 61 years old and had coached at the University of Maryland for 12 years. He was married and had three children.

DOBBSON, who had coached the Terrapins for 12 years, was named to the post in 1927.

He was 61 years old and had coached at the University of Maryland for 12 years. He was married and had three children.

DOBBSON, who had coached the Terrapins for 12 years, was named to the post in 1927.

BULLDOG BIG SCORING THREAT

Big Jim Fordham, Bulldog fullback, who bore the brunt of the Georgia attack against Auburn Saturday at Columbus, will be one of the chief hopes of the Athens team when they clash with Tech Saturday at Grand field. A senior, Jim will get his last chance against his arch rivals, the Yellow Jackets.

Ken Overlin Whips Brown on Decision

Atlanta Boy Bewildered by Washington Star's Attack in Miami Ring.

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 27.—(P)—Ken Overlin, Washington middleweight, gave Ben Brown, of Atlanta, a 10-round thumping before a shivering crowd of 3,500 in the Miami Herald's annual Christmas charity fight tonight. Overlin weighed 163, Brown 161 1-2.

Brown to score his second victory in their three-fight feud. Their second meeting in Atlanta was a draw.

Connecting with a vicious left hook and occasionally crossing with a right shot to the jaw, Overlin had the Atlanta pawner the air. In the early rounds Overlin concentrated that busy left hook on Brown's midsection. Later, when Brown dropped his guard a trifle, Ken whipped home several rights that buckled the Atlanta's knees.

It was in the sixth round that Overlin, already with a comfortable lead, began to uncork his right cross. Three times it exploded on Brown's jaw, but the Atlanta covered up frantically and missed with wild counter punches.

BIG GUNS SPIKED.

Brown kept trying to unlimber his heavy artillery, but Overlin always busy bounding in and out and around, again awaited his chance and nailed Ben with a honey of a left hook. Brown sagged but didn't go down.

The slender Atlanta youth shot his bolt in the eighth round—and missed. For fully 30 seconds the boxers sparred around cautiously. Then Brown blasted Overlin's jaw with a long right. Brown put everything he had into that punch, but Overlin came sailing back in, took the play away from Ben and actually won the round.

Overlin quickly regained command of the situation, began working that left overtime again, opened up with several two-fisted flurries, and once more had Brown on the run.

NO OPENING.

The Washington battler coasted through the ninth round as Brown kept circling around, jabbing with his left and trying futilely to find an opening for his haymaker.

The boys mixed it in lively fashion in the tenth, Overlin still having the best of matters.

Jack Larimore, 147, of Miami Beach, was awarded a soundly booted eight-round decision over Buster Carroll, 151, of Lowell, Mass., in the semifinal.

Johnny Dean, 147, of Philadelphia, outpointed Mario Perez, 146, of Key West, Fla., in a six-rounder.

ISON AND ECTOR ALL-SOUTHEAST U. P. SELECTIONS

Vois, Wave, Jackets All Put Two Men on Mythical Eleven.

By UNITED PRESS.

Eight of the 13 Southeastern conference teams contributed to the United Press' All-Southeastern team, despite the fact that Tennessee is bidding for honors as America's No. 1 squad and undefeated Tulane is rated among the country's most powerful.

Tennessee, Tulane and Georgia Tech each placed two men on the mythical eleven. Completing the squad is one player each from Auburn, Alabama; Vanderbilt, Louisiana State and Kentucky.

The team was picked after sounding out opinions of sports writers and coaches and comparing statistical data.

The imaginary team would leave little wanting in power, speed and deception on both offense and defense. Here it is:

FIRST TEAM	Pos.	SECOND TEAM
Kavanaugh, Tulane	L.T.	Wenzel, Tulane
McCollum, Tulane	L.T.	Shires, Tenn.
Surridge, Tenn.	L.T.	G. Cavette, Ga. Tech
Cox, Auburn	R.G.	Aubrey, Miss.
Howell, Auburn	R.G.	Molinski, Tenn.
Eller, Ga. Tech	R.E.	Cifers, Tenn.
Cafe, Tenn.	R.E.	Schneller, Miss.
Kellogg, Tulane	R.E.	Johnson, Miss.
Plunkett, Vandy	R.H.	Nelson, Ala.
Ector, Ga. Tech	F.B.	Fordham, Ga.

TITLE FIGHT OFF; ARMSTRONG SICK

By JACK CUDDY.

United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(UP)—The Armstrong-Ambers welterweight title fight, scheduled for Friday night at Madison Square Garden, will be postponed or cancelled tomorrow because Champion Armstrong is in bed with a bad cold.

Promoter Mike Jacobs will substitute Friday night a 10-round main event between young Allie Stolz, of Newark, N. J., and Petey Scalzo, of New York. Stolz is one of the country's outstanding lightweight contenders, and Scalzo is the outstanding American featherweight challenger. The rest of the card will remain unchanged.

Henry Armstrong, the bullshouldered little Los Angeles negro who has fought Lightweight King Lou Ambrose twice before, quit training and took to his bed today. His manager, Eddie Mead, announced tonight, "Henry's condition is so bad that I am calling off the fight. I won't let him go through with it, regardless of what the boxing commission physicians say. He won't be able to fight Ambers until January."

When Armstrong's condition was revealed today, the boxing commission immediately sent three physicians up to Harlem to examine him. They will make their report to the commission tomorrow. Promoter Jacobs was still hopeful tonight that their report might be favorable and that Armstrong could go through with the bout, but Mead declared, "there isn't a chance in the world."

Tidemen Look Good In Hard Scrimmage

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Nov. 27.—(P)—Coach Frank Thomas set aside his "no rough work" edict today—sent his Alabama Crimson Tide into battle against Vandy plays run by frosh and reserves—and apparently was pleased with what he saw.

The Tidemen looked good throughout the brief camp battle. Charley Boswell and Bud Waites, injured backs, were in uniform, but did not take part in the scrimmage.

After a light workout the squad trains tomorrow night for Nashville and the Vandy tilt.

BOWLING

Jack Kilpatrick, of Druid Hills, and John Hall, of Tech High, won high scoring honors in the Prep School Bowling league Monday afternoon, on the downtown alleys, with Kilpatrick having the top game of 124 and Hall, 110.

The Druid Hills five continued their winning ways by taking two games from Tech High Club in a close contest.

Commercial Girls' No. 1 won two from Tech High Reds; O'Keefe Junior high and Commercial won a game in their match; Tech High Green and Boys' High No. 2 each won a game in their tilt; Boys' High No. 3 won two from the Russell High Girls; Boys' High No. 4 won two from Boys' High No. 5; Commercial High Boys won two from Tech High Purple; Boys' High No. 6 won two from the Tech High Blackhorses.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles, of Atlanta, won a five-game tennis match, over the week-end, that was bowled at Charleston (S. C.), from the Charleston Rifle Club by a count of 4,877 to 4,864.

"Eagles" carried seven men to Charleston for the contest and every member of the squad turned in splendid counts.

Harry Cavan, former A. B. C. individual champion, turned in a count of 1,004 for five games; Henry Elmer had 833 for four games; Tony Albhausen 824 for three games; A. D. Couden 619 for three games; E. L. Phillips 580 for three games; Fred Seaton 547 for three games and Fields a count of 638 for four games in the victory for the Atlanta team.

JIM FORDHAM, KIMSEY, ALLEN BULLDOG HOPES

Dummy Scrimmage Against Jacket Plays Opens Work Today.

ATHENS, Ga., Nov. 27.—Georgia's weary Bulldogs, battered after Saturday's terrific struggle with Auburn in Columbus, settled down today to preparations for the season's "climax battle" against the high-flying Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets in Atlanta this week end.

Coach Wallace Butts, more pessimistic than usual, saw "little chance for us" as he began the week's drills, with his Bulldogs in light togs. He forecasted a very little rough work this week. A dummy scrimmage against Tech plays Tuesday will be about all the "knocking the Bulldogs do."

"We consider Tech just about the best team we've played this year and from the reports of our scouts nothing short of a miracle can keep them from winning Saturday," Coach Butts said. "About all I can say for our chances are that we'll show up in Atlanta in time for the kick-off."

TECH RATED HIGH.

Coach Elmer Lampe, who has watched the Jackets in several games this year, rates Coach W. A. Alexander's boys as good as any team he's seen. "They have five of the finest ends I've ever watched and in Bob Ison they have virtually 'fifth back' because he is as effective running with the ball from his flank position as any of the regular ball carriers.

"Hawk Cavette is the best kicker in the league and Howard Ector is one of the hardest plunging fullbacks in the south in addition to being a very smart signal caller," Coach Lampe declared.

The Bulldogs found some consolation in the announcement that Captain Vassa Cate's ankle injury will not keep him on the sidelines Saturday although it may hamper his playing considerably. Cate was hurt against Auburn and very likely will not take part in more than one or two of this week's drills.

FORDHAM, KIMSEY.

Georgia's chances against Tech Saturday will rest with the hard-driving Jim Fordham, Powerhouse Cliff Kimsey, shifty little Heyward Allen and the endurance of the so-called "first-string" line.

The Bulldogs have few capable reserves in the line and Coach Butts has intimated the regulars are going to have to do overtime duty against the Jackets.

He will use practically the same lineup as has opened the last few games, with one or two changes, possibly. Alex McCaskill and either Jim Skipworth or John Stegeman will be at ends; Charley Williams and Wyatt Posey at tackles; Walter Wilfong and Smiley Johnson, guards; Tommy Wright, center; Bobby Nowell, blocking back; Cliff Kimsey, tailback; Cate or Dooley Matthews, wingback, and Jim Fordham, fullback.

Texas A & M, Tulane, Cornell Stay Atop Williamson Ratings

Purples Begin Work For State Title Go

Pass Defense Stressed For Monroe Game At Ponce de Leon Friday Night.

By ROY WHITE.

Boys' High city championship football team returned to work Monday, after a four-day "vacation," looking forward to its toughest game of the year, the state championship tussle with Monroe Aggies Friday night at Ponce de Leon park.

Two light scrimmages today and Wednesday, with most of the work being devoted to pass defense, will be the practice program this week, according to Coach Shorty Doyal and Dwight Keith.

With Clint Castleberry, a half-back, and Howard Haire Jr., a tackle, definitely out as they have been in several games, and a couple of others not in the best of condition, Boys' High is not taking any chances of crippling up the remainder of the squad, with heavy scrimmages.

VACATION.
Four days of vacation have served to pep up the spirit of the Boys' High players. They appeared ready and anxious for a rough drill Monday, but the coaches prepared to "nurse" that spirit along until game time Friday night.

Monroe settled down to several days of rough work Monday, following a 13-10 victory over Riverside Saturday afternoon at Gainesville. The Aggies have plenty of surplus material available for scrimmage, but not eligible to participate in Friday's championship game. In fact, Monroe's defensive practice scrimmage against the variety is far more capable than that of Boys' High's reserves.

NOT SCANTIONED.
Officials of the Georgia Inter-scholastic Athletic Association have not sanctioned Friday's game, but since a rule of the association provides that the executive committee select an outstanding team, but where there is no outstanding team, name the best two for a playoff, the game definitely will eliminate any argument as to the champion.

Football fans of the city are assured of two great games Friday night at the ball park when Monroe and Boys' High play and again Saturday afternoon at

PITT GRID YEAR, WORST SINCE '23, CALLED SUCCESS

Bowman Praises Players' Spirit; Panthers Lose Money at Gate.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 27.—(P)—Pitt's football team came through its first year under the so-called "amateur code" with its worst record in 16 years and a loss at the gate, but Chancellor John G. Bowman today termed the season a success.

The slim, scholarly school head, father of the code and center of the athletic controversy at Pitt that culminated in Jock Sutherland's resignation as coach last winter, acclaimed the team spirit and predicted Pitt would make "a good record before long."

"The big thing was that the boys themselves had a good time this year," he said. "There was a lot more freedom in play evident on the field. They were playing football more for the fun of the game—that's what college football is supposed to be."

MORE FUN.
"The spectators, too, felt it was more fun, because of the open and free play on the field." The record was better than most experts expected. Charley Bowser, successor to Sutherland, found a squad with only two regulars and fashioned it into a team that bunched off five of nine outstanding opponents.

With a little more luck and less fumbling, Bowser's opening season might have been blessed with a record of eight victories and one loss. Fumbles were largely responsible for defeats by Duquesne and Fordham and five veterans were benched by injuries when the Panthers bowed to Nebraska by a one-point margin. Penn State outgained the Panthers to gain its first victory over them in 20 years.

NOT SINCE '23.
Not since 1923—"Pop" Warner's last season at Pitt—has a Panther team lost as many as four games a season and only once since 1900 has a team lost more than four.

After Sutherland's resignation there were mummings about a boycott among the fans. In five home games this year, the Panthers drew 183,000 to the stadium, an average of 37,400 per game. Last year, a total of 243,000 turned out for six games, an average of 40,500.

The code inaugurated by Bowman stiffened academic qualifications, barred solicitation of players, curtailed practice and required athletes to work at janitorial or other jobs to obtain school support. Sutherland reportedly quit because he felt the code did not make provisions for teams strong enough to meet Pitt's future opponents.

DUQUESNE, DUKE, NEBRASKA CRASH INTO FIRST TEN

Ohio State, Oklahoma, Iowa Drop; Tech Holds 13th Place.

By PAUL E. WILLIAMSON.
Inspired playing in the next to last big week of 1939 football brought three teams back among the 10 leaders, dropped three powerful squads from the line-up.

It was that inspired playing of the victors rather than a letting down of the vanquished that changed the national picture. Five of the 10 national leaders have completed their schedules—Cornell, Clemson, Duke, Missouri and Nebraska. The other five—Texas A. & M., Tulane, Southern California, Tennessee and Duquesne—have plenty of worry left in traditional "grudge" battles.

Texas A. & M., the No. 1 team of the country, should take Texas easily but the Longhorns have a way of rising to unexpected heights. Tulane's big worry, as No. 2 team, is its traditional rival Louisiana State, Southern California, leading the west coast, still has Washington and U. C. L. A. Washington should be easy but U. C. L. A. is dynamite for the Trojans. Undeclared and untied Tennessee has a couple of bad dreams to face in Kentucky and Auburn. Teams that frequently do the unexpected. Duquesne, city champion of Pittsburgh, has the rising Detroit squad to face.

THE TOP TEN.
The way the 10 leaders stack up after last week's games is: Texas A. & M., idle after beating Rice 19 to 0—97.9; Tulane for swamping Sewanee 52 to 0—97.7; Cornell, for blanking Pennsylvania 26 to 0—97.4; Southern California for beating Notre Dame 20 to 12—97.0; Tennessee, idle after beating Vanderbilt 13 to 0—96.1; Clemson, for turning under Furman 14 to 0—95.5; Duke, for smothering North Carolina State 28 to 0—95.3; Missouri, for riding over Kansas 20 to 0—95.0; Nebraska for defeating Oklahoma 13 to 7—94.3; Duquesne, for taking Carnegie Tech 22 to 7—94.1.

Ohio State had to drop out of the leaders for losing to an in-and-out Michigan 21 to 14. Oklahoma's defeat was the second straight. Iowa lost its No. 10 place just because others rose above it, not so much because it only got a tie with Northwestern. Back among the leaders came Duquesne, Nebraska and Duke.

One thing to remember about that Clemson team is that it lost only to Tulane by one point—7 to 6—in a tough schedule. Nebraska lost only one game, to Missouri, Duquesne, undefeated and untied, earned its ratings as a major power.

Out of the maelstrom of inspired playing during first Thanksgiving week the Williamson system batted for an over-all efficiency of 79.7 on 128 scores reported. Discounting ties, the efficiency was 81.2 for the second week of picking in the system's history. In those 128 scores there were 22 upsets, 6 upsetting ties, 5 called upsets and only one called tie.

TEAM	PERF.	TEAM	PERF.
1 Texas A. & M.	97.9	101 Texas Mines	82.6
2 Tulane	97.7	102 St. Mary's Cal.	82.5
3 Cornell	97.4	103 Richmond	82.5
4 Southern Cal.	97.4	104 Loyola, L.A.	82.4
5 Tennessee	96.1	105 Kansas	82.3
6 Clemson	95.5	106 Colorado	82.3
7 Duke	95.3
8 Missouri	95.0
9 Nebraska	94.3
10 Duquesne	94.1
11 Iowa	91.1
12 Notre Dame	90.7
13 Ga. Tech	90.5
14 Alabama	90.2
15 Fordham	89.2
16 Penn State	89.2
17 Pittsburgh	89.2
18 Oklahoma	89.2
19 So. Methodist	89.2
20 Boston Col.	89.2
21 Oregon St.	89.2
22 Santa Clara	89.2
23 U. C. L. A.	89.2
24 Princeton	89.2
25 Northwestern	89.2
26 Kentucky	89.2
27 Michigan	89.2
28 Auburn	89.2
29 Ohio St.	89.2
30 Miss. St.	89.2
31 Baylor	89.2
32 Minnesota	89.2
33 Marshall	89.2
34 S. U.	89.2
35 La. Tech	89.2
36 Cath. Col.	89.2
37 Detroit U.	89.2
38 Texas Tech	89.2
39 Holy Cross	89.2
40 Whigham U.	89.2
41 Dartmouth	89.2
42 Mississippi	89.2
43 Manhattan	89.2
44 Arkansas	89.2
45 Wake Forest	89.2
46 Texas Tech	89.2
47 Oregon	89.2
48 U. of Wyo.	89.2
49 Indiana U.	89.2
50 Illinois	89.2
51 N. Y. U.	89.2
52 Pennsylvania	89.2
53 Columbia U.	89.2
54 Navy	89.2
55 California	89.2
56 Wisconsin	89.2
57 Col. Mines	89.2
58 Florida	89.2
59 Carnegie T.	89.2
60 Yale	89.2
61 Harvard	89.2
62 S. Carolina	89.2
63 Miami, Fla.	89.2
64 Wash. State	89.2
65 Michigan St.	89.2
66 Wash. St. L.	89.2
67 Okla. T. & M.	89.2
68 Stanford	89.2
69 Army	89.2
70 Furman	89.2
71 Marquette	89.2
72 Rutgers	89.2
73 Kansas St.	89.2
74 N. C. St.	89.2
75 Fresno	89.2
76 Wake Forest	89.2
77 Marquette U.	89.2
78 M. T. C.	89.2
79 Texas Tech	89.2
80 Tulane	89.2
81 Syracuse	89.2
82 Vanderbilt	89.2
83 Colgate	89.2
84 Syracuse	89.2
85 Rice	89.2
86 Scranton	89.2
87 Le. Normal	89.2
88 V. P. I.	89.2
89 Sonoma	89.2
90 Drake	89.2
91 Geo. Wash.	89.2
92 Marshall	89.2
93 Virginia U.	89.2
94 Whitier	89.2
95 S. Francisco	89.2
96 Wm. & Mary	89.2
97 Creighton	89.2
98 Texas Mines	89.2
99 St. Mary's Cal.	89.2
100 Richmond	89.2
101 Loyola, L.A.	89.2
102 St. Louis	89.2
103 Kansas	89.2
104 Colorado	89.2

MAKES CHAMPIONS

BOB HOFFMAN.
Appears Here December 5

Fox, of Tennessee, Is Out With a Cold

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 27.—(P)—Bob Fox was out of the lineup with a cold as the University of Tennessee Vols went through a workout against Kentucky plays this afternoon.

Billie Barnes replaced the ailing Fox in the backfield. Coach Neyland also sent his players through some offensive drills.

The undefeated Vols meet Kentucky Thursday at Lexington, Ky., in the annual Turkey Day game.

Bob Hoffman Will Appear Here Dec. 5

Nine of 10 Olympic Weightlifting Champs Trained by Him.

Bob Hoffman, "The Maker of Champions." That sounds like a large order, but Hoffman can rightly claim this title as he has trained more than 100 weightlifting champions, including world, national, state and city titleholders.

When the 1936 Olympic weightlifting team was chosen it was found that Bob Hoffman had trained nine out of the ten men selected. At the 1939 National Weightlifting championships, all the first places were won by lifters who were trained by Bob Hoffman. In fact, the York Barbell Club which Hoffman coaches won all of the first places, so it looks as if Hoffman knows all the answers in the weightlifting game.

Hoffman must have been born with the desire to be strong, for at the age of 10 he won a marathon race of 10 miles for boys under 16; at the age of 13 in 1912, he won his first prize in open senior competition, winning in the single rowing competition at the National A. A. U. meet. In 1916 he served overseas with the 11th infantry of the 28th division. He excelled at all forms of athletics, canoeing, rowing, swimming, boxing, wrestling, running, football, etc. Winning over 500 prizes.

Bob Hoffman didn't enter into the weightlifting game until 1923. Though a champion in many other sports, he was not what you could call a very strong man, as he could hardly press overhead with two hands 80 pounds. As time passed he succeeded in putting overhead 325 pounds with two hands, and 283 pounds overhead with one hand, and increased his body weight from 170 pounds to 250 pounds. At 30 years of age Hoffman went on a special 20-week training program, using his own methods, and made world's records in physical gains and won the professional heavyweight lifting championships of America.

Hoffman has produced through his training methods, for the first time in the U. S. A., two world's champions, and his York team holds most of the American lifting records. He has trained and developed more outstanding physical specimens than any other trainer in the world.

Bob Hoffman will appear here in Atlanta on Tuesday, December 5, at the Jewish Progressive Club, along with the following members of his York team: John Grimek, the world's most perfectly built man; Tony Terlazzo, world's 148-pound weightlifting champion, and Steve Stanko, American heavyweight weightlifting champion. These men will give an exhibition during the Southern Invitation Weight-Lifting championships, which will have the South's outstanding weightlifters competing.

Thieves are stealing pianos from churches in broad daylight in Durban, South Africa.

Pup Phillips Praises Bulldog Frosh Team

Touchdown Club Hears Glowing Reports on Clemson's McFadden, Tech's Cavette.

By JOHNNY BRADBERRY.
President Everett Strupper had just dismissed yesterday's touchdown club meeting when Artie Few, who used to play a mean game for Georgia, stood up and shouted:

"Wait a minute," he said, "you made me give a report of the Tech-Duke game. Now I'm making you report the Tech-Georgia freshman game."

"Well, Artie," Strupper replied, "I would, but I knew what the score was going to be so I went hunting in south Georgia. However, I'll let Pup Phillips, another good Tech alumnus, do it."

BULLPUPS FRAISED.
Therefore, it fell in Pup's lot to rant and rave about the mighty Bulldogs. He praised the backs, Sinkwich, Todd, Dudish, Blanton, Davis, and then he praised the linemen: Lemberg, Horne, Ruark, Passmore, etc., and then he praised the backs some more.

"But," he concluded, "I don't want you Georgia alumni to get me wrong. Don't look for any championship next year. You can't do it with sophomores."

Phillips also reported on last Saturday's Georgia-Auburn game. He praised the Bulldog spirit this year, calling it the best he had ever seen on a Georgia team. He also said Allen and Fordham ran well for Georgia, and McGowen did likewise for Auburn. Fumbles hurt Wallace Butt's team, he concluded.

WALLER POWELL (Clemson-Furman): "Furman looked good in the first half and finally scored a field goal to lead, 3-0 at intermission. However, Clemson came back and ran almost at will in the last quarter. Feature of the game, I think, was McFadden's pass reception. On account of his great basketball playing, people had been wanting to see him catch passes. Well, he did against Furman."

T. L. Johnson (Oglethorpe-Mississippi College): "There was some good football on both sides. Oglethorpe scored first but Mississippi College came back to lead, 7-6. Then the visitors started punting on first down until Oglethorpe fumbled and they recovered and scored their last touchdown."

Fred Singleton (Tech-Florida): "It was a good game and, I think, a test for Tech. When a team comes back like the Jackets did, it has something on the ball. There were a lot of fumbles. The punting of Cavette for Tech and Harrison's running for Florida were outstanding."

The next meeting will be December 4, and Dixie McLeod, head coach at Furman, will be the guest speaker. Pictures of the Georgia-Auburn game will also be shown.

R. W. Gaston won the weekly pool.

International Loop Raises Player Limit

NEWARK, Nov. 27.—(P)—Increasing the player limit and retaining the present playoff system, the International League held its annual meeting harmoniously today and laid plans for its 1940 season.

The jump in the player limit from 20 to 21 was a compromise after the owners had voted out the present rule allowing each club to carry one coach in addition to the manager. Any club desiring to carry a coach in the future must list him as an active player.

ALL IN THE GAME

Continued From First Sports Page.

softened up several of their opponents, including Auburn, so that they were not in first-class shape for the next week's games."

The Maroons have had an unusually fine year, no doubt of that, and Mr. Coffey may be exactly right when he adds: "I am going to let you in on the dark horse for the S. E. C. championship in 1940. You know who I mean. Usually a team has one good triple-threat back. It is unusual that Miss. State has four in Boots Johnson, Jack Nix, Hunk Chambers and Billy Jefferson. You'll be reading about most of this team's stars next year, too. When picking the all-S. E. C. first team this year, don't leave off Shag Goolsby. If you do, you'll be out on a limb."

ROLL YOUR OWN?

A tip for you! In recent laboratory "smoking bowl" tests, Prince Albert burned than the average of the 30 other of the largest-selling brands tested—coolest of all!

86 DEGREES COOLER

ROLLIN' ALONG WITH P.A.

Albert Byrd (right) tells Murray Moore (left)

FORGET YOUR TOOLS AGAIN, AL? YOU NEVER FORGET THAT P.A. TOBACCO, THOUGH, DO YOU?

YOU BET I DON'T! P.A. SURE IS RICH-TASTING, YET COOL, EXTRA MILD. AND, BELIEVE ME, THAT P.A. CRIMP CUT ROLLS UP JUST PERFECT!

Prince Albert

THE NATIONAL JOY SMOKE

—what have you got against paying less for fine whiskey?

ORCHIDS LIKE THESE SURE ARE COSTLY, MR. MATTINGLY.

SHOW ME ANYTHING REALLY SUPERIOR THAT ISN'T EXPENSIVE, MR. MOORE.

THAT'S EASY, SUH! OUR M & M IS ONE OF THE GRANDEST WHISKIES MADE—YET ITS PRICE IS EXCEPTIONALLY LOW!

AND EVERYBODY WITH THE GOOD JUDGMENT TO RATE WHISKEY BY TASTE INSTEAD OF BY PRICE, WILL PREFER IT, SUH.

TRUER WORDS WERE NEVER SPOKEN, MR. MOORE!

IF YOU HAVE never tasted a whiskey slow-distilled the good old-fashioned way... a whiskey so fine it has been famous in Kentucky for more than 60 years... then you're in for a mouth-watering treat when you taste M & M! Its smooth, rich flavor will delight you... and its really low price will amaze you! Taste M & M today!

$1.00 FULL PINT 55c HALF-PINT

Mattingly & Moore

A blend of straight whiskeys—96 proof. Every drop is whiskey! Frankfort Distilleries, Inc., Louisville & Baltimore

RYE

PRACTICAL CIVIC THINKING URGED BY FRANK NEELY

Rotarians Cautioned Old Mental Habits Can Be Detrimental to a City or Private Business.

Atlantans must break through old habits of being satisfied with social, civic and political life and create new thought habits that will rejuvenate Atlanta spirit, Frank H. Neely, prominent civic leader, declared yesterday at a meeting of the Atlanta Rotary Club.

Centering his address around the theme, "Habits Mould Our Living," Neely stressed the important part habit plays in successful business and then turned to habits of a social and civic nature.

"Do we praise Roosevelt or damn him without discrimination and without thoughtful analysis of the things at hand?" he asked. "Are we willing to help a Governor when it looks as though he is on the upgrade and damn him if things break against him, without first sitting down and seeing the things he is trying to do that are good and developing analytical thinking in an attempt to show that other measures are impracticable?"

Make Laws Recalled. "Do we praise our mayor and other city officers because the budget is balanced but fail to see where the city is headed and what parts of it could be improved upon?"

"Do we blindly pass smoke laws 20 years ago, put an administrator in charge and then forget it and eat our smoke each morning with relish and a habit of thought that is not civic-minded?"

"Are you seeing your tax check but loudly cursing the police and traffic conditions and never lending your thought habits to help solve the fundamentals of these important jobs?"

Success Formula Given. These were some of the questions Neely put before the Rotarians and added: "We must get the habit of thought that cuts through the surface of every civic and social problem to the point where its practical solution is seen."

Pointing out that the habits of a business organization are the sum total of the habits inculcated into the individuals who make up the organization, Neely said these are essential: (1) habit of good merchandising; (2) habit of courteous service; (3) habit of thoughtful consideration; and (4) habit of good housekeeping.

J. F. CHICK DIES IN HIS 84TH YEAR

Former Atlantan Succumbs in San Diego.

J. F. Chick, 83, a resident of Atlanta for many years, died last Sunday at the home of a daughter, Miss Louise Chick, 5157 Hawley boulevard, San Diego, Cal., relatives in Atlanta were notified yesterday.

Until his retirement several years ago, Mr. Chick was a well-known cotton oil mill operator, and had lived in Monroe, Greenville, Conyers, and other Georgia cities. In Atlanta he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Howard Townley, 1124 Hudson drive, N. E. He was a member of Druid Hills Baptist church and formerly active in Masonic circles.

Funeral services and burial will take place in San Diego. Surviving, in addition to his daughters, are his wife, Mrs. Lillie Shipp Chick, Atlanta; three brothers, John Chick, Chester, S. C.; Will Chick, Savannah, and Tom Chick, Monroe, and a sister, Mrs. Ida Studdard, Social Circle.

Tired, Run-down?

Make a "date" at any drug store with S.S. Enteral, the "date" at every meal for a while. You will be happily surprised how soon you will begin to enjoy your food and begin to feel better. Check your condition to see it is not due to organic causes or a focal infection.

So frequently worry, overwork, loss of sleep and a lagging appetite help break down the vitality of the blood. Full directions and the S.S. Formula are on each bottle. Untold millions have been benefited. If your case is not unusual you will notice an improvement at once. Why not make this the day to begin an S.S. course of treatment. No ethical druggist will offer a substitute for the time-tested scientifically appraised S.S.—A Tonic, a Stomachic and Appetizer. © S.S. Co.

Some Don'ts for Pimples

Don't scratch—don't squeeze pimples—you may infect yourself. Don't suffer with itchy pimples, Eczema, angry red blotches or other irritations due to external causes when soothing Peterson's Ointment offers you quick relief. Makes the skin look better, feel better. 35¢ at druggists. Money back if one application does not delight you. Peterson's Ointment also soothes irritated, tired or itchy feet and cracks between toes.—(adv.)

PROSTATE SUFFERERS
VIBRATHERM COMBINES HEAT-MASSAGE INFRARED RAYS
Will positively convert your condition if it is not too advanced. Easy to use. Write for booklet. Southern Branch: ATLANTA NATIONAL BLDG. J.A. 241. Atlanta, Georgia.

New Entrants in Competition To Determine Who Shall Wear 'Scarlett's' Dress

George Dargan, 1939-40 Debutantes Club.

Josephine Sanders, 1939-40 Debutantes Club.

Christine Thiesen, Junior Leaguer.

Margaret L'Engle, 1939-40 Debutantes Club.

Five More Society Belles Would Be 'Scarlett' at Ball

New Entries Enlarge Field to 13 Debutantes and Junior Leaguers With More Than 40 Expected Before Measurements Are Made on December 7.

Three members of the 1939-40 Debutantes Club and two Junior Leaguers yesterday added their names to the list of those who would like to be chosen to wear the gown of "Scarlett O'Hara" at the Junior League charity ball on the night of December 14. The new entries bring the total of those officially qualified to 13. Previously, six unmarried Junior Leaguers and two members of the 1938-39 Debutantes Club had qualified with Mrs. DeSales Harrison, chairman of the Junior League Scarlett costume committee.

Latest additions to the list were Miss Christine Thiesen, Miss Josephine Sanders, Miss Alice Davis, Miss George Dargan and Miss Margaret L'Engle. Early Entrants Listed. Those who had entered earlier were Miss Jane Adair, Miss Marianna Adair, Miss Beverly Bailey, Miss Louise Robert, Miss Ida Avers and Miss Roline Adair, all unmarried members of the Junior League, and Miss Ann Papenheimer and Miss Caroline Candler, of this year's Debutantes Club.

From this group, and the other entrants who are expected to qualify within the next few days, Mrs. Harrison and her committee will seek the girl who is to be "Scarlett" for a night.

This committee, consisting of Mrs. Lawrence Willet, Mrs. Bruce Woodruff, Mrs. William Jager, Mrs. W. A. Parker and Mrs. R. B. Pegram IV, will soon measure all of the contestants to determine which of the girls most nearly fits the measurements of Vivien Leigh, who wore the same gown during some of the scenes in "Gone With the Wind." Measuring of the girls eligible to wear the gown will be done at the Piedmont Driving Club on December 7, between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., Atlanta time. The exact measurements of all the contestants will be recorded by the committee and turned over to a group of judges, who will have no association with either the Junior League or Debutantes Club. The judges will compare the measurements of the con-

DEBATE TO FEATURE DINNER FOR ELKS

Three Jurists To Judge in 'Done With the Wind' Program.

Three superior court judges will act as a jury tomorrow night at the Elks Club on Peachtree street to decide the winners in a debate which will be the highlight of a dinner honoring 75 Elks celebrating birthdays during the month of November. "Resolved, That the Works of Nature Are More Wonderful Than the Arts of Man," J. Charles Gavan and Judge Charles G. Cannon will take the speaker's platform against Wellborn Ellis and State Treasurer George B. Hamilton. The entertainment has been labeled "Done With the Wind." Judges Virlyn Moore, Jesse Wood and Paul Etheridge will render a verdict on the debate. They will be assisted by an applause registering machine installed especially for the occasion. The dinner will begin at 6:30 o'clock and will be followed by the program at 7:30 o'clock.

METHODIST BOOK CONCERNS TO MERGE
CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Consolidation of the Methodist Book Concerns of New York and Cincinnati will be effected at a meeting of directors in New York Wednesday, Troy W. Appleby, a director, announced today. He said the consolidation would become effective November 30. Plants will be maintained in both cities, the one in New York serving as a publication outlet.

Police Tell Truck Driver He's on a Hot Spot
CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Joseph Messenger of Whiting, Ind., upon orders from a police squad, brought his gasoline-laden truck to a halt. He didn't get a chance to ask any questions as the policemen shouted that the rear of his cab was on fire. Firemen extinguished the flames before they reached the 6,450 gallons of gasoline carried in the trailer.

RAILROAD WORKERS WILL MEET TONIGHT

More Interest in Civic Affairs To Be Urged; Rivers Guest Speaker.

A citizenship rally for several thousand railroad employees and express employees of Atlanta, together with delegations from the larger towns throughout the state, will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the city auditorium.

Harry B. Siegel, who was instrumental in arranging the meeting, said railroad employees had been discussing plans for such a rally for several weeks. He said one of the principal objectives will be to encourage the employees to register and vote, pointing out that transportation workers too often take too little interest in their government.

Scheduled to make short talks are Governor Rivers, Mayor Hartsfield, Congressman Robert Ramspeck, W. A. Crawford, regional chairman of the Mutual Transportation Committee, Charles M. Kimball, executive representative of the Southern Railway System, Washington, D. C., and Lambdin Kay.

The program also will include band music and stage entertainment. Sponsors of the rally are employee representatives of the Atlanta & West Point Railroad, Georgia Railroad, Seaboard Air Line Railroad, Central of Georgia Railroad, N. C. & St. L. Railroad, Louisville & Nashville Railroad, Southern Railway, A. B. & C. Railroad, Railway Express Agency, Inc., and allied railway organizations.

FATHER MOYLAN GETS ROBES SUNDAY

Bishop O'Hara Will Celebrate Mass at Formal Investiture of Rector.

Right Rev. Monsignor Joseph E. Moylan, rector of the Cathedral of Christ the King, and vicar forane of the diocese of Savannah-Atlanta, will be invested formally with the title and robes of his new office Sunday morning.

The Atlanta priest is one of two Georgians recently elevated to the title of monsignor by Pope Pius XII. The other is Monsignor T. J. McNamara, of Savannah, chancellor of the diocese and superintendent of parochial schools. Monsignor Moylan's investiture will take place at the 11 o'clock mass in the cathedral. Celebrant of the mass will be Bishop Gerald P. O'Hara.

Friends of Monsignor Moylan will honor him with a dinner at 1:30 o'clock that afternoon in the Georgia hotel. Between 5 and 7 o'clock Sunday a public reception in his honor will be held in the cathedral rectory.

A native of Savannah, Monsignor Moylan held pastorates in several Georgia cities before his transfer to Atlanta. Before the establishment of the parish of Christ the King, he was pastor of Immaculate Conception church, in downtown Atlanta.

Visitors expected to attend the ceremonies include the Most Rev. Emmet M. Walsh, the Charleston, S. C., bishop of South Carolina, Richard Reid, of Augusta, executive of the Catholic Laymen's Association of Georgia.

General chairman of arrangements is James L. Dickey. Members of his committee are Clarence Haverly, Hugh Spaulding, Estes Doremus, Bernard Kane, John M. Harrison, Henry C. Taylor, John H. Jentzen, J. W. Masseling, Grover Meyser and Gus Epler.

STRATEGY ON RATES FAILS IN THIS CASE
Kentucky Governor To Miss Parley and Premier. Governor Rivers' "political strategy" will not be the date of the next southern Governors' conference for December 14-15 in Atlanta has failed in at least one instance. According to reports from Richmond, Kentucky's Governor Keen Johnson will not be able to attend. The Kentucky executive plans to be in Washington at the time, although Rivers had set the date hoping that the world premiere of "Gone With the Wind" and attendant festivities would help bring all the Dixie Governors together.

'Gone With Wind' Festival Accorded Hearty Response

Idea of Rebuilding Store Fronts and Wearing 1860 Clothing During Celebration Is Capturing City's Imagination; Mass Meeting Tomorrow on Plans.

Atlantans are responding enthusiastically to the idea of rebuilding the store fronts like those in the city in the sixties and wearing the dignified costumes of that era for the three-day "Gone With the Wind" festival. Faber Bollinger, executive vice president of the Atlanta Convention and Visitors Bureau, reported yesterday.

Many business leaders and members of organizations throughout the city have declared they will attend the mass meeting at lunch tomorrow at the Piedmont hotel where Mayor Hartsfield will discuss the various details which merchants, hotels, businesses and organizations can plan to co-ordinate the program for the colorful festival.

Merchants Already Planning. A score or more of merchants yesterday had begun preliminary plans to erect false store fronts, depicting the stores which were here during Scarlett O'Hara's time.

Many were looking up old pictures of Atlanta street scenes before and after the War Between the States and arranging for these fronts to be duplicated in temporary materials for the festival.

Bollinger said the mayor's suggestion that businessmen and women wear Rhett Butler and Scarlett O'Hara costumes or Confederate uniforms day or night during the festival to lend color and a carnival spirit to the occasion is catching on like wild fire. Hundreds have indicated they will dress in the costumes and parade the streets.

Downtown Lighting. In the meantime, the Atlanta Association of Building Owners and Managers announced that every office building downtown will be lighted even to the last window on the nights of December 14 and 15—making the city a pool of light.

Fred B. Moore, official of the association, said every office window will be flooded with light to add to the gaiety of the general scene. The lights will be kept on until midnight each night. Bollinger emphasized that the mass meeting tomorrow noon is

PEGGY JO HARRIS DIES AT HOSPITAL

10-Year-Old Girl Loses Gallant Fight Against Illness.

Pretty Peggy Jo Harris' gallant fight for life at Emory University hospital ended early yesterday morning, less than three weeks after surgeons had attempted to save her life by performing one of the most difficult operations on record.

Suffering from acute high blood pressure, the 10-year-old Auburn-haired patient had won the hearts of all at the hospital with her cheerful smile in the face of death.

In an effort to save her life, physicians had resorted to a splenic section, a delicate operation, severing the nerves on two sides of the body. Surgeons had hoped for a reduction in her excessively high blood pressure.

The little patient was the daughter of Mrs. Willie Mae Harris, of Decatur. Other survivors include one sister, Kathryn, and a grandmother, Mrs. A. Y. Evenson, Winder, and another grandparent, Mrs. I. W. Harris, Campton.

Funeral services will be held today at 2 p. m. (EST) at the First Methodist church of Winder. The Rev. E. C. Few, pastor of the church, will officiate. Burial will be in Rose Hill cemetery, in Winder.

helps L-O-O-S-E-N
COUGH PHLEGM SYRUP
It is the tickling phlegm that causes the cough impulse from your cold. That is why Menth-Mulsion is made to loosen phlegm and give you expected relief. Menth-Mulsion contains Nine ingredients scientifically compounded and is guaranteed to stop coughing with the very first spoonful—or your druggist will return your money. Menth-Mulsion contains no narcotics nor opiates. Children like its taste. 48 doses—Now only 75¢.

MENTH-MULSION
"ONE DOSE" RELIEF

STRIKE PARLEY HELD BY CHRYSLER, CIO

Federal Conciliator Sits In? 200 Workers Pass Pickets Without Trouble.

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—(AP)—K. T. Keller, president of Chrysler Corporation, and Philip Murray, vice president of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, meeting at a conference table today sought a formula to settle a strike at Chrysler's Dodge plant which has resulted in idleness of 150,000 workers in automotive and allied industries.

"We are getting along," said Federal Conciliator James F. Dewey after the conference had proceeded for two hours. A few hours earlier, under the watchful eyes of 1,000 policemen and with the jeers of more than 3,000 union pickets ringing in their ears, about 200 negro foundry workers entered the strike-bound Dodge main plant without being molested.

CAPITOL Victor McLaglen
"Full Confession" Sally Eilers

CASCADE TODAY AND TOMORROW
"SAN FRANCISCO" Spencer Tracy

PARAMOUNT NOW!
John Wayne—Claire Trevor
"Allegory Uprising" Thursday

*Robert Cummings • Grey
*Gloria Jean
THE UNDER-PUP

FOX Now
Deanna's First Kiss!
DEANNA DURBIN

"FIRST LOVE" PLUS—CARTOON—SPORTLIGHT
STARTS THURSDAY

RULERS OF THE SEA
Doubtful Fairbanks in "Mystery" LOCKWOOD

AMONG OUR FRIENDS
Good Good

Are You the Cynical Type?
This world needs doubters... people who are skeptical of new claims and new theories. It takes cynics to keep the world in line.

Skeptical people are our particular delight. We don't blame them for doubting... but we certainly enjoy their pleasure when they endorse our claims on good food, good music and good drinks. And their skepticism completely vanishes when they see our moderate prices.

Spanish Room
Henry Grady Hotel

off to its best advantage and make everyone have a good time at the festival. Thousands of visitors are expected for the three-day celebration.

Bollinger said Mrs. Clyde Ingram, who is designing many of the costumes to be worn, reported that early indications are many beautiful costumes will be worn during the festival. She brought two experts to the city to aid in obtaining authentic reproductions of costumes for Atlantans.

RHODES DOORS OPEN 2:15 P.M.
HOST GREEN TAYLOR GARRON IN "REMEMBER"

ERLANGER ALL THIS WEEK
TONIGHT 8:30
Mat. Tomorrow 2:30—Best Seats $1.10
TOBACCO ROAD
JOHN BARTON
Nights: 55c, 85c, $1.10, $1.65
Mats.: 55c, 85c, $1.10
(Tax Inc.) Phone JA. 4487

RIALTO
6TH AND POSITIVELY
LAST 2 DAYS
"MR. SMITH GOES TO WASHINGTON"

STARTS THURSDAY
"BLONDIE BRINGS UP BABY"

LOEW'S
HURRY! LAST 3 DAYS!
William POWELL
MYRNA LOY
"Another Thin Man"

Garbo
ERNST LUBITSCH'S
NINOTCHKA
MELVYN DOUGLAS INA CLAIRE
ERNEST LUBITSCH
Starts Friday

Neighborhood Theaters
ALPHA—"Mickey the Kid," with Bruce Cabot.
AMERICAN—"Island of Lost Men," with Anna May Wong.
AVONDALE—"Winter Carnival," with Ann Sheridan.
BANKHEAD—"Grand Jury Secrets," with Gail Patrick.
BROOKHAVEN—"The Gorilla," with the Ritz Brothers.
BUCKHEAD—"Andy Hardy Gets Spring Fever," with the Hardy Family.
CASCADE—"San Francisco," with Clark Gable.
COLLEGE PARK—"The Hardys Ride High," with Mickey Rooney.
DEKALB—"Young Mr. Lincoln," with Henry Fonda.
EMORY—"Second Fiddle," with Tyrone Power.
EMERY—"Beau Geste," with Gary Cooper.
FAIRFAX—"Pirates of the Sky," with Hugh Egan.
FAIRVIEW—"The Kid From Kokonut," with Wayne Morris.
FULTON—"With Wings of Heaven," with Bing Crosby.
HAGAR—"Grand Single Love," with Dorothy Lamour.
HILAN—"Secret Pilot," and "Island of Lost Men."
PALACE—"Listen, Darling," with Judy Garland.
PONCE DE LEON—"Clouds Over Europe," with Laurence Olivier.
SYLVAN—"White Samaras," with Claude Rains.
TECHWOOD—"Four Girls in White," with Florence Rice.
TEMPLE—"Dark Victory," with Bette Davis.
TENTH STREET—"Nancy Drew, Trouble Shooter," with Bonita Granville.
WEST END—"Andy Hardy Gets Spring Fever," with the Hardy Family.

Colored Theaters
ASHBY—"Love Affair," with Irene Dunne, Charles Boyer.
81—"Angels Wash Their Faces," with the Dead End Kids.
ROYAL—"A Bachelor Mother," with Rogers.
STRAND—"Westbound Mail," with Charles Starrett.
HARPER—"Man About Town," with Rochester, Jack Benny.
LINDOLN—"Code of the Streets," and "Gold Mine in the Sky," with the Hardy Family.

Take Our Word for It
Happy Felton

brings to Atlanta the finest entertaining unit we yet have presented.

You thought Tommy Dorsey was tops when it came to orchestras—He was good. You approved Buddy Rogers so heartily we brought him back to please you.

BUT—Take Our Word for It
HAPPY FELTON

with his 45-minute floor show, his variety of vocalists, the dancing of the CALLAHAN SISTERS and his own inimitable personality bring a new brand of entertainment to the Rainbow Roof

South's Smartest Supper Club
ANSLEY HOTEL

Prominent Visitors To Arrive Friday

High lighting the social calendar for the week end will be the Georgia-Tech football game, which will be played on Saturday at Grant field and will attract many prominent visitors to the city. Among these will be Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Lanier, of Albany, and Mr. and Mrs. George Barrett, of Augusta, who arrive Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Clark Howell at their home on West Wesley road. The charming guests have visited here often and will be extensively entertained during their brief stay.

Among the affairs to honor the visitors is the dinner party to be given by their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Howell, on Saturday evening. Invited will be a few close friends of the hosts.

Women's Meetings

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 28.

The state executive board of Georgia Society D. A. C. meets at 10:30 o'clock at the Capital City Club.

The Atlanta Chapter U. D. C. meets at 2:30 o'clock at the chapter house on Juniper street.

The Kentucky Club meets in the activities building on North Avenue Presbyterian church at 2:30 o'clock.

Rosemary Garden Club meets at 11 o'clock with Mrs. S. L. Austin at 1141 Hudson drive, N. E.

The Flower Study Club meets with Mrs. Frank B. Tucker at 8 o'clock.

Atlanta Bessie Tift Alumnae meets at the Gordon Street Baptist church at 6 o'clock. Supper will be served.

The Sylvan Hills Garden Club meets at 2:30 o'clock at the school.

North Fulton High P.-T. A. meets at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The Mu chapter of the Delphian Society meets at 10:30 o'clock at the Biltmore hotel.

Primrose Garden Club meets with Mrs. John Duncan, West Face's Ferry road, at 1 o'clock.

Club Estates Garden Club meets Tuesday with Mrs. Ott Alston at her home at 1180 Bellair drive.

Buckeye Woman's Club meets at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. P. C. Hobson, 1231 Cumberland road.

Evan P. Howell P.-T. A. meets at 2:15 o'clock.

Forsythia Garden Club meets with Mrs. Hugh Dobbins, on Woodward way, N. W.

The Georgia Evening College Woman's Club meets at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Hal Hulsey, 953 Ruxley drive.

The Lula L. Kingsberry Preschool P.-T. A. group meets at 10:30 o'clock in the kindergarten room.

Moreland Pre-School P.-T. A. meets at 2:30 o'clock in the kindergarten room.

Annie E. West P.-T. A. meets in the school auditorium.

N. F. Nelson P.-T. A. meets at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Ella W. Snillie Pre-School P.-T. A. meets at 10:30 o'clock in the school library.

John B. Gordon P.-T. A. meets at 2:30 o'clock.

Clark Howell P.-T. A. executive board meets at 9:30 o'clock in the principal's office.

James L. Key Pre-School P.-T. A. group meets at 10:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

S. R. Young P.-T. A. meets in the school auditorium at 2:15 o'clock.

The Kirkwood Homemakers' Club meets at the clubhouse at 2:30 o'clock.

Morningside Pre-School P.-T. A. meets at 11 o'clock with Mrs. B. J. Larpenteur, 1665 Noble drive, N. E.

Woman's Benefit Association meets at 7:30 o'clock in the Woman's Benefit Association clubrooms, 701-2 Houston street.

Garden Division.

The Garden division of the Inman Park Woman's Club met with Mrs. W. E. Durham on Euclid avenue. Mrs. Marvin D. Williams presided.

Mrs. R. A. Williams read a paper on the proper planting and to participate in a contest on care of bulbs. The club voted Christmas table decorations, under the leadership of Mrs. T. F. Lawrence. A Christmas luncheon is being planned for the December 19 meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. Fred A. Baker on 1274 Druid place. Each member is asked to bring a Christmas gift.

Mrs. Fred Burroughs, 884 Euclid avenue, was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. H. B. Chapman, 351 Josephine street, as a visitor. The blue ribbons for the best specimen and best arrangement went to Mrs. Fred Baker and Mrs. T. F. Lawrence, respectively.

To Honor Presidents.

A luncheon for all former and new presidents of the Methodist Women's Missionary Society of Atlanta district will be held at 10:45 Wednesday at Tavern Tea Room on Peachtree street.

Tuesday is Fashion Day At RICH'S

That One Perfect Gift for that One Special Woman

For HER . . . nothing is too fine . . . that one special woman-in-your-life! Her gift must be perfection, frankincense and myrrh! She may be wife, daughter, sweetheart, mother . . . but she must have the one perfect gift in all the world. On this page are gifts that tell in a measure of the beautiful, the costly things here at Rich's . . . selected in their exquisiteness to tell her the things in your heart. Fabulously lovely, utterly Hers!

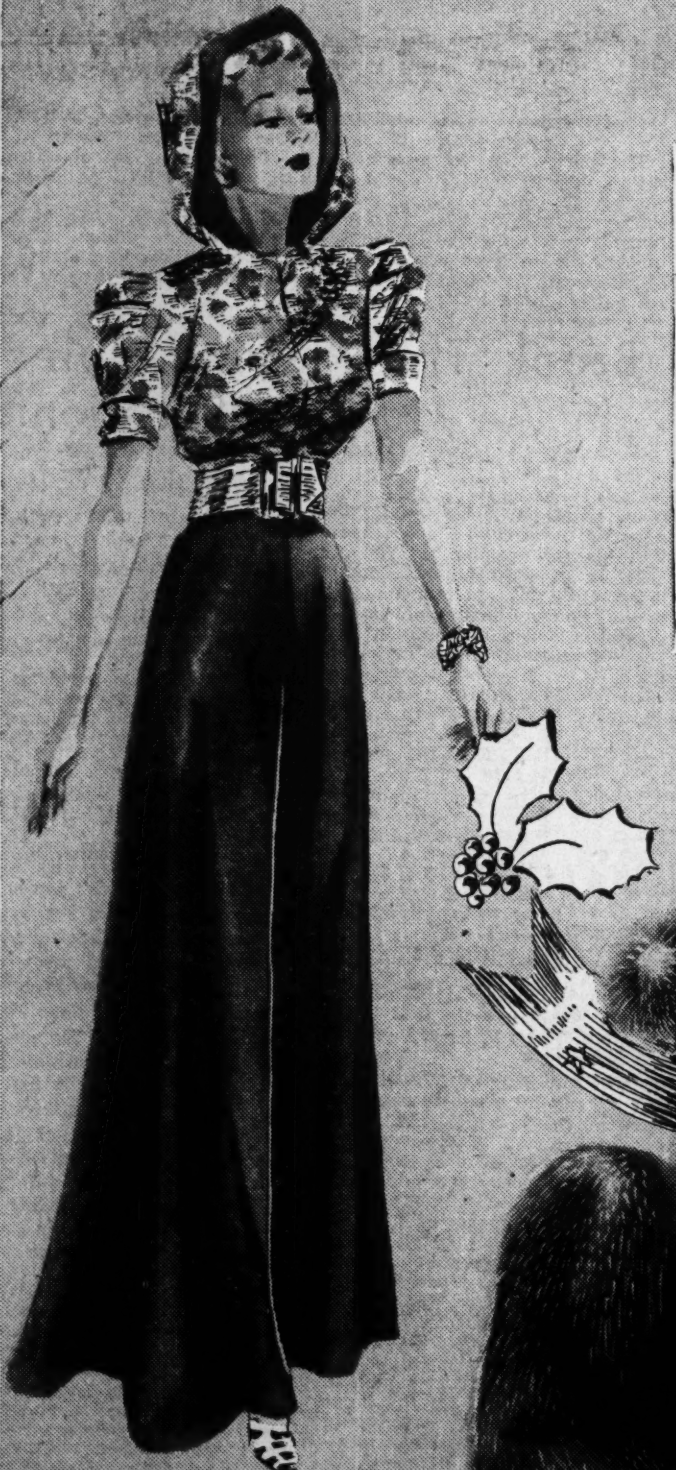

Four-skin perfect Baum Marten scarf. Luxurious and deeply brown. Full fat skins of exquisite beauty. $265

Short evening wrap in bright gold lame with six patch pocket effects. Lined in pale gold satin. 45.00

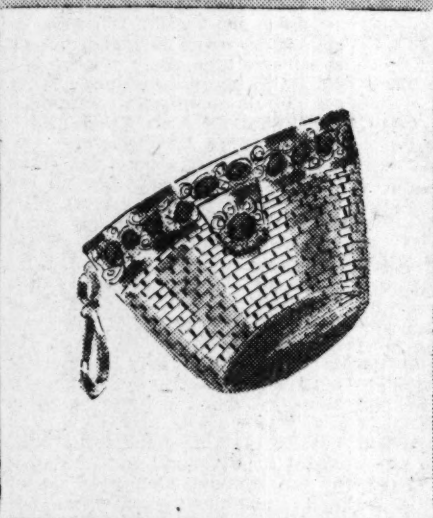

Quilted bedjacket in soft glowing velvet of magnolia white, trimmed in val lace. 13.95

Hostess pajamas in black velvet trousers and multi-color lame top. Wide silver belt. Hood lined in velvet. 39.95

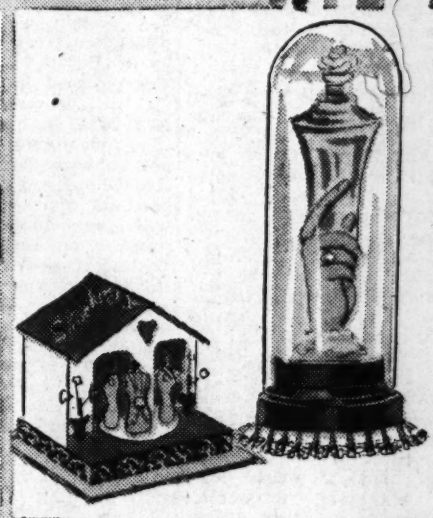

Silver fox and black broadcloth jacket, perfectly matched skins. Furs, as frosted with white as a freshly sugared doughnut. 398.95

Fabulous evening bag in gold kid and gold threads, beautifully trimmed in simulated rubies. $20

Street bag in black calf and tortoise shell frame. Metal clasp, satin lined. 22.50

Schiaparelli's "Amusing Music Box," "Shocking" perfume. $10. Elizabeth Arden's "It's You" hand container. $45

Elgin watch, 17-jewel movement. Black enamel on gold. Tiny and dainty enough for the most exquisite wrist. $45

Handkerchief of pure linen and real Duchesse lace, made in Madeira. Perfect gift for a Lady. 4.98

Genuine Antique jewelry of "Gone With The Wind" period. Necklace in gold with 9 pearls, 1 emerald. 159.50 Gold Bracelet, 49.50.

Ensemble in pale pink. Satin negligee, sheer sleeves, Alencon lace at 19.95. Matching gown in chiffon. 16.95

RICH'S

Models in Tea Room 12 to 2 P. M.

Girls Must Be Sure Their Beaux Can Stand Matrimony's Wear

Caution Urged When Samples Are Tested

By Caroline Chatfield.

Ellen is a lucky gal who boasts 23 summers, a good job and three marriage proposals. There's Mike, a come-easy-go-easy charmer, selfish and fickle. Yet in spite of her fear that he would be an unfaithful husband, she loves him. Then there's John, a fine fellow, well-born, well-to-do, generous with his money and willing to marry her right now, because he has sublime faith in his power to make her love him, in time. Third, there's Grant, the plodding, hard worker, the trustworthy friend, the type a gal can depend upon.

Says Ellen: "If Mike would settle down I know we could be supremely happy. If John married me as Mike does I would take a chance on him. If I could feel the slightest bit romantic about Grant he would probably make the best husband of the three. I'm nearly crazy trying to decide what to do."

Well, Ellen, for a gal like you the marriage market is pretty much like the Wall Street market; you can gamble on a shoddy stock that's running up fast and seems to promise a quick profit, or you can invest in a blue chip stock for the long pull and sit back, knowing perfectly well that your investment is safe, even though it's not going to yield you any spectacular profit over night.

The Mike's are the shoddy stocks. The Johns and the Grants are the blue chips, much better for the long pull of matrimony. A gal who is looking for a sound investment of her life should think of the long future in which a man's honesty, stability and dependability are far more important than his physical charm. Of course she has nothing to gauge the future by but his past and present performances.

However, the will to believe what she wants to believe is strong in the feminine heart and it's well nigh impossible to convince age 23 that the Mike she desires won't be transformed by marriage into the sort of man she admires. She can hardly believe that his come-easy-go-easy attitude toward life, now so attractive to her, will some day make her wring her hands and tear her hair when bills are due and Mike can't meet them.

Courting beaux always display samples of disposition and character considerably better than the whole bolt and if the samples are shoddy the gal can safely assume that the bolt won't stand the wear and tear of matrimony.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

AUNT HET

By ROBERT QUILLLEN.

"It wasn't bein' a Sunday school teacher that made Joe steal from the bank. It was bein' a thief that made him teach Sunday school to hide it."

Gift Aprons That Won't Slip Off

By Barbara Bell.

Either of these pinafores, or the tie-around, is a charming little remembrance. They are particularly good pinafore styles, by the way, because they won't slip off the shoulders and are efficiently protective. The three together are a very generous and useful gift, the more so because your own hand work is a token of thoughtful affection.

This set (1829-B) is an excellent seller at club and church sales, too. All three aprons are so quick and easy to make—even this simple pattern includes a detailed sew chart—that you can turn them out in no time. Make them of dimity, linen, percale, chintz or gingham, in gay, colorful prints.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1829-B is designed for sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. For No. 1, size 3" requires 1 5/8 yards of 35-inch material; 10 yards of bias fold; for No. 2, 1 5/8 yards; 2 1/2 yards of pleating; for No. 3, 1 7/8 yards.

It's smart to sew your own! It's easy to do! Send for our fascinating Pattern Book. Choose from more than 100 new designs for all occasions and all sizes. Make your own becoming clothes, with these simple patterns. Step-by-step sew chart with each one.

Price of pattern 15c. Price of pattern book 15c. Do not send stamps. Mail orders to Barbara Bell Pattern Dept., The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

Words of Wisdom.

Prosperity tries the fortunate, adversity tries the great. —Pliny the Younger.

Italian spaghetti will find favor with any crowd.

Cary Grant, Rosalind Russell Quarrel Over the Spotlight

By Sheila Graham.

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 27.—Cary Grant and Rosalind Russell are not exactly friendly as a result of their co-starring job in "His Girl Friday." It seems that Cary insisted on speaking his lines at double speed, which made it hard for Rosalind to keep up with him and still make sense. And this incident occurred near the end of the picture. Rosalind had to bend over a sheet of paper with her profile showing for the camera while Cary talked to her. The cameraman complained that he could see only the back of her neck. In hushed tones that contained the glint of a dagger, Rosalind chirped that it didn't matter, as Mr. Grant would see to it that her face wouldn't show anyway. I didn't know that Cary was a spotlight-stealer. Maybe Rosalind was just kidding.

Virginia Grey rates several large parts on the back. Two and a half years ago, a young married woman friend of hers died, leaving a seven-week-old daughter. The husband had died previously. Virginia consulted with her sister, Loraine, and the two girls decided to adopt the baby. This is the first time I've heard the story, which is more commendable because most of the good deeds in this city are broadcast by press agents, sometimes before they happen.

Greer Garson had to turn down an offer of $2,000 to make one broadcast. Her studio said, "No." Ditto for little Terry Kilburn, who recently had to turn thumbs down on $1,000. By the way, Master Kilburn's stand-in is an ex-jockey who has to wear "lifts" to be as tall as Terry. Jimmy Stewart didn't know that he was taking Marlene Dietrich to the preview of "Destiny Rides Again" until I told him that Universal had given out the picture. He looked non-plussed for a second, then, rising gallantly to the occasion, said, "Oh, how nice. Maybe that's a hint." There has been sabotage committed on the "Road to Singapore" set. Someone has tampered with the fastener on Dorothy Lamour's sarong. Both Bob Hope and Bing Crosby are suspected.

Someone has accused me of describing Robert Taylor as "very pretty." My actual words were, "very good-looking," which is something else again. Bob is on his way back to Hollywood after a rather disappointing vacation. He had planned to go to Europe, then to South America. He ended up spending two weeks in New York with Barbara Stanwyck.

Bette Davis says that the next man she marries will earn—or have—more money than she does. Not that Bette is mercenary. She is not. But she believes that, for a marriage to be successful, the man should earn more than the woman. I think she has something there. . . . Whoever dreamed up the story that Shirley Temple's mother dyes her hair—he didn't say what color—ought to have his own head examined. Mrs. Temple's locks are a beautiful chestnut-black. Shirley, by the way, has lost so much weight recently that her doctor has put her on a body-building diet. . . . Baby Sandy gets her option taken up at Universal—so all is well with Sandy and her numerous commercial tie-ups. The market value of dolls, clothes, etc., named after movie stars, goes up and down with the screen popularity of the star.

A certain well-known actress was taken for a terrific love ride by a European gentleman who was reported to have been a spy for his government, and who is now back in his native country. Jeannette MacDonald will not be accompanied by Husband Gene Raymond this time on her personal appearance tour. Gene will stay behind in Hollywood, working on his song-composing. William Powell has taken Ginger Rogers out for dinner approximately twice. So they are now being printed up as a new romance. I doubt it. . . . Alice Faye was going to take no chances of rumors of separation when Tony Martin left on his personal appearance tour. She was going with him. At the last minute, she had to stay behind for retakes on her picture, "Little Old New York." But she'll join Tony as quickly as she can.

At a recent preview, I saw Director Michael Curtiz and said, "Hello, I'm glad to see you." To which Mike responded gravely, "The pleasure is neutral."

Woman's Quiz

Have you a household problem to solve? Write your question clearly, sign your name and address, enclose a 3-cent postage stamp and mail to The Woman's Editor of The Constitution, Washington Service Bureau, 1013 13th street, Washington, D. C., for a personal reply. Don't telephone: write as directed.

Q. Please give me a few suggestions to follow when buying silk stockings.

A. Test the ability of the stocking to stretch at the top and the ankle. A stocking should fit snugly, but it should stretch to six or seven inches from the instep to the heel, and to 11 1/2 to 12 inches at the top. Ask for the thread number of the stockings. Four and five-thread is best for general wear and three-thread for dress; two-thread is impracticably sheer. It pays to buy two pairs of stockings of the same color, so that a run or snag in one will not make its mate valueless.

Q. Does baking soda added to tomato soup destroy any of its vitamins?

A. Some of its vitamin C is destroyed, and it also spoils the natural flavor of the tomatoes.

Q. Are any of the children of Bing Crosby and Dixie Lee adopted?

A. No; all four sons are their own.

Have you a household problem to solve? Write your question clearly, sign your name and address, enclose a three-cent postage stamp and mail to The Woman's Editor of The Constitution, Washington Service Bureau, 1013 13th street, Washington, D. C., for a personal reply. Don't telephone: write as directed.

Fix Spaghetti If Men Are In For Supper

By Sally Saver.

To be a successful hostess it is necessary to serve foods, especially when there are men guests, that have few frills and are frankly substantial and filling. At a luncheon or tea when only women are present you have to indulge yourself in flights of food fancy. But men view with suspicion any dish that is not easily recognizable.

Spaghetti is a much-loved food which finds favor with both sexes and for that reason it is a good choice for supper or buffets. There are all kinds of spaghetti, but Italian spaghetti is always right when there is any doubt about what to serve and how to serve it. Italian spaghetti is the kind which has the sauce poured over the spaghetti after a mound of spaghetti is placed on the plate. The sauce never is cooked with the spaghetti for the real Italian spaghetti. The sauce may contain meat balls or ground meat.

Spaghetti should be cooked in rapidly boiling, salted water until tender (do not overcook), drained and served as quickly as possible. A meat sauce Italian style is made as follows:

Meat Sauce for Italian Spaghetti.
4 tablespoons olive oil
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons garlic, finely chopped
2 medium onions, chopped (2 cups)
1 pound beef, ground
2 cups mushrooms, sliced
2 cans condensed consommé
2 cans condensed tomato soup
2 cans tomato paste (6 oz. size)
1 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon pepper

Cook the finely chopped garlic and onion in the butter and olive oil until soft but not broken. Add the ground beef and mushroom slices and continue sauteing until they are brown. Then add the consommé, tomato soup, tomato paste and seasonings. Cover and simmer 20 to 30 minutes to blend the flavors thoroughly. This will make sauce enough for two boxes of spaghetti and will serve 12 persons. Each serving should be sprinkled with grated Parmesan cheese.

There is an excellent canned spaghetti sauce on the market. It does not contain meat, but ground beef may be browned and added. The recipe given above is a short way to a good sauce, but still a

New Ideas Rule Tonsils and Adenoids

By Dr. William Brady.

Thirty years ago, so powerful was propaganda as distinguished from education, the medical profession looked upon all tonsil tissue as evil. That attitude accounted for the indiscriminate practice of removing tonsils and adenoids on a wholesale plan when you and I were young Maggie. In the days of wholesale tonsil and adenoidectomy any kid who opened his mouth for a while and forgot to close it again when the nurse, or even a smart teacher was giving the class the once over for material for the tonsil clinic, was as good as on the wagon. Or if the child happened to be slightly deaf, or listless from any deficiency of health or nutrition, or handicapped by reason of poor vision, there was always a bad chance that he would be accused of having adenoids and be hustled off to the clinic.

It was really remarkable how many youngsters survived the crude surgery perpetrated in that era. That the disastrous consequences or complications in comparatively few instances did not deter either the public or the profession from continuing the practice of removing tonsils and adenoids on the slightest pretext, is further evidence of the power of propaganda against education.

Today, however, the rank and file of the profession and the better informed public have a more conservative view of the matter. Adenoid tissue (it is the same type of tissue whether in the throat or faucial tonsils, the pharyngeal tonsil or adenoid body, or elsewhere) is now regarded as normal and functionally useful tissue and the more competent physician or specialist endeavors to protect or save it instead of trying to destroy or remove it.

That change in view, brought about by better education, accounts for the tremendous decline in the number of tonsil and adenoid operations done in recent years.

Some of our older readers may recall that I got the very devil from the powers that be for my temerity in advocating the more conservative electro-surgical or diathermy extirpation of infected tonsils in place of "the old Spanish custom" not so many years ago. It is a satisfaction to note that many of the medical brethren who were most severe in criticizing my teaching about that 15 or 15 years ago are today either using the diathermy method or recommending it, particularly for their handicapped patients.

Yet a few old-timers still use a rather shameful argument to persuade some of their unsophisticated customers to submit to the guillotine and snare atrocity. They tell the prospective patient that the diathermy method "does not get all of the tonsil." Oh, well, as long as so many laymen can't or won't read the daily papers beyond the larger headlines, what can you do about such conditions?

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Sinus Headache.
Took cold six weeks ago. Have suffered ever since with what the doctor here calls neuralgia. The pain seems all through my head, and behind the eyes. Had glasses fitted, but no relief. (Miss J. E.)
ANSWER: What you mean when you say "took cold" is Sanskrit to me. If the beginning of the trouble was coryza or sore throat, the cause of the pain may be sinusitis, perhaps ethmoidal or sphenoidal sinusitis. Having glasses fitted was a silly waste of money. Why not consult a nose and throat specialist for diagnosis and treatment of the trouble? One your doctor will recommend, one whose advice your doctor will carry out. This is the truly economical management of such trouble in any circumstance.

shorter cut is the canned sauce, the name of which I will give you if you're interested.

MY DAY Back on the Job After Georgia Visit

By Eleanor Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, Sunday.—I had a very good flight up yesterday from Atlanta, Georgia, but we had a headwind which made us a few minutes late in landing. As on practically all my flights recently, the ship was filled. I think a great many more people must be traveling by air. This time there were four or five women, but males still predominate in air travel.

I left all at Warm Springs in grand spirits. The President was just starting off with two of the forestry people to look over the woods. No more congenial occupation than that can ever be found for him.

Miss Thompson awaited me and, in spite of the usual quantity of mail, I was so glad to see her I would have done twice as much mail with joy. After she went home, I worked until I was through with what she left for me to do.

Bright and early this morning I was down in the dentist's chair, for I broke off a corner of a tooth while I was away, and had to have it replaced.

At 10:30 I went out to ride. Our old bridge path along the river is temporarily out of commission on account of the work on the new airport, so the Agricultural Department's experimental farm grounds, which I think have now been turned over to the army, provide some good paths. We tried riding around the edge of Arlington cemetery, which also proved a good place to ride, and we came back past Meyer stables.

I have a note today from Dr. Latham Hatcher, who is interested in the Alliance for Guidance for Rural Youth, and I am going to have the pleasure on December 5 of talking with some of the youngsters on the radio. The alliance has been working for rural youth for 25 years and is celebrating its birthday by trying to raise a little more money than usual this year. In New York city, on the first of December, they will open their campaign, and they have taken over the opera "Hansel and Gretel." I wish I could be there, for it is one of my favorite operas. In any case, I shall take some tickets and send them to someone else to enjoy it.

Dr. Hatcher tells me that the alliance has provided individual guidance for approximately 21,000 rural youth. They have published many books and bulletins and they are putting on a national demonstration of a county youth guidance program in Breathitt county, Kentucky. To anyone who knows, as I do, the difficulties which face many of our rural youth in different parts of the country, the work of this association seems very important. These young people need help in receiving an education, deciding what they want to do in life, obtaining medical care, adjusting themselves to the changes in our civilization—whether or not they are going to live their adult lives in rural or urban places. Whether we live in the city or the country, we can ill afford not to help them, for they will make the nation of the future.

Easy Stitchery Honors Washington

Pattern 6551.
The portrait of George Washington, our greatest statesman, is worthy of a place in every American home today! This splendid likeness in simple cross stitch is quickly embroidered on a chair pattern 6551 contains a transfer pattern of a motif 9 3-4 by 13 1-4 inches and 2 motifs 4 1-2 by 8 1-2 inches; ill. of stitches; materials needed; color schemes.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in coin to Household Arts Dept., The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga. Be sure to write plainly your name, address and pattern number.

Break The Playing Rules In An Unusual Situation

By Harold Sharpsteen.

Look to the longest suit in combined hands for needed tricks at notrump, is usually a good playing rule for declarer to follow. Whether an effort should be made to establish this suit immediately, in the conventional manner of playing a notrump contract, depends largely on the situation at hand.

NORTH.
S-J 2
H-K 9 7
D-10 2
C-10 8 6 2
EAST.
S-K 8 6 5 4
H-10 6 2
D-8 4
C-9 5 3

SOUTH.
S-Q 10 3
H-A 7 4
D-A K Q 8 5
C-A

South is declarer at three no-trump. West's opening lead being the Club 4, won by South's singleton ace.

COUNTS EIGHT TRICKS.
With dummy exposed and one trick in, South can count eight certain winners—five diamonds, two hearts, and his club trick just won. South needs but one more trick to fulfill his contract and the heart finesse appears as the best place to try for it.

But, if the heart finesse fails, West will cash his two good club tricks plus two sure spade tricks and defeat the contract.

DIAMONDS LONG SUIT.
Eight diamonds constitute declarer's longest suit in combined hands, but to run off diamonds first makes it just as embarrassing for declarer to discard from dummy, as it does for defenders to discard.

The one sure way for south to make his contract is to immediately lose two tricks in his shortest suit . . . spades. The extra spade trick is set up in that suit without jeopardizing the contract.

South leads low to dummy's Spade Jack, East winning the trick and returning a club, won by West's queen. Defenders now have two tricks in and West can cash his club king and spade ace, but South will lose no more.

BREAKS PLAYING RULES.
The above deal clearly illustrates an exceptional situation where declarer must depart from general playing rules and play the hand in an exceptional way.

To run five clubs and then attempt the heart finesse would have resulted in defeat of the contract. Establishing a winner in spades first assures game against any defense. The game-going trick is the all important trick in rubber bridge or duplicate play.

"Till tomorrow . . . Mail your bridge problems to Harold Sharpsteen, care of The Atlanta Constitution, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped (3-cent) envelope."

Pie Has Place In Weight Control

By Ida Jean Kain.

A woman's page writer can do no wrong—and get away with it! Here's a San Francisco lady taking me soundly to task because I've been undercharging on the calories in orange juice!

I have known all along that I was a calorie or two shy on the orange juice. The actual count is 55 calories per three and one-half ounces, which is a scant half-glass. And from now, you're going to be charged 55!

I would really prefer you to think there are a few less calories in orange juice and a few more in pie—but the overcharge on pie has been entirely unintentional. As you know, apple, apricot, peach and butterscotch pies are always quoted as 100 calories per inch at the circumference, and a three-inch wedge at 300 calories. But the latest calorie count on pie lists the aforementioned as not more than 225 calories. And apple pie, which is probably your favorite, counts only 200 calories per three inches. Just think of it! All these years you could have had four and one-half inches of apple pie for those 300 calories!

Honestly, when I went to school, pie counted 100 calories per inch. But that's progressive education for you!

Even with the lower calorie count, pie is still to be reckoned with in weight control. In case you're interested, you can avoid 66 2/3 calories by leaving either the upper or lower crust on the plate. One nine-inch crust contains 600 calories. Or, you could cut down on the number by using those crisscross strips for the top instead of the regular crust.

Salads are also coming in for closer scrutiny. A reducer writes to demand what the difference is between a combination salad, a chopped green salad, a mixed salad, and a tossed green salad. Well . . . they're all green salads! But since you are supposed to have a green vegetable every day I like to call the salads by different names for the sake of variety! But a combination salad could mean lettuce, tomato, green pepper, celery, with the lettuce in sections, the tomato quartered. A variety of greens can be combined for the mixed salads. Take your pick—lettuce, romaine, chicory, watercress or escarole, together with green pepper, thin onion and radish slices, and cucumbers. If French dressing is used, count it as 65 calories per tablespoon.

To revert to pie . . . don't get the idea that all pies count only 100 calories per one and one-half inches. Some count 100 calories for three-fourths inch! For an accurate check on your favorite, consult the revised list of pie calories given below.

All pies 9 inches at diameter, the slice 3 inches at the outside.

	Calories.
Apple	200
Apricot, plain	225
Butterscotch with whipped cream	225
Cherry	300
Cocoanut custard	300
Custard, plain	150
Lemon meringue	300
Mince	500
Peach	200
Prune with whipped cream	270
Pumpkin	240
Raisin	300

Send for the "Calorie Chart" and check on your other favorite dishes. In requesting leaflets, write to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Atlanta Constitution, and enclose a stamped return envelope.

LEISEN GETS CREDIT.
Mitchell Leisen, director of Paramount's "Remember the Night," used to be an art director for Cecil B. De Mille, and actually designed most of those lavish bath tubs, credit for which usually goes to "C. B."

A New Frock For "Playgirls"

By Lillian Mae.

This tiny "playgirl" waves to call your attention to her brand new frock—she's mighty proud of it! And mummy said the whole thing took just one kindergarten day to stitch up. For Lillian Mae's Pattern 4314 is very simple, as you can see by the open diagram. The circular flaring skirt has no side seaming—it's cut in only one piece. And there are but three pieces to the attractively shaped bodice. Dressing takes no time at all, with that saucy buttoning all down the back. Don't miss the long or short sleeved blouse with its cute collar or rounded neckline and dainty trim. Completing the picture, bloomers and a cocky little cap are included.

Pattern 4314 is available in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6, jumper and cap, takes 1 5/8 yards 35-inch fabric; short sleeve blouse, 3-4-yard contrast.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins for this Lillian Mae pattern. Do not send stamps. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

"Can I afford to be in style?" With New Year gaieties almost here, you can't afford not to be! Lillian Mae Winter Pattern Book comes to your aid. There are vivid frocks for day and night festivities, as well as timely gift tips and winter vacation wearables. A special corner is reserved for youngsters and coeds . . . a special section for slimming matrons' modes. Be the best dressed "lady-on-a-budget" in town by ordering our book now! Book, 15 cents.

Send your order to Lillian Mae Pattern Department, The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

'Adopt a Child for Christmas Club' Brings New Meaning to Yuletide

By Sally Forth.

"ADOPT A CHILD FOR CHRISTMAS" is the name of the novel and praiseworthy plan evolved by a young Atlanta matron, Mrs. Gene Smith, for giving happiness to some friendless little child who otherwise would not know the joys of yuletide that are the inalienable right of all children. Mrs. Smith advances on the theory of unselfishness that one gains happiness by giving it to others, and that childless homes like hers need the patter of little feet and the sunny smile of a little child to bring Christmas to full reality.

Accordingly, several years ago, Mrs. Smith, the former Isabelle Roberts, went out to Hillside Cottages and took home with her for Christmas Day an appealing little girl named Dolly. It seems that Dolly contributed so much pleasure to the Smith household that every year since then, she and her husband have followed the same plan of preparing Christmas for some child or children who otherwise would scarcely know the meaning of the word.

On a chance visit to the Samuel Inman school last year, Isabelle saw a small, blue-eyed, fair-haired child named Dorothy Williams, whose lonely and forlorn appearance tugged at her heart strings. Upon inquiry she found that Dorothy came from the Hillside Cottages, so she sought the aid of the matron there, Mrs. Estelle Wagner, and asked permission to adopt the child for the Christmas season. Because children cannot be entirely happy in strange surroundings, she took Dorothy to her home a week in advance so that they might become well acquainted, and had the latter's young sister and brother from the Cottages join them for Christmas Day. In the meantime, she and Dorothy went shopping, trimmed their Christmas tree, and made grand preparations for the birthday of the Little Christ Child.

Mrs. Smith has derived so much pleasure from her experience and has found her friends so interested in her plan that now her thought is to carry it out on a larger scale and form a club, that others might share in her happiness. She has made contacts with the various agencies and orphanages that care for little children, and has classified those available according to age, appearance, etc. Anyone who is interested in making December 25 more like just another day for some little girl or boy who is minus home and father and mother, is requested to call Mrs. Smith at Hemlock 1566. Such an investment could not fail to bring dividends of great joy and happiness.

THE moral of the following story is a bit of advice to wedding attendants—namely, don't pursue the bride and groom.

When McKee and Betty Yopp Nunnally attempted to "make a getaway" after their wedding reception at the Capital City Club Saturday evening, they were energetically pursued by members of their bridal party. The chase was a merry one, with the newlyweds leading by only a slight margin. In fact, so absorbed were members of the wedding party in following their quarry that they completely forgot the traffic regulations. So Betty and McKee attribute their escape to an irate cop, who wrote a ticket for their pursuers when they reached Piedmont avenue.

GLAD tidings concern attractive Mary King Hart, who is in her senior year at the University of Tennessee, and arrives tomorrow to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Hart, at their Barksdale drive residence. As you know, Mary King has made a splendid record at college, and is exceedingly popular in school and social circles in Knoxville, Tenn.

Her picture was published recently on the front page of the Knoxville News-Sentinel in connection with Sadie Hawkins Day. The pretty, blue-eyed co-ed from Georgia was general chairman of the affair and led the grand march at the ball with Al

GIVE THAT COLD THE AIR
QUICK WITH THIS FIRST-THOUGHT FIRST-AID FOR HEAD COLDS, NASAL MISERIES, PENETRO NOSE DROPS—2 DROPS—THEY SOOTHE AS THEY TOUCH, THEY COOL AS THEY VAPORIZE, THEY SHRINK AS THEY ACT—AND FRESH-AIR BREATHING IS FREER AGAIN.

PENETRO NOSE DROPS

Try Saxolite Astringent The Delightful Skin Freshener

Saxolite helps tighten skin tissue and produces a temporary contraction of the skin. Aids also in reducing excess surface oil. Just dissolve Saxolite in one-half pint of water and pat this lotion on the skin several times daily.

Sold at all Cosmetic Counters.

OUT OF THE SEA

If you are a lover of seafood, or if, Mrs. Housewife, you want to know a lot of new and tempting ways of preparing fish and all the other denizens of the deep, so they will appear as appetizing dishes on your table, you'll certainly want to have in your library the "Seafood Cook Book" prepared by experts in Washington, D. C. This 24-page publication is packed with useful information

Capps, the famous cartoonist of the comic strip, "As senior counselor of Alpha Omicron, P. Kappa, proctor of Kitty Kane residence on the campus, and chairman of the carnival dance, which is the most brilliant of all social festivities and takes place after Christmas, Mary King is acclaimed a leader in campus activities. It is Mary King's desire to teach school after the graduates next June, and to this end she teaches classes twice weekly and is gaining worlds of experience before launching upon her professional career. She lives in the Kitty Kane residence, an up-to-date dwelling on the campus, and Mary King's time and charming presence are in demand for every college and social occasion.

GLIMPSED at a recent debut ball: Barbara Mallett looking festive in Christmas red. Lillian Winship and partner dancing the jitterbug.

Josephine Sanders wearing white satin accented by lavender orchids pinned at her shoulder and in her dark tresses. . . . Virginia Papy wearing seafoam green to offset her titian hair.

Sarah Lewis and party chatting animatedly before the dance. . . . Julia Chapman wearing scarlet and fashioned with a jacket encrusted in crystal beads.

Bride-elect Elizabeth See engrossed in animated conversation with her dancing partner. . . . Mary Morris looking elegant in black velvet trimmed with ermine. . . . Elizabeth Groves wearing black velvet dotted with pink polka dots. . . . Margaret Preacher and escort enjoying a fox trot. . . . Jane Osburn and escort chatting over supper at midnight.

Miss Smith, Fiance Honored at Party

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Huffman Jr. were hosts last evening at a buffet supper at their home on Fourteenth street honoring Miss Virginia Smith and Willoughby Beaudry, whose marriage will be a brilliant event on Saturday noon at Sacred Heart church.

The hosts were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Jack Woodside. Invited for the occasion were members of the wedding party.

The buffet table in the dining room was overlaid with a white linen cutwork cloth and was centered with a silver bowl filled with yellow chrysanthemums. Flanking the central decorations were silver candlesticks holding burning white tapers.

Parties Will Fete Miss Eleanor T. Bow.

Lovely parties continue to honor Miss Eleanor T. Bow, whose marriage to James Andrew Roberts will be an important event of December 10, taking place at the West End Baptist church.

Miss "Bea" Beacham and Miss Margaret Williams will be joint hostesses Friday at a miscellaneous shower to be given honoring the bride-elect at the home of Miss Beacham on Lucille avenue.

Mrs. Dean McWhorter and Mrs. J. T. Bridwell, of 1440 Hartford avenue, will be joint hostesses at a party to be given Monday evening, December 11.

Mrs. J. M. Dodd was hostess Saturday evening at her home on Katherwood drive honoring Miss T. Bow.

A feature of the party was an elaborately decorated parol which was placed in the living room, covered with gifts.

Miss T. Bow was recently entertained at a kitchen shower given by Mrs. P. B. Green at her home on Atwood street.

Sacred Heart Chapel Guild Plans Supper.

The Sacred Heart Chapel guild will give its annual spaghetti supper this evening from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Sacred Heart school. Mrs. S. Duncan Peeples is chairman and Mrs. R. L. Watkins is co-chairman. After the supper, entertainment for the guests has been arranged in the Marist College armory. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. R. L. Blahnik, He. 8364-R; Mrs. R. L. Hoy, WE. 2089-J; Mrs. C. R. Murphy, HE. 2948, and Mrs. John Maertz, HE. 6172-R.

Mrs. Gene Smith, who conceived the idea of a new club to be called "Adopt a Child for Christmas Club," which is now in process of organization under her leadership. Mrs. Smith, who before her marriage was Miss Isabelle Roberts, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Roberts, has for several years taken a friendless little child into her home for the holiday season, and upon her experience is to be founded the new club which will bring happiness to many Atlanta children.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. William Huger and Mr. and Mrs. William T. Healey Jr. are on a hunting trip near Ashburn, Ga. Their hunting preserve has been christened Snowway and is located in a productive field in south Georgia.

Colonel and Mrs. Charles M. Roberts, of San Antonio, Texas, arrive today to visit their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Camp, at their home on Northwood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodrum Norris and Alonzo Norris have returned from Jacksonville, Fla., where they attended the marriage of their cousin, Malcolm McCrory Jr., to Miss Nelwyn Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brooks. The marriage was an important social event of last Friday and took place at Riverside Presbyterian church. Mrs. A. N. Norris, Miss Mary Goodrum and Mrs. T. M. Goodrum, of Newnan; Mrs. John Armistead and Miss Caroline Armistead, of Rockingham, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Berryman Goodrum, of Miami, Fla., also attended the Brooks-McCrory wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. William Akers, Miss Ida Akers and Mr. and Mrs. Carson Sewell have returned from a motor trip to Knoxville, Tenn. While there they visited Miss Mary King Hart, who is a student at the University of Tennessee.

Mrs. Walker Leach has returned to her home in Knoxville, Tenn., after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hoffman, at their home on The Prado.

Mr. and Mrs. Kearsley Selden, of Mobile, Ala., arrive on Thursday to spend the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Selden, at their home on Walker Terrace.

Mrs. John K. Otley Jr. and little daughter, Mary Fenton Otley, have been removed from St. Joseph's infirmary to their home on Rivers road.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Campbell Jr. have returned from their wedding trip, and are at home with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Campbell, in Druid Hills. Mrs. Campbell is the former Miss Cornelia Whitaker. Among parties to honor the newlyweds will be the tea at which Mrs. John J. Eagan will entertain on December 1 for Mrs. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jefferson, of New York City, spent the week-end in Atlanta at the Georgian Terrace. Mrs. Jefferson is the former Miss Georgeanne Delafair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Delafair, prominent socialites of Darien, Conn., and New York City.

Miss Mary Virginia McConnell leaves Wednesday for Jacksonville, Fla., where she will attend the debut party of Miss Glory Mott, which will be a brilliant event of this week.

Mrs. Robert G. Hunt, of Griffin, arrives in Atlanta today to attend the executive board meeting of Georgia Society of Daughters of American Colonists.

Mrs. James K. Hines is ill with influenza at St. Joseph's infirmary.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Allen Wilson announce the birth of a daughter on November 22 at Simple Ringworm Sufferers To relieve the itching, burning and sore discomfort of simple ringworm apply Black and White Ointment. The soothing, cooling, antiseptic dressing that destroys the responsible organisms upon actual contact. Use with Black and White Skin Soap. Sold everywhere.

Tech Students Plan Homecoming Gaieties For Georgia Visitors

A round of parties attendant upon the Tech-Georgia football game is planned for the forthcoming week-end, chief among which will be the homecoming festivities at Tech.

A local orchestra will provide music for the tea-dance Friday afternoon and the dance that evening, as well as a final dance to be held, also in the new gymnasium, on Saturday evening.

Another feature will be the annual alumni banquet and formal dance at the Piedmont Driving Club Friday evening at which the Chi Phi fraternity will entertain.

Among those who have made reservations for this occasion are: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nunnally, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Wardlaw Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Dave Black, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nunnally, who will dine together.

At another table will be Misses Betty Ann Bird, Lydia Winner, Bright Bickerstaff, Sue Godwin, Betty King, Florence Ellis and Wharton Mitchell, Dave Black, John Shield, Jimmy Dorsey, Dickie Boyd, Marvin McClatchey and Pope Fuller.

Together will be Misses Catherine Tift, Nan Johnson, Betty Browder, Howard Perkins and Milton Edgerton, Ralph Porch, Ed Yancey, Henley Sturgess and Neal Perkins.

Another group includes Mr. and Mrs. John M. Raine, Nick Nicholson, Miss Frances Stanton, George McCarty and others.

A congenial party will include Bill Collar, Allen McGhee, Gordon Stipe and Jack Peebles.

Irving Katz has made reservations for 12. Miss Marion Cannon will attend with Ernest Contz. Francis Jones is among many others who will be present.

Another bright spot on the homecoming calendar of events is the luncheon Saturday from 12 until 2 o'clock to be given by the Georgia Tech alumni at the school dining hall.

Saturday evening in the same location the Anak Society, honorary Tech club, will hold a unique initiation in which they will include outstanding members of graduating classes from 1893 until 1908.

Dr. and Mrs. Bivings Plan Party Dec. 16

The holiday social calendar is being filled each day with a variety of parties, and Atlanta hosts have made festive plans for their entertainments.

Among hosts who will entertain at their annual old fashioned Christmas on December 16.

The affair takes place at their home on Habersham road and will assemble 150 members of the married contingent.

Books Reviewed By Literary Group.

At the November meeting of the literary division of the College Park Woman's Club, Mrs. J. W. Stephenson, reviewed "Patches From the Sky," a book of poems by an Atlanta author, Elizabeth Fittin, Goldsmith. Mrs. Hugh Fittin, Goldsmith, Mrs. Hugh Fittin, Goldsmith, Mrs. Hugh Fittin, Goldsmith.

Mrs. Albert Akers read a paper on Brazil, South American countries being the special subject for the literary study this year.

The original contributions were a sketch, "Birthdays Celebrations," by Miss Maude Colquhoun; editorial, which was published in the Suburban Reporter entitled, "College Park," by Mrs. H. C. Stakely; moving picture review of the "Undiscovered Country," by Mrs. R. T. Aderhold.

Mrs. Charles Stone presented a literary article on "Things for Thanks," Mrs. Walter Couch, chairman of the division, presided, and Mrs. Albert Akers was hostess at her home on West Cambridge.

Mrs. Charles Stone will be hostess for the December meeting.

Business Women Hostesses at Dinner.

"How To Be a Thankful Businesswoman" was the topic discussed by Mrs. Hattie Bloodworth Jackson at the recent dinner given by the Businesswoman's group of Druid Hills Baptist T. E. L. Class at the church.

Mrs. H. Madison Tucker, president, brought the report from the executive board, and Mrs. Millie Edwards, devotional leader, presented a devotional on "Service."

The monthly activity of this group is to furnish fruit juices for an invalid, in addition to supplying a needy family with a Thanksgiving basket. Miss Lou Wright is their leader; Mrs. Gladys Scruggs, co-chairman; Mrs. F. C. Hillyer, secretary; Mrs. Willie Hendley, chairman of personal service.

Serving dinner were Mesdames B. V. Lites, C. A. Cobb, E. H. Hoffman, assisted by Miss Emily Wright. Members and visitors enjoyed the occasion, which featured a corn-shelling contest, and singing.

Gainesville W. M. S. Elects Officers.

GAINESVILLE, Ga., Dec. 27.—Mrs. Leslie F. Quinlan was named 1940 president of the Women's Auxiliary of Grace Episcopal church at the annual election meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. Owen McDermott on North Green street.

Other officers will include Mrs. G. C. Hinshelwood, vice president; Mrs. James A. Rudolph, treasurer, and Mrs. McDermott, secretary.

Mrs. Roy Newman, retiring officer, presented Mrs. Hinshelwood as program chairman for the day, who reported from the recent synod held in Tampa, which she attended as Athens' district delegate.

With Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McKenney in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Celebrate Silver Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Otis White celebrated their silver wedding anniversary last Saturday at a cocktail party given at their Brookhaven drive residence. Their marriage took place on November 25, 1914, at the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey C. Walker, parents of Mrs. White, who lived in Greenville, S. C. Mrs. White is the former Miss Marguerite Walker, and Mr. White served as captain of an infantry regiment in the World War. Mr. and Mrs. White are well known and popular Atlantans, and are parents of Otis White Jr., who attends Oglethorpe University.

Series of Gala Parties Continues To Honor Popular Debutantes

Among additional parties planned in compliment to members of the 1939-40 Debutantes' Club, is the supper party at which Mr. and Mrs. John W. Grant Jr. will be hosts next Sunday evening, honoring Miss Jane Osburn.

On Saturday evening, December 30, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Draper will be hosts at a dinner party at the Piedmont Driving Club honoring Miss Constance Knowles.

Miss Elizabeth Colley will be hostess on December 26, at a buffet luncheon at her home on Club drive complimenting a group of popular debutantes, Misses Lillian Klein, Selma and Rebecca Wright, Jean Oliver, Margaret L'Engle and Bungie Fuller.

An affair of yesterday honoring Miss Ruthanna Butters was the luncheon at which Mrs. T. B. Norris was hostess at the Capital City Club.

Covers were laid for Misses Butters, Caroline Candler, Anne Suttles, Julia Block, Peggy Dutton, Lillian Klein and Mrs. Wright Paulk.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Thornton were hosts at a cocktail party at their home on West Pace's Ferry road complimenting a trio of popular debutantes, Misses Bolling Spalding, Nancy Calhoun and Constance Knowles. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes Spalding and Mrs. Andrew Calhoun assisted in entertaining.

The dining room was decorated with yellow and pink chrysanthemums, and in the dining room the table, overlaid with a Venetian lace cloth, was centered with an old French silver opesne filled with roses, chrysanthemums and snapdragons shading from a rose bronze to a golden yellow.

Mrs. J. O. Wynn entertained yesterday at an "old-fashioned" party at the Piedmont Driving Club honoring Miss Caroline Candler and Miss Julia Block, attractive debutantes.

The dining room of the club where the party was held was transformed into an ante-bellum parlor by use of horse-hair sofas, what-nots, old portraits, fire screens and a gold harp at which a popular harpist, in costume, rendered songs of the past.

The party table, overlaid with a damask cloth, wreathed in smilax, was set with old white and gold china compotes and cake stands, and decorated with pastel flowers. Refreshments of syllabub, eggnog and cake, of old-fashioned variety, were served.

College Night Dance Planned For Friday.

The Delta Sigma Sorority and Club Quadrangle will be hosts at a script dance, December 1, at Peachtree Gardens, from 9:30 until 12:30 o'clock, for the college crowds who will be in Atlanta for the week end to attend the Tech-Georgia game. Unique invitations have been issued announcing the dance to fraternities at Georgia Tech, Emory, University of Georgia, Georgia Evening College, and local fraternities and sororities.

Wiener Roast.

Georgia Alpha chapter of Zeta Beta Chi sorority entertained recently at a wiener roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack B. Cowan on Clairmont road, near Decatur.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Smith, Robert Crouch, Vernie Crow, Mrs. W. F. Richardson, Misses Blossom Dukes, Adelaide Correll, Lorene Carter, Kathleen Rogers, Lillian Renfro, Ann Phillips, Evelyn Howe, Doris Jones, Mrs. Thompson and J. B. Gordon, C. B. DeBellevue, Robert Buchner, Bob Babin, Allen Oliver, A. L. Woodliff and W. E. Platt.

A STERLING PITCHER IS ALWAYS USEFUL!

This statel footed beverage server stands 8 3/4" high and holds 4 1/4 pints. A handsome silver remembrance made by Gorham, priced $45

Halverstad & Latham, Inc. JEWELERS 128 Peachtree—Rhodes-Haverty Bldg.

All Saints Church Group Plans Bazar

Annual All Saints' church bazaar will be held at Eggleston hall, on Wednesday, December 6. There will be entertaining features during the afternoon and dinner will be served at 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock.

Members of the Sarah Hyde Morgan chapter with Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, chairman, will serve a turkey dinner. Many articles of handwork, household furnishings and estates to be sold at nominal prices.

Mrs. Ralph Peters Black, president of Auxiliary-Guild will be general chairman of the bazaar. She will be assisted by the officers: Mesdames Edward S. Lewis, Herbert Reynolds, Robert Crumley, E. P. Carrier, Marion Bleakley.

Booths will be in charge of the church chapters, with the following chairmen: No. 1, Mrs. J. B. F. Herreshoff; No. 4, Mrs. Perry Ballard; St. Cecilia chapter, Mrs. Lawrence J. Meyns, St. Genevieve chapter, Miss Mary Sprigg; Business Women's chapter, Deaconess Wood; Hallie Ellis Rhett, Mrs. C. M. Broome; Nellie Peters Black, Mrs. Scott Thompson; Henrietta Mikkil, Mrs. W. B. Massengale; Sarah Hyde Morgan chapter, Mrs. J. Stanley Moore, chairman.

Society Events

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 28. Mrs. Warren Moise gives a luncheon at her home on Brighton road complimenting Miss Mary Bryan.

Mrs. Carling Dinkler Jr. gives a bridge-luncheon at the Ansley hotel honoring Miss Peggy Dutton, debutante.

Mrs. P. L. Blackshear and Miss Elizabeth Blackshear give a trossau tea honoring Miss Dorothea Blackshear.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Conway give an eggnog party from 8 until 10 o'clock at their home on Wilson road honoring Miss Rebecca Wright, debutante.

Miss Helen Klugh gives a luncheon at the Biltmore hotel for Misses Mary Virginia McConnell, Lillian Klein and Julia Block, debutantes.

Mrs. Marcia Mansfield will entertain at a luncheon honoring Miss Allie Malone, debutante.

Miss Doris Waldrup and Mrs. S. J. Coogler will entertain at a party honoring Miss Josephine Johnston and her fiancé, Robert K. Price.

Miss Grace Hartley entertains the Atlanta Woman's Press Club at 5 o'clock at the Georgian Terrace hotel.

Miss Mary Joyce Papy gives a luncheon at the Atlanta Athletic Club for Miss Hilda Mae Robey, bride-elect, and Mrs. James B. Young, recent bride.

Miss Alice Gray Harrison gives a tea at her home on Golf circle for Mrs. Carl Vanderwerker, who recently moved to Atlanta.

Mrs. Hugo Johnston gives a bridge party at her home on Adams street for Miss Mary Bickerstaff, bride-elect, of Decatur and Athens.

Pilot Club celebrates civic night at the Ansley hotel.

Sacred Heart Chapel Guild gives the annual spaghetti supper at the Sacred Heart school from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock.

Mary Lin P.-T. holds open house 7:30 o'clock, in honor of daddies' night.

May-Jacobs.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ivan May announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Julianne May, to Henry Golwey Jacobs, which was solemnized Thursday evening in the presence of the immediate families in the study of the Covenant Presbyterian church, the Rev. Herman Turner officiating.

S. Baum presents

A Brilliant Selection of EVENING FURS

all this week

featuring

Regal White Ermine and White Fox

Magnificent showing of Evening Furs that you will see at the "Gone With the Wind" Premiere. White ermine in bolero to full length wraps. White fox, sables, mink, silver and blue fox in all their glory.

Fur Salon Second Floor

Regent's Peachtree Store Atlanta

KISS AFTER MIDNIGHT

Christmas Away From Home Or Family Is A Mere Holiday

By Margaret Gorman Nichols

SYNOPSIS. Faith Gardner, orphaned as a child, raised by a cross aunt in a New Hampshire village. She is a stenographer in a factory and when her aunt dies she goes to New York. Lonely, jobless sometimes, after two years she and Gretchen Cole furnish a small apartment. Faith is then a secretary in the firm of which Walter Edmonds is vice president. Gretchen, who left an Ohio town after a shattered romance, is a stylist in a big store. Greg Heath, employed by Edmonds firm, takes her to a cocktail party given by Edmonds' wife Astrid. She grows Faith's hair and Faith feels she has met an enemy as dangerous as she is beautiful. Walter presents her to Franz Braggonier, musician and composer, whom Astrid met in Hawaii. She loves Franz and secretly plans to divorce Walter. Even before Faith meets Carl Edmonds, Walter's brother and a famous aviator and engineer, she is in love with him. As she leaves, the Edmonds' pretty, headstrong, 18-year-old daughter Sue meets her, saying she has run away from school again. Sue likes Faith and her suggestion Walter makes her his secretary. He asks her to win Sue's confidence so she can suggest to deal with her. Philip Turner, who drinks too much but is charming when sober, becomes interested in Gretchen. Faith despairs when Carl says he will never marry because of his hazardous mode of living. Sue stays overnight with Faith after a date with Michael Britton. Astrid suddenly sees in Faith the answer to her problem of getting rid of Walter. Michael phones Sue asking for a loan of $50. Carl takes Faith to the Fields' party. Linda, Steve Field's wife, tells Faith she was in love with Carl and asks if he loves her. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

INSTALLMENT XVII

Asked about him, Gretchen always said, "He's charming and he's stopped drinking altogether." Don't she know, Faith wondered, or wouldn't she admit that Philip had stopped drinking because he loved her?

The night of the winter's first snowfall Greg stopped in unannounced. Gretchen was working and Faith, changing from her usual tailored business frock to a warm blue robe, had prepared herself for a quiet evening at home. Evenings at home had never been quite so lonely as they were now—since she had known Carl.

Greg settled his 200 pounds in the most comfortable chair, pushed back a forelock of sandy hair and said, "I just took a chance you'd be in as I was driving by."

"I'm glad you came, Greg," Poor Greg... How unfair it was that one man had so much magnetism, another none...

They talked away casually of the things they had always talked about until Greg moved restlessly, looked at her as she sat in a pool of light from the table lamp and said, "Faith, I've played away because... well, because of Carl. No trespassing, you know. All that. The last time I called, Gretchen told me you were with him. I could guess the rest. True, isn't it?"

"You mean—am I in love with him?" Say it! Deny it neither to your heart nor to your friends—only to Carl himself...

"Yes, Greg. I am. You tried to warn me. I know. I love Carl and I had never loved any one before."

He smiled. "Not me. I knew that. But I... well, no use going into that now." He took a deep breath. "I saw Carl a couple of nights ago with a girl I didn't know, a stunning girl. You wouldn't kid yourself, would you, Faith?"

She shook her head. "He won't let me."

"You don't think I'm low for telling you, I hope."

"No. I appreciate the gesture, Greg. I know about Carl. I know it all too well."

"It's a bad break..."

"A year from now I may be able to answer that." She smiled. "I've been learning things and I know that love is both the greatest happiness and the greatest unhappiness you ever know. But I don't believe any girl regrets love—even if she loses." She sat up. "Have you had dinner? If you haven't, I'll get something for you."

"Thanks, but I've got to meet Pete at the station." Pete was the young man with whom he shared an apartment. "I had only a few minutes..."

When he left, she wondered if he would ever come again.

Christmas is merely a one-day

holiday for those who have no home and no families to which to return. Gretchen's parents were dead and though she had brothers and sisters, she said of them, "And if I went home for Christmas, they'd gush over me and stare at me so I'd feel they knew how many fillings I have in my teeth, and just before I left they'd try to borrow money from me—which they would never pay back."

Faith longed for a distant home to which to go and for faces that loved her.

But most of all, as she walked home from the office on Christmas Eve among the thick holiday crowds, she longed not for a gift but for a man's voice on the telephone. For days now her heart had felt as if it had been drained of its longing. How long, Carl? Never again?

When she reached the lobby of the apartment house she saw Sue, wearing a squirrel jacket over a green frock and a saucy green felt hat with a feather. Sue held a package wrapped in Christmas tissue about which she had scribbled over the telephone that morning. "I'll bring it tonight because we're going to Boston in the morning early."

In the apartment Sue pulled off her hat and sank into a chair. When Faith came out of the bedroom with Sue's gift, she saw that Sue's face, animated a moment before, looked pinched and forlorn.

"Thanks," she said when Faith gave her the package that contained gay lounging pajamas which seemed made for her as they had been exhibited in a shop window. "I won't open it until tomorrow. I never do. And I can't stay long, Faith. I have to be back for dinner." Then, after a moment's hesitation...

"But he's moved and... and no one could tell me where..." "I'm sorry, Sue." She must not show her profound relief. "We'll have a lovely time in Florida and you'll meet lots of boys."

"But no one like Michael." Gamblers move often, Faith thought. But Walter had not told Sue about Michael's father, not wanting to disillusion her more. Nor had he told her that her mother knew about Michael.

"Sue, is Carl going to Boston, too?"

Reaching for her green hat... "I don't know. Mother doesn't want to go, but we go every year. It's a sort of family reunion thing."

She stopped still and her eyes and the deep blue of Carl's when she asked, "You love him, don't you, Faith? I mean to ask you before, but I've had so many things to think about." She smiled. "That makes me happy..."

Faith put her arm around her. "You mustn't let it make you too happy. Because he isn't in love with me. I'm getting late and they'll be wondering where you are..." She couldn't discuss Carl with Sue...

Gretchen came home and they trimmed a small tree and talked until midnight. Philip was taking them to dinner tomorrow before

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

Christmas is merely a one-day

he went down to Baltimore, Gretchen said.

Awakened by the ringing of the bell in the morning, Faith put on her robe quickly and went to the door. A messenger boy with an enormous basket of flowers grinned at her. When she brought them in, she reached for a card. Finding it, slipping it out of the tiny envelope, she saw merely, "Carl," written in a large, bold scrawl.

From the next room Gretchen asked, "Who is it, Faith?"

"No one. Flowers for me."

"Carl?"

"Yes."

"Then he didn't forget."

No, he had not forgotten. And her heart had not been drained of its longing. Standing there quietly, the visualization of him was so clear that it was as if Carl stood there, frowning the beloved frown, smiling the beloved smile, speaking to her in the clear, deep tones. She did not know where he was, but she wanted him more achingly than she had ever wanted him as she looked at the flowers he had sent her.

She would never get enough of looking at him now across a white-clothed table in a dim place where mellow music once again enclosed them. He was not looking at her but at a tall, honey-haired girl standing alone in the spotlight, singing a popular song. He seemed both interested and amused, his mouth curving slightly.

Faith thought, "I can look at you now and let my eyes tell me the glamour of lovely places like this to remember and to compare always with places to come which will be dull because you will not be with me. How long will I be the girl of the moment?"

The song over, he turned and looked at her. She wore a short-sleeved black dress trimmed only with a white frill at the throat and another absurd little black hat, the tiny veil thrown back.

Carl said, smiling, "Do you know what you are, Faith? You're the girl on the stage whom every man in the audience wants. You're a girl in a book who is never found in life. And to many men, I'll bet, you're a girl on a Fifth Avenue bus seen for a moment, desired and then lost forever."

"Do I seem as unapproachable as that?"

Continued Tomorrow. Copyright 1939

High's THE J. M. HIGH CO.

Just Arrived

NEW 1940 5-Tube

R. C. A. Licensed

UNIVERSAL

RADIO

Reg. $10.95! $7.99

For Limited Time Only...

THE WORLD'S GREATEST ADDING MACHINE VALUE!

Modern design, portable, VISIBLE DIALS, patented automatic clear signal and all operating conveniences. We take your old adding machine or typewriter in trade. You pay the difference in easy monthly installments.

DURRETT TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE

65 Pryor St., S. W. On the Viaduct. MA 297.

• A. C. or D. C. • Walnut Bakelite Cabinet • Current • Dynamic • Speaker • Illuminated Dial • For Bedroom, Kitchen, Den

Just arrived... In time for Christmas gift giving! $1 will hold your purchase for Christmas... even at this special price! RADIOS—FOURTH FLOOR

JUST NUTS

EXCUSE ME, I'VE LOST MY OUTFITTING WHEREABOUTS ON THE COULD YOU SECOND FLOOR SIR!

Solution to Yesterday's Puzzle.

STRATUS SEMITES

STURINE MURVIVE

ALIENOR LITERAL

TANS DEMIT RASE

IRA TENONS DIN

CITEE IDE CHEVE

SERRATE PHASE

RELY ARAB

GREYE PRESIDE

TRADE LAR STEMS

RED SILENE FIT

ANTL CAUSEWMA

CAUCUMEN HATNER

GYAMINE EVIDENT

DELETES DEVESTS

THE GUMPS

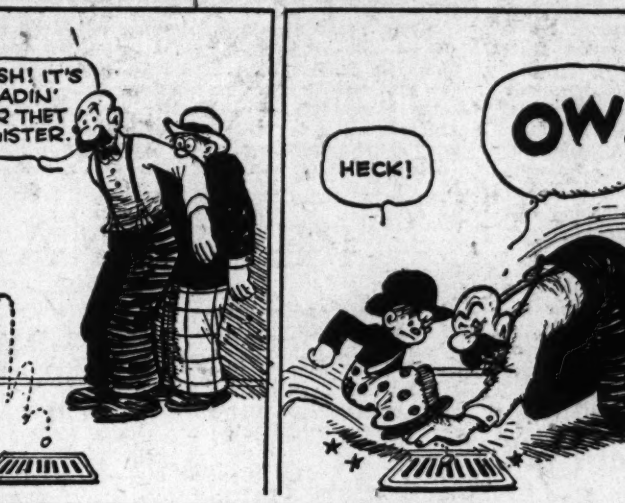

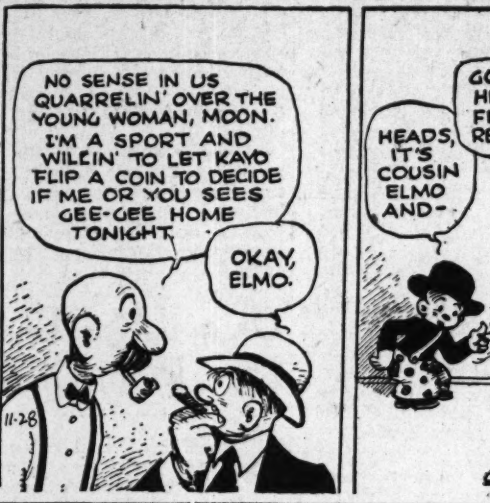

Mama Bear Is Angry With Daddy Bear

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

Dead End Boys

MOON MULLINS

The Fast Stepper

DICK TRACY

Time Marches On

JANE ARDEN—By Monte Barrett and Russell Ross

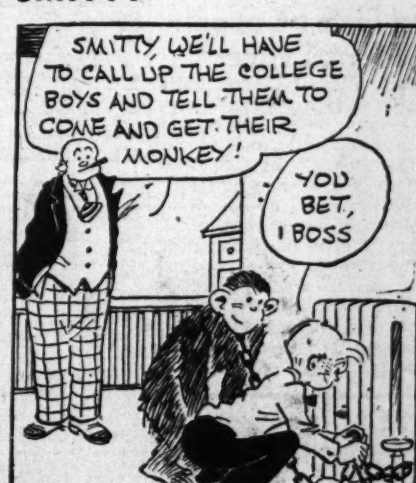

Three's a Crowd

TODAY'S CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

- ACROSS.
- Model.
 - Parting to an absolute monarch.
 - Vituperative.
 - Embassy member.
 - Prolonged debate.
 - Plunderers.
 - Mahometan title.
 - Wrap up.
 - Abyss.
 - At a distance: poet.
 - Substantial.
 - Prima donna.
 - Wrath.
 - Small guitar; colloq.
 - Small plane surface.
 - Groups of lines in a sonnet.
 - Scintillate.
 - Final.
 - Indisposed.
 - Rogues.
 - Injuries.
 - Harmony.
 - Social function.
 - Literary postscript.
 - Sears; Fr.
 - Standards.
 - Jewels.
 - In favor of.
 - Attics.
 - Musical sign.
 - Applaud.
 - Planet.
 - Accept.
 - Pantaloon.
 - Jogged.
- DOWN.
- Tropical fruits.
 - Gastropod mollusk.
 - Decisions.
 - Masculine name.
 - Donate.
 - Baking compartments.
 - Excitable.
 - Benches.
 - Scores.
 - Bore.
 - At the summit.
 - Rotent.
 - Chipping implement.
 - Wither.
 - Having left a name.
 - Waipiti.
 - Discovers.
 - Dearly beloved.
 - Return.
 - Fake.
 - 32 Sesame.
 - Pastry.
 - Bulwark.
 - One who levies pecuniary punishment.
 - Mediteranean wind.
 - Raged.
 - Rues.
 - Excessive indulgence.
 - Chosen one.
 - Female relatives.
 - Blunder.
 - Unsophisticated.
 - Cubic meter.
 - Pace.
 - Mark.
 - Permit.
 - Mild rebuke.

SMITTY

An Unbreakable Friendship

JASPER By Frank Owen

Transactions 518,330

N. Y. Stock Market

Nov. 27, 1933

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Following is the tabulation of today's stock transactions on the New York Stock Exchange:	NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Following are today's high, low and closing prices on the New York Stock Exchange:
<table><tr><th>Div.</th><th>High</th><th>Low</th><th>Close</th></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 1/2</td><td>10 1/2</td><td>10 1/4</td><td>10 1/4</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 3/4</td><td>10 3/4</td><td>10 1/2</td><td>10 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 1</td><td>11 1/4</td><td>11 1/2</td><td>11 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 1 1/4</td><td>12 1/4</td><td>12 1/2</td><td>12 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 1 1/2</td><td>13 1/4</td><td>13 1/2</td><td>13 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 1 3/4</td><td>14 1/4</td><td>14 1/2</td><td>14 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 2</td><td>15 1/4</td><td>15 1/2</td><td>15 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 2 1/4</td><td>16 1/4</td><td>16 1/2</td><td>16 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 2 1/2</td><td>17 1/4</td><td>17 1/2</td><td>17 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 2 3/4</td><td>18 1/4</td><td>18 1/2</td><td>18 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 3</td><td>19 1/4</td><td>19 1/2</td><td>19 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 3 1/4</td><td>20 1/4</td><td>20 1/2</td><td>20 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 3 1/2</td><td>21 1/4</td><td>21 1/2</td><td>21 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 3 3/4</td><td>22 1/4</td><td>22 1/2</td><td>22 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 4</td><td>23 1/4</td><td>23 1/2</td><td>23 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 4 1/4</td><td>24 1/4</td><td>24 1/2</td><td>24 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 4 1/2</td><td>25 1/4</td><td>25 1/2</td><td>25 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 4 3/4</td><td>26 1/4</td><td>26 1/2</td><td>26 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 5</td><td>27 1/4</td><td>27 1/2</td><td>27 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 5 1/4</td><td>28 1/4</td><td>28 1/2</td><td>28 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 5 1/2</td><td>29 1/4</td><td>29 1/2</td><td>29 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 5 3/4</td><td>30 1/4</td><td>30 1/2</td><td>30 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 6</td><td>31 1/4</td><td>31 1/2</td><td>31 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 6 1/4</td><td>32 1/4</td><td>32 1/2</td><td>32 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 6 1/2</td><td>33 1/4</td><td>33 1/2</td><td>33 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 6 3/4</td><td>34 1/4</td><td>34 1/2</td><td>34 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 7</td><td>35 1/4</td><td>35 1/2</td><td>35 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 7 1/4</td><td>36 1/4</td><td>36 1/2</td><td>36 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 7 1/2</td><td>37 1/4</td><td>37 1/2</td><td>37 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 7 3/4</td><td>38 1/4</td><td>38 1/2</td><td>38 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 8</td><td>39 1/4</td><td>39 1/2</td><td>39 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 8 1/4</td><td>40 1/4</td><td>40 1/2</td><td>40 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 8 1/2</td><td>41 1/4</td><td>41 1/2</td><td>41 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 8 3/4</td><td>42 1/4</td><td>42 1/2</td><td>42 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 9</td><td>43 1/4</td><td>43 1/2</td><td>43 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 9 1/4</td><td>44 1/4</td><td>44 1/2</td><td>44 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 9 1/2</td><td>45 1/4</td><td>45 1/2</td><td>45 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 9 3/4</td><td>46 1/4</td><td>46 1/2</td><td>46 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 10</td><td>47 1/4</td><td>47 1/2</td><td>47 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 10 1/4</td><td>48 1/4</td><td>48 1/2</td><td>48 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 10 1/2</td><td>49 1/4</td><td>49 1/2</td><td>49 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 10 3/4</td><td>50 1/4</td><td>50 1/2</td><td>50 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 11</td><td>51 1/4</td><td>51 1/2</td><td>51 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 11 1/4</td><td>52 1/4</td><td>52 1/2</td><td>52 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 11 1/2</td><td>53 1/4</td><td>53 1/2</td><td>53 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 11 3/4</td><td>54 1/4</td><td>54 1/2</td><td>54 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 12</td><td>55 1/4</td><td>55 1/2</td><td>55 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 12 1/4</td><td>56 1/4</td><td>56 1/2</td><td>56 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 12 1/2</td><td>57 1/4</td><td>57 1/2</td><td>57 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 12 3/4</td><td>58 1/4</td><td>58 1/2</td><td>58 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 13</td><td>59 1/4</td><td>59 1/2</td><td>59 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 13 1/4</td><td>60 1/4</td><td>60 1/2</td><td>60 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 13 1/2</td><td>61 1/4</td><td>61 1/2</td><td>61 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 13 3/4</td><td>62 1/4</td><td>62 1/2</td><td>62 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 14</td><td>63 1/4</td><td>63 1/2</td><td>63 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 14 1/4</td><td>64 1/4</td><td>64 1/2</td><td>64 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 14 1/2</td><td>65 1/4</td><td>65 1/2</td><td>65 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 14 3/4</td><td>66 1/4</td><td>66 1/2</td><td>66 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 15</td><td>67 1/4</td><td>67 1/2</td><td>67 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 15 1/4</td><td>68 1/4</td><td>68 1/2</td><td>68 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 15 1/2</td><td>69 1/4</td><td>69 1/2</td><td>69 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 15 3/4</td><td>70 1/4</td><td>70 1/2</td><td>70 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 16</td><td>71 1/4</td><td>71 1/2</td><td>71 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 16 1/4</td><td>72 1/4</td><td>72 1/2</td><td>72 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 16 1/2</td><td>73 1/4</td><td>73 1/2</td><td>73 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 16 3/4</td><td>74 1/4</td><td>74 1/2</td><td>74 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 17</td><td>75 1/4</td><td>75 1/2</td><td>75 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 17 1/4</td><td>76 1/4</td><td>76 1/2</td><td>76 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 17 1/2</td><td>77 1/4</td><td>77 1/2</td><td>77 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 17 3/4</td><td>78 1/4</td><td>78 1/2</td><td>78 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 18</td><td>79 1/4</td><td>79 1/2</td><td>79 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 18 1/4</td><td>80 1/4</td><td>80 1/2</td><td>80 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 18 1/2</td><td>81 1/4</td><td>81 1/2</td><td>81 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 18 3/4</td><td>82 1/4</td><td>82 1/2</td><td>82 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 19</td><td>83 1/4</td><td>83 1/2</td><td>83 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 19 1/4</td><td>84 1/4</td><td>84 1/2</td><td>84 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 19 1/2</td><td>85 1/4</td><td>85 1/2</td><td>85 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 19 3/4</td><td>86 1/4</td><td>86 1/2</td><td>86 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 20</td><td>87 1/4</td><td>87 1/2</td><td>87 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 20 1/4</td><td>88 1/4</td><td>88 1/2</td><td>88 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 20 1/2</td><td>89 1/4</td><td>89 1/2</td><td>89 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 20 3/4</td><td>90 1/4</td><td>90 1/2</td><td>90 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 21</td><td>91 1/4</td><td>91 1/2</td><td>91 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 21 1/4</td><td>92 1/4</td><td>92 1/2</td><td>92 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 21 1/2</td><td>93 1/4</td><td>93 1/2</td><td>93 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 21 3/4</td><td>94 1/4</td><td>94 1/2</td><td>94 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 22</td><td>95 1/4</td><td>95 1/2</td><td>95 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 22 1/4</td><td>96 1/4</td><td>96 1/2</td><td>96 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 22 1/2</td><td>97 1/4</td><td>97 1/2</td><td>97 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 22 3/4</td><td>98 1/4</td><td>98 1/2</td><td>98 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 23</td><td>99 1/4</td><td>99 1/2</td><td>99 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 23 1/4</td><td>100 1/4</td><td>100 1/2</td><td>100 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 23 1/2</td><td>101 1/4</td><td>101 1/2</td><td>101 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 23 3/4</td><td>102 1/4</td><td>102 1/2</td><td>102 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 24</td><td>103 1/4</td><td>103 1/2</td><td>103 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 24 1/4</td><td>104 1/4</td><td>104 1/2</td><td>104 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 24 1/2</td><td>105 1/4</td><td>105 1/2</td><td>105 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 24 3/4</td><td>106 1/4</td><td>106 1/2</td><td>106 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 25</td><td>107 1/4</td><td>107 1/2</td><td>107 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 25 1/4</td><td>108 1/4</td><td>108 1/2</td><td>108 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 25 1/2</td><td>109 1/4</td><td>109 1/2</td><td>109 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 25 3/4</td><td>110 1/4</td><td>110 1/2</td><td>110 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 26</td><td>111 1/4</td><td>111 1/2</td><td>111 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 26 1/4</td><td>112 1/4</td><td>112 1/2</td><td>112 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 26 1/2</td><td>113 1/4</td><td>113 1/2</td><td>113 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 26 3/4</td><td>114 1/4</td><td>114 1/2</td><td>114 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 27</td><td>115 1/4</td><td>115 1/2</td><td>115 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 27 1/4</td><td>116 1/4</td><td>116 1/2</td><td>116 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 27 1/2</td><td>117 1/4</td><td>117 1/2</td><td>117 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 27 3/4</td><td>118 1/4</td><td>118 1/2</td><td>118 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 28</td><td>119 1/4</td><td>119 1/2</td><td>119 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 28 1/4</td><td>120 1/4</td><td>120 1/2</td><td>120 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 28 1/2</td><td>121 1/4</td><td>121 1/2</td><td>121 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 28 3/4</td><td>122 1/4</td><td>122 1/2</td><td>122 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 29</td><td>123 1/4</td><td>123 1/2</td><td>123 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 29 1/4</td><td>124 1/4</td><td>124 1/2</td><td>124 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 29 1/2</td><td>125 1/4</td><td>125 1/2</td><td>125 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 29 3/4</td><td>126 1/4</td><td>126 1/2</td><td>126 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 30</td><td>127 1/4</td><td>127 1/2</td><td>127 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 30 1/4</td><td>128 1/4</td><td>128 1/2</td><td>128 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 30 1/2</td><td>129 1/4</td><td>129 1/2</td><td>129 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 30 3/4</td><td>130 1/4</td><td>130 1/2</td><td>130 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 31</td><td>131 1/4</td><td>131 1/2</td><td>131 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 31 1/4</td><td>132 1/4</td><td>132 1/2</td><td>132 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 31 1/2</td><td>133 1/4</td><td>133 1/2</td><td>133 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 31 3/4</td><td>134 1/4</td><td>134 1/2</td><td>134 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 32</td><td>135 1/4</td><td>135 1/2</td><td>135 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 32 1/4</td><td>136 1/4</td><td>136 1/2</td><td>136 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 32 1/2</td><td>137 1/4</td><td>137 1/2</td><td>137 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 32 3/4</td><td>138 1/4</td><td>138 1/2</td><td>138 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 33</td><td>139 1/4</td><td>139 1/2</td><td>139 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 33 1/4</td><td>140 1/4</td><td>140 1/2</td><td>140 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 33 1/2</td><td>141 1/4</td><td>141 1/2</td><td>141 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 33 3/4</td><td>142 1/4</td><td>142 1/2</td><td>142 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 34</td><td>143 1/4</td><td>143 1/2</td><td>143 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 34 1/4</td><td>144 1/4</td><td>144 1/2</td><td>144 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 34 1/2</td><td>145 1/4</td><td>145 1/2</td><td>145 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 34 3/4</td><td>146 1/4</td><td>146 1/2</td><td>146 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 35</td><td>147 1/4</td><td>147 1/2</td><td>147 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 35 1/4</td><td>148 1/4</td><td>148 1/2</td><td>148 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 35 1/2</td><td>149 1/4</td><td>149 1/2</td><td>149 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 35 3/4</td><td>150 1/4</td><td>150 1/2</td><td>150 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 36</td><td>151 1/4</td><td>151 1/2</td><td>151 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 36 1/4</td><td>152 1/4</td><td>152 1/2</td><td>152 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 36 1/2</td><td>153 1/4</td><td>153 1/2</td><td>153 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 36 3/4</td><td>154 1/4</td><td>154 1/2</td><td>154 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 37</td><td>155 1/4</td><td>155 1/2</td><td>155 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 37 1/4</td><td>156 1/4</td><td>156 1/2</td><td>156 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 37 1/2</td><td>157 1/4</td><td>157 1/2</td><td>157 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 37 3/4</td><td>158 1/4</td><td>158 1/2</td><td>158 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 38</td><td>159 1/4</td><td>159 1/2</td><td>159 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 38 1/4</td><td>160 1/4</td><td>160 1/2</td><td>160 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 38 1/2</td><td>161 1/4</td><td>161 1/2</td><td>161 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 38 3/4</td><td>162 1/4</td><td>162 1/2</td><td>162 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 39</td><td>163 1/4</td><td>163 1/2</td><td>163 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 39 1/4</td><td>164 1/4</td><td>164 1/2</td><td>164 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 39 1/2</td><td>165 1/4</td><td>165 1/2</td><td>165 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 39 3/4</td><td>166 1/4</td><td>166 1/2</td><td>166 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 40</td><td>167 1/4</td><td>167 1/2</td><td>167 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 40 1/4</td><td>168 1/4</td><td>168 1/2</td><td>168 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 40 1/2</td><td>169 1/4</td><td>169 1/2</td><td>169 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 40 3/4</td><td>170 1/4</td><td>170 1/2</td><td>170 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 41</td><td>171 1/4</td><td>171 1/2</td><td>171 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 41 1/4</td><td>172 1/4</td><td>172 1/2</td><td>172 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 41 1/2</td><td>173 1/4</td><td>173 1/2</td><td>173 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 41 3/4</td><td>174 1/4</td><td>174 1/2</td><td>174 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 42</td><td>175 1/4</td><td>175 1/2</td><td>175 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 42 1/4</td><td>176 1/4</td><td>176 1/2</td><td>176 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 42 1/2</td><td>177 1/4</td><td>177 1/2</td><td>177 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 42 3/4</td><td>178 1/4</td><td>178 1/2</td><td>178 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 43</td><td>179 1/4</td><td>179 1/2</td><td>179 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 43 1/4</td><td>180 1/4</td><td>180 1/2</td><td>180 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 43 1/2</td><td>181 1/4</td><td>181 1/2</td><td>181 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 43 3/4</td><td>182 1/4</td><td>182 1/2</td><td>182 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 44</td><td>183 1/4</td><td>183 1/2</td><td>183 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 44 1/4</td><td>184 1/4</td><td>184 1/2</td><td>184 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 44 1/2</td><td>185 1/4</td><td>185 1/2</td><td>185 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 44 3/4</td><td>186 1/4</td><td>186 1/2</td><td>186 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 45</td><td>187 1/4</td><td>187 1/2</td><td>187 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 45 1/4</td><td>188 1/4</td><td>188 1/2</td><td>188 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 45 1/2</td><td>189 1/4</td><td>189 1/2</td><td>189 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 45 3/4</td><td>190 1/4</td><td>190 1/2</td><td>190 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 46</td><td>191 1/4</td><td>191 1/2</td><td>191 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 46 1/4</td><td>192 1/4</td><td>192 1/2</td><td>192 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 46 1/2</td><td>193 1/4</td><td>193 1/2</td><td>193 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 46 3/4</td><td>194 1/4</td><td>194 1/2</td><td>194 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 47</td><td>195 1/4</td><td>195 1/2</td><td>195 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 47 1/4</td><td>196 1/4</td><td>196 1/2</td><td>196 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 47 1/2</td><td>197 1/4</td><td>197 1/2</td><td>197 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 47 3/4</td><td>198 1/4</td><td>198 1/2</td><td>198 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 48</td><td>199 1/4</td><td>199 1/2</td><td>199 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 48 1/4</td><td>200 1/4</td><td>200 1/2</td><td>200 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 48 1/2</td><td>201 1/4</td><td>201 1/2</td><td>201 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 48 3/4</td><td>202 1/4</td><td>202 1/2</td><td>202 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 49</td><td>203 1/4</td><td>203 1/2</td><td>203 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 49 1/4</td><td>204 1/4</td><td>204 1/2</td><td>204 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 49 1/2</td><td>205 1/4</td><td>205 1/2</td><td>205 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 49 3/4</td><td>206 1/4</td><td>206 1/2</td><td>206 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 50</td><td>207 1/4</td><td>207 1/2</td><td>207 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 50 1/4</td><td>208 1/4</td><td>208 1/2</td><td>208 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 50 1/2</td><td>209 1/4</td><td>209 1/2</td><td>209 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 50 3/4</td><td>210 1/4</td><td>210 1/2</td><td>210 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 51</td><td>211 1/4</td><td>211 1/2</td><td>211 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 51 1/4</td><td>212 1/4</td><td>212 1/2</td><td>212 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 51 1/2</td><td>213 1/4</td><td>213 1/2</td><td>213 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 51 3/4</td><td>214 1/4</td><td>214 1/2</td><td>214 1/2</td></tr><tr><td>30 Am. & W. 52</td></tr></table>	Div.	High	Low	Close	30 Am. & W. 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/4	30 Am. & W. 3/4	10 3/4	10 1/2	10 1/2	30 Am. & W. 1	11 1/4	11 1/2	11 1/2	30 Am. & W. 1 1/4	12 1/4	12 1/2	12 1/2	30 Am. & W. 1 1/2	13 1/4	13 1/2	13 1/2	30 Am. & W. 1 3/4	14 1/4	14 1/2	14 1/2	30 Am. & W. 2	15 1/4	15 1/2	15 1/2	30 Am. & W. 2 1/4	16 1/4	16 1/2	16 1/2	30 Am. & W. 2 1/2	17 1/4	17 1/2	17 1/2	30 Am. & W. 2 3/4	18 1/4	18 1/2	18 1/2	30 Am. & W. 3	19 1/4	19 1/2	19 1/2	30 Am. & W. 3 1/4	20 1/4	20 1/2	20 1/2	30 Am. & W. 3 1/2	21 1/4	21 1/2	21 1/2	30 Am. & W. 3 3/4	22 1/4	22 1/2	22 1/2	30 Am. & W. 4	23 1/4	23 1/2	23 1/2	30 Am. & W. 4 1/4	24 1/4	24 1/2	24 1/2	30 Am. & W. 4 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/2	25 1/2	30 Am. & W. 4 3/4	26 1/4	26 1/2	26 1/2	30 Am. & W. 5	27 1/4	27 1/2	27 1/2	30 Am. & W. 5 1/4	28 1/4	28 1/2	28 1/2	30 Am. & W. 5 1/2	29 1/4	29 1/2	29 1/2	30 Am. & W. 5 3/4	30 1/4	30 1/2	30 1/2	30 Am. & W. 6	31 1/4	31 1/2	31 1/2	30 Am. & W. 6 1/4	32 1/4	32 1/2	32 1/2	30 Am. & W. 6 1/2	33 1/4	33 1/2	33 1/2	30 Am. & W. 6 3/4	34 1/4	34 1/2	34 1/2	30 Am. & W. 7	35 1/4	35 1/2	35 1/2	30 Am. & W. 7 1/4	36 1/4	36 1/2	36 1/2	30 Am. & W. 7 1/2	37 1/4	37 1/2	37 1/2	30 Am. & W. 7 3/4	38 1/4	38 1/2	38 1/2	30 Am. & W. 8	39 1/4	39 1/2	39 1/2	30 Am. & W. 8 1/4	40 1/4	40 1/2	40 1/2	30 Am. & W. 8 1/2	41 1/4	41 1/2	41 1/2	30 Am. & W. 8 3/4	42 1/4	42 1/2	42 1/2	30 Am. & W. 9	43 1/4	43 1/2	43 1/2	30 Am. & W. 9 1/4	44 1/4	44 1/2	44 1/2	30 Am. & W. 9 1/2	45 1/4	45 1/2	45 1/2	30 Am. & W. 9 3/4	46 1/4	46 1/2	46 1/2	30 Am. & W. 10	47 1/4	47 1/2	47 1/2	30 Am. & W. 10 1/4	48 1/4	48 1/2	48 1/2	30 Am. & W. 10 1/2	49 1/4	49 1/2	49 1/2	30 Am. & W. 10 3/4	50 1/4	50 1/2	50 1/2	30 Am. & W. 11	51 1/4	51 1/2	51 1/2	30 Am. & W. 11 1/4	52 1/4	52 1/2	52 1/2	30 Am. & W. 11 1/2	53 1/4	53 1/2	53 1/2	30 Am. & W. 11 3/4	54 1/4	54 1/2	54 1/2	30 Am. & W. 12	55 1/4	55 1/2	55 1/2	30 Am. & W. 12 1/4	56 1/4	56 1/2	56 1/2	30 Am. & W. 12 1/2	57 1/4	57 1/2	57 1/2	30 Am. & W. 12 3/4	58 1/4	58 1/2	58 1/2	30 Am. & W. 13	59 1/4	59 1/2	59 1/2	30 Am. & W. 13 1/4	60 1/4	60 1/2	60 1/2	30 Am. & W. 13 1/2	61 1/4	61 1/2	61 1/2	30 Am. & W. 13 3/4	62 1/4	62 1/2	62 1/2	30 Am. & W. 14	63 1/4	63 1/2	63 1/2	30 Am. & W. 14 1/4	64 1/4	64 1/2	64 1/2	30 Am. & W. 14 1/2	65 1/4	65 1/2	65 1/2	30 Am. & W. 14 3/4	66 1/4	66 1/2	66 1/2	30 Am. & W. 15	67 1/4	67 1/2	67 1/2	30 Am. & W. 15 1/4	68 1/4	68 1/2	68 1/2	30 Am. & W. 15 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2	69 1/2	30 Am. & W. 15 3/4	70 1/4	70 1/2	70 1/2	30 Am. & W. 16	71 1/4	71 1/2	71 1/2	30 Am. & W. 16 1/4	72 1/4	72 1/2	72 1/2	30 Am. & W. 16 1/2	73 1/4	73 1/2	73 1/2	30 Am. & W. 16 3/4	74 1/4	74 1/2	74 1/2	30 Am. & W. 17	75 1/4	75 1/2	75 1/2	30 Am. & W. 17 1/4	76 1/4	76 1/2	76 1/2	30 Am. & W. 17 1/2	77 1/4	77 1/2	77 1/2	30 Am. & W. 17 3/4	78 1/4	78 1/2	78 1/2	30 Am. & W. 18	79 1/4	79 1/2	79 1/2	30 Am. & W. 18 1/4	80 1/4	80 1/2	80 1/2	30 Am. & W. 18 1/2	81 1/4	81 1/2	81 1/2	30 Am. & W. 18 3/4	82 1/4	82 1/2	82 1/2	30 Am. & W. 19	83 1/4	83 1/2	83 1/2	30 Am. & W. 19 1/4	84 1/4	84 1/2	84 1/2	30 Am. & W. 19 1/2	85 1/4	85 1/2	85 1/2	30 Am. & W. 19 3/4	86 1/4	86 1/2	86 1/2	30 Am. & W. 20	87 1/4	87 1/2	87 1/2	30 Am. & W. 20 1/4	88 1/4	88 1/2	88 1/2	30 Am. & W. 20 1/2	89 1/4	89 1/2	89 1/2	30 Am. & W. 20 3/4	90 1/4	90 1/2	90 1/2	30 Am. & W. 21	91 1/4	91 1/2	91 1/2	30 Am. & W. 21 1/4	92 1/4	92 1/2	92 1/2	30 Am. & W. 21 1/2	93 1/4	93 1/2	93 1/2	30 Am. & W. 21 3/4	94 1/4	94 1/2	94 1/2	30 Am. & W. 22	95 1/4	95 1/2	95 1/2	30 Am. & W. 22 1/4	96 1/4	96 1/2	96 1/2	30 Am. & W. 22 1/2	97 1/4	97 1/2	97 1/2	30 Am. & W. 22 3/4	98 1/4	98 1/2	98 1/2	30 Am. & W. 23	99 1/4	99 1/2	99 1/2	30 Am. & W. 23 1/4	100 1/4	100 1/2	100 1/2	30 Am. & W. 23 1/2	101 1/4	101 1/2	101 1/2	30 Am. & W. 23 3/4	102 1/4	102 1/2	102 1/2	30 Am. & W. 24	103 1/4	103 1/2	103 1/2	30 Am. & W. 24 1/4	104 1/4	104 1/2	104 1/2	30 Am. & W. 24 1/2	105 1/4	105 1/2	105 1/2	30 Am. & W. 24 3/4	106 1/4	106 1/2	106 1/2	30 Am. & W. 25	107 1/4	107 1/2	107 1/2	30 Am. & W. 25 1/4	108 1/4	108 1/2	108 1/2	30 Am. & W. 25 1/2	109 1/4	109 1/2	109 1/2	30 Am. & W. 25 3/4	110 1/4	110 1/2	110 1/2	30 Am. & W. 26	111 1/4	111 1/2	111 1/2	30 Am. & W. 26 1/4	112 1/4	112 1/2	112 1/2	30 Am. & W. 26 1/2	113 1/4	113 1/2	113 1/2	30 Am. & W. 26 3/4	114 1/4	114 1/2	114 1/2	30 Am. & W. 27	115 1/4	115 1/2	115 1/2	30 Am. & W. 27 1/4	116 1/4	116 1/2	116 1/2	30 Am. & W. 27 1/2	117 1/4	117 1/2	117 1/2	30 Am. & W. 27 3/4	118 1/4	118 1/2	118 1/2	30 Am. & W. 28	119 1/4	119 1/2	119 1/2	30 Am. & W. 28 1/4	120 1/4	120 1/2	120 1/2	30 Am. & W. 28 1/2	121 1/4	121 1/2	121 1/2	30 Am. & W. 28 3/4	122 1/4	122 1/2	122 1/2	30 Am. & W. 29	123 1/4	123 1/2	123 1/2	30 Am. & W. 29 1/4	124 1/4	124 1/2	124 1/2	30 Am. & W. 29 1/2	125 1/4	125 1/2	125 1/2	30 Am. & W. 29 3/4	126 1/4	126 1/2	126 1/2	30 Am. & W. 30	127 1/4	127 1/2	127 1/2	30 Am. & W. 30 1/4	128 1/4	128 1/2	128 1/2	30 Am. & W. 30 1/2	129 1/4	129 1/2	129 1/2	30 Am. & W. 30 3/4	130 1/4	130 1/2	130 1/2	30 Am. & W. 31	131 1/4	131 1/2	131 1/2	30 Am. & W. 31 1/4	132 1/4	132 1/2	132 1/2	30 Am. & W. 31 1/2	133 1/4	133 1/2	133 1/2	30 Am. & W. 31 3/4	134 1/4	134 1/2	134 1/2	30 Am. & W. 32	135 1/4	135 1/2	135 1/2	30 Am. & W. 32 1/4	136 1/4	136 1/2	136 1/2	30 Am. & W. 32 1/2	137 1/4	137 1/2	137 1/2	30 Am. & W. 32 3/4	138 1/4	138 1/2	138 1/2	30 Am. & W. 33	139 1/4	139 1/2	139 1/2	30 Am. & W. 33 1/4	140 1/4	140 1/2	140 1/2	30 Am. & W. 33 1/2	141 1/4	141 1/2	141 1/2	30 Am. & W. 33 3/4	142 1/4	142 1/2	142 1/2	30 Am. & W. 34	143 1/4	143 1/2	143 1/2	30 Am. & W. 34 1/4	144 1/4	144 1/2	144 1/2	30 Am. & W. 34 1/2	145 1/4	145 1/2	145 1/2	30 Am. & W. 34 3/4	146 1/4	146 1/2	146 1/2	30 Am. & W. 35	147 1/4	147 1/2	147 1/2	30 Am. & W. 35 1/4	148 1/4	148 1/2	148 1/2	30 Am. & W. 35 1/2	149 1/4	149 1/2	149 1/2	30 Am. & W. 35 3/4	150 1/4	150 1/2	150 1/2	30 Am. & W. 36	151 1/4	151 1/2	151 1/2	30 Am. & W. 36 1/4	152 1/4	152 1/2	152 1/2	30 Am. & W. 36 1/2	153 1/4	153 1/2	153 1/2	30 Am. & W. 36 3/4	154 1/4	154 1/2	154 1/2	30 Am. & W. 37	155 1/4	155 1/2	155 1/2	30 Am. & W. 37 1/4	156 1/4	156 1/2	156 1/2	30 Am. & W. 37 1/2	157 1/4	157 1/2	157 1/2	30 Am. & W. 37 3/4	158 1/4	158 1/2	158 1/2	30 Am. & W. 38	159 1/4	159 1/2	159 1/2	30 Am. & W. 38 1/4	160 1/4	160 1/2	160 1/2	30 Am. & W. 38 1/2	161 1/4	161 1/2	161 1/2	30 Am. & W. 38 3/4	162 1/4	162 1/2	162 1/2	30 Am. & W. 39	163 1/4	163 1/2	163 1/2	30 Am. & W. 39 1/4	164 1/4	164 1/2	164 1/2	30 Am. & W. 39 1/2	165 1/4	165 1/2	165 1/2	30 Am. & W. 39 3/4	166 1/4	166 1/2	166 1/2	30 Am. & W. 40	167 1/4	167 1/2	167 1/2	30 Am. & W. 40 1/4	168 1/4	168 1/2	168 1/2	30 Am. & W. 40 1/2	169 1/4	169 1/2	169 1/2	30 Am. & W. 40 3/4	170 1/4	170 1/2	170 1/2	30 Am. & W. 41	171 1/4	171 1/2	171 1/2	30 Am. & W. 41 1/4	172 1/4	172 1/2	172 1/2	30 Am. & W. 41 1/2	173 1/4	173 1/2	173 1/2	30 Am. & W. 41 3/4	174 1/4	174 1/2	174 1/2	30 Am. & W. 42	175 1/4	175 1/2	175 1/2	30 Am. & W. 42 1/4	176 1/4	176 1/2	176 1/2	30 Am. & W. 42 1/2	177 1/4	177 1/2	177 1/2	30 Am. & W. 42 3/4	178 1/4	178 1/2	178 1/2	30 Am. & W. 43	179 1/4	179 1/2	179 1/2	30 Am. & W. 43 1/4	180 1/4	180 1/2	180 1/2	30 Am. & W. 43 1/2	181 1/4	181 1/2	181 1/2	30 Am. & W. 43 3/4	182 1/4	182 1/2	182 1/2	30 Am. & W. 44	183 1/4	183 1/2	183 1/2	30 Am. & W. 44 1/4	184 1/4	184 1/2	184 1/2	30 Am. & W. 44 1/2	185 1/4	185 1/2	185 1/2	30 Am. & W. 44 3/4	186 1/4	186 1/2	186 1/2	30 Am. & W. 45	187 1/4	187 1/2	187 1/2	30 Am. & W. 45 1/4	188 1/4	188 1/2	188 1/2	30 Am. & W. 45 1/2	189 1/4	189 1/2	189 1/2	30 Am. & W. 45 3/4	190 1/4	190 1/2	190 1/2	30 Am. & W. 46	191 1/4	191 1/2	191 1/2	30 Am. & W. 46 1/4	192 1/4	192 1/2	192 1/2	30 Am. & W. 46 1/2	193 1/4	193 1/2	193 1/2	30 Am. & W. 46 3/4	194 1/4	194 1/2	194 1/2	30 Am. & W. 47	195 1/4	195 1/2	195 1/2	30 Am. & W. 47 1/4	196 1/4	196 1/2	196 1/2	30 Am. & W. 47 1/2	197 1/4	197 1/2	197 1/2	30 Am. & W. 47 3/4	198 1/4	198 1/2	198 1/2	30 Am. & W. 48	199 1/4	199 1/2	199 1/2	30 Am. & W. 48 1/4	200 1/4	200 1/2	200 1/2	30 Am. & W. 48 1/2	201 1/4	201 1/2	201 1/2	30 Am. & W. 48 3/4	202 1/4	202 1/2	202 1/2	30 Am. & W. 49	203 1/4	203 1/2	203 1/2	30 Am. & W. 49 1/4	204 1/4	204 1/2	204 1/2	30 Am. & W. 49 1/2	205 1/4	205 1/2	205 1/2	30 Am. & W. 49 3/4	206 1/4	206 1/2	206 1/2	30 Am. & W. 50	207 1/4	207 1/2	207 1/2	30 Am. & W. 50 1/4	208 1/4	208 1/2	208 1/2	30 Am. & W. 50 1/2	209 1/4	209 1/2	209 1/2	30 Am. & W. 50 3/4	210 1/4	210 1/2	210 1/2	30 Am. & W. 51	211 1/4	211 1/2	211 1/2	30 Am. & W. 51 1/4	212 1/4	212 1/2	212 1/2	30 Am. & W. 51 1/2	213 1/4	213 1/2	213 1/2	30 Am. & W. 51 3/4	214 1/4	214 1/2	214 1/2	30 Am. & W. 52
Div.	High	Low	Close
30 Am. & W. 1/2	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/4
30 Am. & W. 3/4	10 3/4	10 1/2	10 1/2
30 Am. & W. 1	11 1/4	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Am. & W. 1 1/4	12 1/4	12 1/2	12 1/2
30 Am. & W. 1 1/2	13 1/4	13 1/2	13 1/2
30 Am. & W. 1 3/4	14 1/4	14 1/2	14 1/2
30 Am. & W. 2	15 1/4	15 1/2	15 1/2
30 Am. & W. 2 1/4	16 1/4	16 1/2	16 1/2
30 Am. & W. 2 1/2	17 1/4	17 1/2	17 1/2
30 Am. & W. 2 3/4	18 1/4	18 1/2	18 1/2
30 Am. & W. 3	19 1/4	19 1/2	19 1/2
30 Am. & W. 3 1/4	20 1/4	20 1/2	20 1/2
30 Am. & W. 3 1/2	21 1/4	21 1/2	21 1/2
30 Am. & W. 3 3/4	22 1/4	22 1/2	22 1/2
30 Am. & W. 4	23 1/4	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Am. & W. 4 1/4	24 1/4	24 1/2	24 1/2
30 Am. & W. 4 1/2	25 1/4	25 1/2	25 1/2
30 Am. & W. 4 3/4	26 1/4	26 1/2	26 1/2
30 Am. & W. 5	27 1/4	27 1/2	27 1/2
30 Am. & W. 5 1/4	28 1/4	28 1/2	28 1/2
30 Am. & W. 5 1/2	29 1/4	29 1/2	29 1/2
30 Am. & W. 5 3/4	30 1/4	30 1/2	30 1/2
30 Am. & W. 6	31 1/4	31 1/2	31 1/2
30 Am. & W. 6 1/4	32 1/4	32 1/2	32 1/2
30 Am. & W. 6 1/2	33 1/4	33 1/2	33 1/2
30 Am. & W. 6 3/4	34 1/4	34 1/2	34 1/2
30 Am. & W. 7	35 1/4	35 1/2	35 1/2
30 Am. & W. 7 1/4	36 1/4	36 1/2	36 1/2
30 Am. & W. 7 1/2	37 1/4	37 1/2	37 1/2
30 Am. & W. 7 3/4	38 1/4	38 1/2	38 1/2
30 Am. & W. 8	39 1/4	39 1/2	39 1/2
30 Am. & W. 8 1/4	40 1/4	40 1/2	40 1/2
30 Am. & W. 8 1/2	41 1/4	41 1/2	41 1/2
30 Am. & W. 8 3/4	42 1/4	42 1/2	42 1/2
30 Am. & W. 9	43 1/4	43 1/2	43 1/2
30 Am. & W. 9 1/4	44 1/4	44 1/2	44 1/2
30 Am. & W. 9 1/2	45 1/4	45 1/2	45 1/2
30 Am. & W. 9 3/4	46 1/4	46 1/2	46 1/2
30 Am. & W. 10	47 1/4	47 1/2	47 1/2
30 Am. & W. 10 1/4	48 1/4	48 1/2	48 1/2
30 Am. & W. 10 1/2	49 1/4	49 1/2	49 1/2
30 Am. & W. 10 3/4	50 1/4	50 1/2	50 1/2
30 Am. & W. 11	51 1/4	51 1/2	51 1/2
30 Am. & W. 11 1/4	52 1/4	52 1/2	52 1/2
30 Am. & W. 11 1/2	53 1/4	53 1/2	53 1/2
30 Am. & W. 11 3/4	54 1/4	54 1/2	54 1/2
30 Am. & W. 12	55 1/4	55 1/2	55 1/2
30 Am. & W. 12 1/4	56 1/4	56 1/2	56 1/2
30 Am. & W. 12 1/2	57 1/4	57 1/2	57 1/2
30 Am. & W. 12 3/4	58 1/4	58 1/2	58 1/2
30 Am. & W. 13	59 1/4	59 1/2	59 1/2
30 Am. & W. 13 1/4	60 1/4	60 1/2	60 1/2
30 Am. & W. 13 1/2	61 1/4	61 1/2	61 1/2
30 Am. & W. 13 3/4	62 1/4	62 1/2	62 1/2
30 Am. & W. 14	63 1/4	63 1/2	63 1/2
30 Am. & W. 14 1/4	64 1/4	64 1/2	64 1/2
30 Am. & W. 14 1/2	65 1/4	65 1/2	65 1/2
30 Am. & W. 14 3/4	66 1/4	66 1/2	66 1/2
30 Am. & W. 15	67 1/4	67 1/2	67 1/2
30 Am. & W. 15 1/4	68 1/4	68 1/2	68 1/2
30 Am. & W. 15 1/2	69 1/4	69 1/2	69 1/2
30 Am. & W. 15 3/4	70 1/4	70 1/2	70 1/2
30 Am. & W. 16	71 1/4	71 1/2	71 1/2
30 Am. & W. 16 1/4	72 1/4	72 1/2	72 1/2
30 Am. & W. 16 1/2	73 1/4	73 1/2	73 1/2
30 Am. & W. 16 3/4	74 1/4	74 1/2	74 1/2
30 Am. & W. 17	75 1/4	75 1/2	75 1/2
30 Am. & W. 17 1/4	76 1/4	76 1/2	76 1/2
30 Am. & W. 17 1/2	77 1/4	77 1/2	77 1/2
30 Am. & W. 17 3/4	78 1/4	78 1/2	78 1/2
30 Am. & W. 18	79 1/4	79 1/2	79 1/2
30 Am. & W. 18 1/4	80 1/4	80 1/2	80 1/2
30 Am. & W. 18 1/2	81 1/4	81 1/2	81 1/2
30 Am. & W. 18 3/4	82 1/4	82 1/2	82 1/2
30 Am. & W. 19	83 1/4	83 1/2	83 1/2
30 Am. & W. 19 1/4	84 1/4	84 1/2	84 1/2
30 Am. & W. 19 1/2	85 1/4	85 1/2	85 1/2
30 Am. & W. 19 3/4	86 1/4	86 1/2	86 1/2
30 Am. & W. 20	87 1/4	87 1/2	87 1/2
30 Am. & W. 20 1/4	88 1/4	88 1/2	88 1/2
30 Am. & W. 20 1/2	89 1/4	89 1/2	89 1/2
30 Am. & W. 20 3/4	90 1/4	90 1/2	90 1/2
30 Am. & W. 21	91 1/4	91 1/2	91 1/2
30 Am. & W. 21 1/4	92 1/4	92 1/2	92 1/2
30 Am. & W. 21 1/2	93 1/4	93 1/2	93 1/2
30 Am. & W. 21 3/4	94 1/4	94 1/2	94 1/2
30 Am. & W. 22	95 1/4	95 1/2	95 1/2
30 Am. & W. 22 1/4	96 1/4	96 1/2	96 1/2
30 Am. & W. 22 1/2	97 1/4	97 1/2	97 1/2
30 Am. & W. 22 3/4	98 1/4	98 1/2	98 1/2
30 Am. & W. 23	99 1/4	99 1/2	99 1/2
30 Am. & W. 23 1/4	100 1/4	100 1/2	100 1/2
30 Am. & W. 23 1/2	101 1/4	101 1/2	101 1/2
30 Am. & W. 23 3/4	102 1/4	102 1/2	102 1/2
30 Am. & W. 24	103 1/4	103 1/2	103 1/2
30 Am. & W. 24 1/4	104 1/4	104 1/2	104 1/2
30 Am. & W. 24 1/2	105 1/4	105 1/2	105 1/2
30 Am. & W. 24 3/4	106 1/4	106 1/2	106 1/2
30 Am. & W. 25	107 1/4	107 1/2	107 1/2
30 Am. & W. 25 1/4	108 1/4	108 1/2	108 1/2
30 Am. & W. 25 1/2	109 1/4	109 1/2	109 1/2
30 Am. & W. 25 3/4	110 1/4	110 1/2	110 1/2
30 Am. & W. 26	111 1/4	111 1/2	111 1/2
30 Am. & W. 26 1/4	112 1/4	112 1/2	112 1/2
30 Am. & W. 26 1/2	113 1/4	113 1/2	113 1/2
30 Am. & W. 26 3/4	114 1/4	114 1/2	114 1/2
30 Am. & W. 27	115 1/4	115 1/2	115 1/2
30 Am. & W. 27 1/4	116 1/4	116 1/2	116 1/2
30 Am. & W. 27 1/2	117 1/4	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Am. & W. 27 3/4	118 1/4	118 1/2	118 1/2
30 Am. & W. 28	119 1/4	119 1/2	119 1/2
30 Am. & W. 28 1/4	120 1/4	120 1/2	120 1/2
30 Am. & W. 28 1/2	121 1/4	121 1/2	121 1/2
30 Am. & W. 28 3/4	122 1/4	122 1/2	122 1/2
30 Am. & W. 29	123 1/4	123 1/2	123 1/2
30 Am. & W. 29 1/4	124 1/4	124 1/2	124 1/2
30 Am. & W. 29 1/2	125 1/4	125 1/2	125 1/2
30 Am. & W. 29 3/4	126 1/4	126 1/2	126 1/2
30 Am. & W. 30	127 1/4	127 1/2	127 1/2
30 Am. & W. 30 1/4	128 1/4	128 1/2	128 1/2
30 Am. & W. 30 1/2	129 1/4	129 1/2	129 1/2
30 Am. & W. 30 3/4	130 1/4	130 1/2	130 1/2
30 Am. & W. 31	131 1/4	131 1/2	131 1/2
30 Am. & W. 31 1/4	132 1/4	132 1/2	132 1/2
30 Am. & W. 31 1/2	133 1/4	133 1/2	133 1/2
30 Am. & W. 31 3/4	134 1/4	134 1/2	134 1/2
30 Am. & W. 32	135 1/4	135 1/2	135 1/2
30 Am. & W. 32 1/4	136 1/4	136 1/2	136 1/2
30 Am. & W. 32 1/2	137 1/4	137 1/2	137 1/2
30 Am. & W. 32 3/4	138 1/4	138 1/2	138 1/2
30 Am. & W. 33	139 1/4	139 1/2	139 1/2
30 Am. & W. 33 1/4	140 1/4	140 1/2	140 1/2
30 Am. & W. 33 1/2	141 1/4	141 1/2	141 1/2
30 Am. & W. 33 3/4	142 1/4	142 1/2	142 1/2
30 Am. & W. 34	143 1/4	143 1/2	143 1/2
30 Am. & W. 34 1/4	144 1/4	144 1/2	144 1/2
30 Am. & W. 34 1/2	145 1/4	145 1/2	145 1/2
30 Am. & W. 34 3/4	146 1/4	146 1/2	146 1/2
30 Am. & W. 35	147 1/4	147 1/2	147 1/2
30 Am. & W. 35 1/4	148 1/4	148 1/2	148 1/2
30 Am. & W. 35 1/2	149 1/4	149 1/2	149 1/2
30 Am. & W. 35 3/4	150 1/4	150 1/2	150 1/2
30 Am. & W. 36	151 1/4	151 1/2	151 1/2
30 Am. & W. 36 1/4	152 1/4	152 1/2	152 1/2
30 Am. & W. 36 1/2	153 1/4	153 1/2	153 1/2
30 Am. & W. 36 3/4	154 1/4	154 1/2	154 1/2
30 Am. & W. 37	155 1/4	155 1/2	155 1/2
30 Am. & W. 37 1/4	156 1/4	156 1/2	156 1/2
30 Am. & W. 37 1/2	157 1/4	157 1/2	157 1/2
30 Am. & W. 37 3/4	158 1/4	158 1/2	158 1/2
30 Am. & W. 38	159 1/4	159 1/2	159 1/2
30 Am. & W. 38 1/4	160 1/4	160 1/2	160 1/2
30 Am. & W. 38 1/2	161 1/4	161 1/2	161 1/2
30 Am. & W. 38 3/4	162 1/4	162 1/2	162 1/2
30 Am. & W. 39	163 1/4	163 1/2	163 1/2
30 Am. & W. 39 1/4	164 1/4	164 1/2	164 1/2
30 Am. & W. 39 1/2	165 1/4	165 1/2	165 1/2
30 Am. & W. 39 3/4	166 1/4	166 1/2	166 1/2
30 Am. & W. 40	167 1/4	167 1/2	167 1/2
30 Am. & W. 40 1/4	168 1/4	168 1/2	168 1/2
30 Am. & W. 40 1/2	169 1/4	169 1/2	169 1/2
30 Am. & W. 40 3/4	170 1/4	170 1/2	170 1/2
30 Am. & W. 41	171 1/4	171 1/2	171 1/2
30 Am. & W. 41 1/4	172 1/4	172 1/2	172 1/2
30 Am. & W. 41 1/2	173 1/4	173 1/2	173 1/2
30 Am. & W. 41 3/4	174 1/4	174 1/2	174 1/2
30 Am. & W. 42	175 1/4	175 1/2	175 1/2
30 Am. & W. 42 1/4	176 1/4	176 1/2	176 1/2
30 Am. & W. 42 1/2	177 1/4	177 1/2	177 1/2
30 Am. & W. 42 3/4	178 1/4	178 1/2	178 1/2
30 Am. & W. 43	179 1/4	179 1/2	179 1/2
30 Am. & W. 43 1/4	180 1/4	180 1/2	180 1/2
30 Am. & W. 43 1/2	181 1/4	181 1/2	181 1/2
30 Am. & W. 43 3/4	182 1/4	182 1/2	182 1/2
30 Am. & W. 44	183 1/4	183 1/2	183 1/2
30 Am. & W. 44 1/4	184 1/4	184 1/2	184 1/2
30 Am. & W. 44 1/2	185 1/4	185 1/2	185 1/2
30 Am. & W. 44 3/4	186 1/4	186 1/2	186 1/2
30 Am. & W. 45	187 1/4	187 1/2	187 1/2
30 Am. & W. 45 1/4	188 1/4	188 1/2	188 1/2
30 Am. & W. 45 1/2	189 1/4	189 1/2	189 1/2
30 Am. & W. 45 3/4	190 1/4	190 1/2	190 1/2
30 Am. & W. 46	191 1/4	191 1/2	191 1/2
30 Am. & W. 46 1/4	192 1/4	192 1/2	192 1/2
30 Am. & W. 46 1/2	193 1/4	193 1/2	193 1/2
30 Am. & W. 46 3/4	194 1/4	194 1/2	194 1/2
30 Am. & W. 47	195 1/4	195 1/2	195 1/2
30 Am. & W. 47 1/4	196 1/4	196 1/2	196 1/2
30 Am. & W. 47 1/2	197 1/4	197 1/2	197 1/2
30 Am. & W. 47 3/4	198 1/4	198 1/2	198 1/2
30 Am. & W. 48	199 1/4	199 1/2	199 1/2
30 Am. & W. 48 1/4	200 1/4	200 1/2	200 1/2
30 Am. & W. 48 1/2	201 1/4	201 1/2	201 1/2
30 Am. & W. 48 3/4	202 1/4	202 1/2	202 1/2
30 Am. & W. 49	203 1/4	203 1/2	203 1/2
30 Am. & W. 49 1/4	204 1/4	204 1/2	204 1/2
30 Am. & W. 49 1/2	205 1/4	205 1/2	205 1/2
30 Am. & W. 49 3/4	206 1/4	206 1/2	206 1/2
30 Am. & W. 50	207 1/4	207 1/2	207 1/2
30 Am. & W. 50 1/4	208 1/4	208 1/2	208 1/2
30 Am. & W. 50 1/2	209 1/4	209 1/2	209 1/2
30 Am. & W. 50 3/4	210 1/4	210 1/2	210 1/2
30 Am. & W. 51	211 1/4	211 1/2	211 1/2
30 Am. & W. 51 1/4	212 1/4	212 1/2	212 1/2
30 Am. & W. 51 1/2	213 1/4	213 1/2	213 1/2
30 Am. & W. 51 3/4	214 1/4	214 1/2	214 1/2
30 Am. & W. 52

FINANCIAL

AUTO LOANS

No Fees—8%—No Extras

PHOENIX

70 Spring St., S. W.
Ground Floor—Alley Corner
Directly Across From Terminal Station

NO DELAY
800 or less—No security
1000 Georgia Savings Bank Bldg.
"ALL KINDS OF LOANS"
Local, State & Third City
210 Raleigh Bldg.

Salaries Bought

161

MONEY

UP TO $50

IN FIVE MINUTES

Just Your Signature

POPULAR FINANCE CO.
OFF. OLD PEACHTREE
511 POPLAR ST., N. W.

MONEY

SIGNATURE ONLY

CENTRAL INVESTMENT CO.
200 PEACHTREE ARCADE

50-50 Instant Service

YOUR SIGNATURE ONLY

For any emergency call us first.

National Finance Co., 501 Peachtree St., N. W.

CHRISTMAS—Signature Only

1000 Georgia Savings Bank Bldg.
415 Atlanta Nat'l Bldg., N. W.

50-50-418C & S. Bk. Bldg.
204 Peters Bldg. 50 to $50

500 OR LESS on your signature alone

Union Inv. Co., 804 William-Oliver Bldg.

CAPITAL PURCHASING COMPANY
414 Volunteer Bldg., opp. Piedmont Hotel.

LIVESTOCK

Baby Chicks

GET those good Blue Ribbon blood-stock chicks now. They are tops. Blue
Ribbons Hatchery, 2200 N. W. 10th St.,
Atlanta, Ga. 30309.

STARTED CHICKS—LOW PRICES

State Hatchery, 128 Forsyth St., N. W.

Dogs

FOR KENNEL DIRECTORY service call
H. G. Hastings, N. W. 944.

Mules

GOOD sound mules for quick sale, $50.
VE. 2477 or Mr. Holmer, 1448 E. 14th St.

Puppies

BEAUTIFUL black Cocker Spaniel pups,
8 weeks old, sired by champion,
Mr. Holmer, 1448 E. 14th St., CR. 1448.

MERCHANDISE

Miscellaneous For Sale

Asbestos Roof Coating, 50c Gal.
PAINT, $1.00 PER GAL.
ROOFING, $1.00 PER ROLL.
CALCIMINE, 6c LB.
JACOBS SALES COMPANY
45-47 Decatur St., S. E. WA. 2878.

WRECKING

LONG steel beam, 6x12, 6x14, 6x16,
6x18, 6x20, 6x22, 6x24, 6x26, 6x28,
6x30, 6x32, 6x34, 6x36, 6x38, 6x40,
6x42, 6x44, 6x46, 6x48, 6x50, 6x52,
6x54, 6x56, 6x58, 6x60, 6x62, 6x64,
6x66, 6x68, 6x70, 6x72, 6x74, 6x76,
6x78, 6x80, 6x82, 6x84, 6x86, 6x88,
6x90, 6x92, 6x94, 6x96, 6x98, 6x100,
6x102, 6x104, 6x106, 6x108, 6x110,
6x112, 6x114, 6x116, 6x118, 6x120,
6x122, 6x124, 6x126, 6x128, 6x130,
6x132, 6x134, 6x136, 6x138, 6x140,
6x142, 6x144, 6x146, 6x148, 6x150,
6x152, 6x154, 6x156, 6x158, 6x160,
6x162, 6x164, 6x166, 6x168, 6x170,
6x172, 6x174, 6x176, 6x178, 6x180,
6x182, 6x184, 6x186, 6x188, 6x190,
6x192, 6x194, 6x196, 6x198, 6x200,
6x202, 6x204, 6x206, 6x208, 6x210,
6x212, 6x214, 6x216, 6x218, 6x220,
6x222, 6x224, 6x226, 6x228, 6x230,
6x232, 6x234, 6x236, 6x238, 6x240,
6x242, 6x244, 6x246, 6x248, 6x250,
6x252, 6x254, 6x256, 6x258, 6x260,
6x262, 6x264, 6x266, 6x268, 6x270,
6x272, 6x274, 6x276, 6x278, 6x280,
6x282, 6x284, 6x286, 6x288, 6x290,
6x292, 6x294, 6x296, 6x298, 6x300,
6x302, 6x304, 6x306, 6x308, 6x310,
6x312, 6x314, 6x316, 6x318, 6x320,
6x322, 6x324, 6x326, 6x328, 6x330,
6x332, 6x334, 6x336, 6x338, 6x340,
6x342, 6x344, 6x346, 6x348, 6x350,
6x352, 6x354, 6x356, 6x358, 6x360,
6x362, 6x364, 6x366, 6x368, 6x370,
6x372, 6x374, 6x376, 6x378, 6x380,
6x382, 6x384, 6x386, 6x388, 6x390,
6x392, 6x394, 6x396, 6x398, 6x400,
6x402, 6x404, 6x406, 6x408, 6x410,
6x412, 6x414, 6x416, 6x418, 6x420,
6x422, 6x424, 6x426, 6x428, 6x430,
6x432, 6x434, 6x436, 6x438, 6x440,
6x442, 6x444, 6x446, 6x448, 6x450,
6x452, 6x454, 6x456, 6x458, 6x460,
6x462, 6x464, 6x466, 6x468, 6x470,
6x472, 6x474, 6x476, 6x478, 6x480,
6x482, 6x484, 6x486, 6x488, 6x490,
6x492, 6x494, 6x496, 6x498, 6x500,
6x502, 6x504, 6x506, 6x508, 6x510,
6x512, 6x514, 6x516, 6x518, 6x520,
6x522, 6x524, 6x526, 6x528, 6x530,
6x532, 6x534, 6x536, 6x538, 6x540,
6x542, 6x544, 6x546, 6x548, 6x550,
6x552, 6x554, 6x556, 6x558, 6x560,
6x562, 6x564, 6x566, 6x568, 6x570,
6x572, 6x574, 6x576, 6x578, 6x580,
6x582, 6x584, 6x586, 6x588, 6x590,
6x592, 6x594, 6x596, 6x598, 6x600,
6x602, 6x604, 6x606, 6x608, 6x610,
6x612, 6x614, 6x616, 6x618, 6x620,
6x622, 6x624, 6x626, 6x628, 6x630,
6x632, 6x634, 6x636, 6x638, 6x640,
6x642, 6x644, 6x646, 6x648, 6x650,
6x652, 6x654, 6x656, 6x658, 6x660,
6x662, 6x664, 6x666, 6x668, 6x670,
6x672, 6x674, 6x676, 6x678, 6x680,
6x682, 6x684, 6x686, 6x688, 6x690,
6x692, 6x694, 6x696, 6x698, 6x700,
6x702, 6x704, 6x706, 6x708, 6x710,
6x712, 6x714, 6x716, 6x718, 6x720,
6x722, 6x724, 6x726, 6x728, 6x730,
6x732, 6x734, 6x736, 6x738, 6x740,
6x742, 6x744, 6x746, 6x748, 6x750,
6x752, 6x754, 6x756, 6x758, 6x760,
6x762, 6x764, 6x766, 6x768, 6x770,
6x772, 6x774, 6x776, 6x778, 6x780,
6x782, 6x784, 6x786, 6x788, 6x790,
6x792, 6x794, 6x796, 6x798, 6x800,
6x802, 6x804, 6x806, 6x808, 6x810,
6x812, 6x814, 6x816, 6x818, 6x820,
6x822, 6x824, 6x826, 6x828, 6x830,
6x832, 6x834, 6x836, 6x838, 6x840,
6x842, 6x844, 6x846, 6x848, 6x850,
6x852, 6x854, 6x856, 6x858, 6x860,
6x862, 6x864, 6x866, 6x868, 6x870,
6x872, 6x874, 6x876, 6x878, 6x880,
6x882, 6x884, 6x886, 6x888, 6x890,
6x892, 6x894, 6x896, 6x898, 6x900,
6x902, 6x904, 6x906, 6x908, 6x910,
6x912, 6x914, 6x916, 6x918, 6x920,
6x922, 6x924, 6x926, 6x928, 6x930,
6x932, 6x934, 6x936, 6x938, 6x940,
6x942, 6x944, 6x946, 6x948, 6x950,
6x952, 6x954, 6x956, 6x958, 6x960,
6x962, 6x964, 6x966, 6x968, 6x970,
6x972, 6x974, 6x976, 6x978, 6x980,
6x982, 6x984, 6x986, 6x988, 6x990,
6x992, 6x994, 6x996, 6x998, 6x1000,
6x1002, 6x1004, 6x1006, 6x1008, 6x1010,
6x1012, 6x1014, 6x1016, 6x1018, 6x1020,
6x1022, 6x1024, 6x1026, 6x1028, 6x1030,
6x1032, 6x1034, 6x1036, 6x1038, 6x1040,
6x1042, 6x1044, 6x1046, 6x1048, 6x1050,
6x1052, 6x1054, 6x1056, 6x1058, 6x1060,
6x1062, 6x1064, 6x1066, 6x1068, 6x1070,
6x1072, 6x1074, 6x1076, 6x1078, 6x1080,
6x1082, 6x1084, 6x1086, 6x1088, 6x1090,
6x1092, 6x1094, 6x1096, 6x1098, 6x1100,
6x1102, 6x1104, 6x1106, 6x1108, 6x1110,
6x1112, 6x1114, 6x1116, 6x1118, 6x1120,
6x1122, 6x1124, 6x1126, 6x1128, 6x1130,
6x1132, 6x1134, 6x1136, 6x1138, 6x1140,
6x1142, 6x1144, 6x1146, 6x1148, 6x1150,
6x1152, 6x1154, 6x1156, 6x1158, 6x1160,
6x1162, 6x1164, 6x1166, 6x1168, 6x1170,
6x1172, 6x1174, 6x1176, 6x1178, 6x1180,
6x1182, 6x1184, 6x1186, 6x1188, 6x1190,
6x1192, 6x1194, 6x1196, 6x1198, 6x1200,
6x1202, 6x1204, 6x1206, 6x1208, 6x1210,
6x1212, 6x1214, 6x1216, 6x1218, 6x1220,
6x1222, 6x1224, 6x1226, 6x1228, 6x1230,
6x1232, 6x1234, 6x1236, 6x1238, 6x1240,
6x1242, 6x1244, 6x1246, 6x1248, 6x1250,
6x1252, 6x1254, 6x1256, 6x1258, 6x1260,
6x1262, 6x1264, 6x1266, 6x1268, 6x1270,
6x1272, 6x1274, 6x1276, 6x1278, 6x1280,
6x1282, 6x1284, 6x1286, 6x1288, 6x1290,
6x1292, 6x1294, 6x1296, 6x1298, 6x1300,
6x1302, 6x1304, 6x1306, 6x1308, 6x1310,
6x1312, 6x1314, 6x1316, 6x1318, 6x1320,
6x1322, 6x1324, 6x1326, 6x1328, 6x1330,
6x1332, 6x1334, 6x1336, 6x1338, 6x1340,
6x1342, 6x1344, 6x1346, 6x1348, 6x1350,
6x1352, 6x1354, 6x1356, 6x1358, 6x1360,
6x1362, 6x1364, 6x1366, 6x1368, 6x1370,
6x1372, 6x1374, 6x1376, 6x1378, 6x1380,
6x1382, 6x1384, 6x1386, 6x1388, 6x1390,
6x1392, 6x1394, 6x1396, 6x1398, 6x1400,
6x1402, 6x1404, 6x1406, 6x1408, 6x1410,
6x1412, 6x1414, 6x1416, 6x1418, 6x1420,
6x1422, 6x1424, 6x1426, 6x1428, 6x1430,
6x1432, 6x1434, 6x1436, 6x1438, 6x1440,
6x1442, 6x1444, 6x1446, 6x1448, 6x1450,
6x1452, 6x1454, 6x1456, 6x1458, 6x1460,
6x1462, 6x1464, 6x1466, 6x1468, 6x1470,
6x1472, 6x1474, 6x1476, 6x1478, 6x1480,
6x1482, 6x1484, 6x1486, 6x1488, 6x1490,
6x1492, 6x1494, 6x1496, 6x1498, 6x1500,
6x1502, 6x1504, 6x1506, 6x1508, 6x1510,
6x1512, 6x1514, 6x1516, 6x1518, 6x1520,
6x1522, 6x1524, 6x1526, 6x1528, 6x1530,
6x1532, 6x1534, 6x1536, 6x1538, 6x1540,
6x1542, 6x1544, 6x1546, 6x1548, 6x1550,
6x1552, 6x1554, 6x1556, 6x1558, 6x1560,
6x1562, 6x1564, 6x1566, 6x1568, 6x1570,
6x1572, 6x1574, 6x1576, 6x1578, 6x1580,
6x1582, 6x1584, 6x1586, 6x1588, 6x1590,
6x1592, 6x1594, 6x1596, 6x1598, 6x1600,
6x1602, 6x1604, 6x1606, 6x1608, 6x1610,
6x1612, 6x1614, 6x1616, 6x1618, 6x1620,
6x1622, 6x1624, 6x1626, 6x1628, 6x1630,
6x1632, 6x1634, 6x1636, 6x1638, 6x1640,
6x1642, 6x1644, 6x1646, 6x1648, 6x1650,
6x1652, 6x1654, 6x1656, 6x1658, 6x1660,
6x1662, 6x1664, 6x1666, 6x1668, 6x1670,
6x1672, 6x1674, 6x1676, 6x1678, 6x1680,
6x1682, 6x1684, 6x1686, 6x1688, 6x1690,
6x1692, 6x1694, 6x1696, 6x1698, 6x1700,
6x1702, 6x1704, 6x1706, 6x1708, 6x1710,
6x1712, 6x1714, 6x1716, 6x1718, 6x1720,
6x1722, 6x1724, 6x1726, 6x1728, 6x1730,
6x1732, 6x1734, 6x1736, 6x1738, 6x1740,
6x1742, 6x1744, 6x1746, 6x1748, 6x1750,
6x1752, 6x1754, 6x1756, 6x1758, 6x1760,
6x1762, 6x1764, 6x1766, 6x1768, 6x1770,
6x1772, 6x1774, 6x1776, 6x1778, 6x1780,
6x1782, 6x1784, 6x1786, 6x1788, 6x1790,
6x1792, 6x1794, 6x1796, 6x1798, 6x1800,
6x1802, 6x1804, 6x1806, 6x1808, 6x1810,
6x1812, 6x1814, 6x1816, 6x1818, 6x1820,
6x1822, 6x1824, 6x1826, 6x1828, 6x1830,
6x1832, 6x1834, 6x1836, 6x1838, 6x1840,
6x1842, 6x1844, 6x1846, 6x1848, 6x1850,
6x1852, 6x1854, 6x1856, 6x1858, 6x1860,
6x1862, 6x1864, 6x1866, 6x1868, 6x1870,
6x1872, 6x1874, 6x1876, 6x1878, 6x1880,
6x1882, 6x1884, 6x1886, 6x1888, 6x1890,
6x1892, 6x1894, 6x1896, 6x1898, 6x1900,
6x1902, 6x1904, 6x1906, 6x1908, 6x1910,
6x1912, 6x1914, 6x1916, 6x1918, 6x1920,
6x1922, 6x1924, 6x1926, 6x1928, 6x1930,
6x1932, 6x1934, 6x1936, 6x1938, 6x1940,
6x1942, 6x1944, 6x1946, 6x1948, 6x1950,
6x1952, 6x1954, 6x1956, 6x1958, 6x1960,
6x1962, 6x1964, 6x1966, 6x1968, 6x1970,
6x1972, 6x1974, 6x1976, 6x1978, 6x1980,
6x1982, 6x1984, 6x1986, 6x1988, 6x1990,
6x1992, 6x1994, 6x1996, 6x1998, 6x2000,
6x2002, 6x2004, 6x2006, 6x2008, 6x2010,
6x2012, 6x2014, 6x2016, 6x2018, 6x2020,
6x2022, 6x2024, 6x2026, 6x2028, 6x2030,
6x2032, 6x2034, 6x2036, 6x2038, 6x2040,
6x2042, 6x2044, 6x2046, 6x2048, 6x2050,
6x2052, 6x2054, 6x2056, 6x2058, 6x2060,
6x2062, 6x2064, 6x2066, 6x2068, 6x2070,
6x2072, 6x2074, 6x2076, 6x2078, 6x2080,
6x2082, 6x2084, 6x2086, 6x2088, 6x2090,
6x2092, 6x2094, 6x2096, 6x2098, 6x2100,
6x2102, 6x2104, 6x2106, 6x2108, 6x2110,
6x2112, 6x2114, 6x2116, 6x2118, 6x2120,
6x2122, 6x2124, 6x2126, 6x2128, 6x2130,
6x2132, 6x2134, 6x2136, 6x2138, 6x2140,
6x2142, 6x2144, 6x2146, 6x2148, 6x2150,
6x2152, 6x2154, 6x2156, 6x2158, 6x2160,
6x2162, 6x2164, 6x2166, 6x2168, 6x2170,
6x2172, 6x2174, 6x2176, 6x2178, 6x2180,
6x2182, 6x2184, 6x2186, 6x2188, 6x2190,
6x2192, 6x2194, 6x2196, 6x2198, 6x2200,
6x2202, 6x2204, 6x2206, 6x2208, 6x2210,
6x2212, 6x2214, 6x2216, 6x2218, 6x2220,
6x2222, 6x2224, 6x2226, 6x2228, 6x2230,
6x2232, 6x2234, 6x2236, 6x2238, 6x2240,
6x2242, 6x2244, 6x2246, 6x2248, 6x2250,
6x2252, 6x2254, 6x2256, 6x2258, 6x2260,
6x2262, 6x2264, 6x2266, 6x2268, 6x2270,
6x2272, 6x2274, 6x2276, 6x2278, 6x2280,
6x2282, 6x2284, 6x2286, 6x2288, 6x2290,
6x2292, 6x2294, 6x2296, 6x2298, 6x2300,
6x2302, 6x2304, 6x2306, 6x2308, 6x2310,
6x2312, 6x2314, 6x2316, 6x2318, 6x2320,
6x2322, 6x2324, 6x2326, 6x2328, 6x2330,
6x2332, 6x2334, 6x2336, 6x2338, 6x2340,
6x2342, 6x2344, 6x2346, 6x2348, 6x2350,
6x2352, 6x2354, 6x2356, 6x2358, 6x2360,
6x2362, 6x2364, 6x2366, 6x2368, 6x2370,
6x2372, 6x2374, 6x2376, 6x2378, 6x2380,
6x2382, 6x2384, 6x2386, 6x2388, 6x2390,
6x2392, 6x2394, 6x2396, 6x2398, 6x2400,
6x2402, 6x2404, 6x2406, 6x2408, 6x2410,
6x2412, 6x2414, 6x2416, 6x2418, 6x2420,
6x2422, 6x2424, 6x2426, 6x2428, 6x2430,
6x2432, 6x2434, 6x2436, 6x2438, 6x2440,
6x2442, 6x2444, 6x2446, 6x2448, 6x2450,
6x2452, 6x2454, 6x2456, 6x2458, 6x2460,
6x2462, 6x2464, 6x2466, 6x2468, 6x2470,
6x2472, 6x2474, 6x2476, 6x2478, 6x2480,
6x2482, 6x2484, 6x2486, 6x2488, 6x2490,
6x2492, 6x2494, 6x2496, 6x2498, 6x2500,
6x2502, 6x2504, 6x2506, 6x2508, 6x2510,
6x2512, 6x2514, 6x2516, 6x2518, 6x2520,
6x2522, 6x2524, 6x2526, 6x2528, 6x2530,
6x2532, 6x2534, 6x2536, 6x2538, 6x2540,
6x2542, 6x2544, 6x2546, 6x2548, 6x2550,
6x2552, 6x2554, 6x2556, 6x2558, 6x2560,
6x2562, 6x2564, 6x2566, 6x2568, 6x2570,
6x2572, 6x2574, 6x2576, 6x2578, 6x2580,
6x2582, 6x2584, 6x2586, 6x2588, 6x2590,
6x2592, 6x2594, 6x2596, 6x2598, 6x2600,
6x2602, 6x2604, 6x2606, 6x2608, 6x2610,
6x2612, 6x2614, 6x2616, 6x2618, 6x2620,
6x2622, 6x2624, 6x2626, 6x2628, 6x2630,
6x2632, 6x2634, 6x2636, 6x2638, 6x2640,
6x2642, 6x2644, 6x2646, 6x2648, 6x2650,
6x2652, 6x2654, 6x2656, 6x2658, 6x2660,
6x2662, 6x2664, 6x2666, 6x2668, 6x2670,
6x2672, 6x2674, 6x2676, 6x2678, 6x2680,
6x2682, 6x2684, 6x2686, 6x2688, 6x2690,
6x2692, 6x2694, 6x2696, 6x2698, 6x2700,
6x2702, 6x2704, 6x2706, 6x2708, 6x2710,
6x2712, 6x2714, 6x2716, 6x2718, 6x2720,
6x2722, 6x2724, 6x2726, 6x2728, 6x2730,
6x2732, 6x2734, 6x2736, 6x2738, 6x2740,
6x2742, 6x2744, 6x2746, 6x2748, 6x2750,
6x2752, 6x2754, 6x2756, 6x2758, 6x2760,
6x2762, 6x2764, 6x2766, 6x2768, 6x2770,
6x2772, 6x2774, 6x2776, 6x2778, 6x2780,
6x2782, 6x2784, 6x2786, 6x2788, 6x2790,
6x2792, 6x2794, 6x2796, 6x2798, 6x2800,
6x2802, 6x2804, 6x2806, 6x2808, 6x2810,
6x2812, 6x2814, 6x2816, 6x2818, 6x2820,
6x2822, 6x2824, 6x2826, 6x2828, 6x2830,
6x2832, 6x2834, 6x2836, 6x2838, 6x2840,
6x2842, 6x2844, 6x2846, 6x2848, 6x2850,
6x2852, 6x2854, 6x2856, 6x2858, 6x2860,
6x2862, 6x2864, 6x2866, 6x2868, 6x2870,
6x2872, 6x2874, 6x2876, 6x2878, 6x2880,
6x2882, 6x2884, 6x2886, 6x2888, 6x2890,
6x2892, 6x2894, 6x2896, 6x2898, 6x2900,
6x2902, 6x2904, 6x2906, 6x2908, 6x2910,
6

Round Atlanta

WITH THE CONSTITUTION STAFF

Board of regents of the University System of Georgia will meet at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning at the Georgia Evening College on Luckie street. In the afternoon they will attend the annual Georgia-Georgia Tech football game.

Judge Jesse M. Wood, first worshipful master of Capital City Lodge No. 642, F. & A. M., will be installed tonight as worshipful master of the fifth district at a convention at 423 1-2 Marietta street, N. W. A large attendance of Masons from the fifth district is expected.

Benefit dinner-dance sponsored by Associate Master Beauticians Chapter No. 847, will be held at 7:30 tonight at the West End Woman's Club. Beauticians, barbers and their friends will attend.

Series of forums on southern social problems will continue at 7:30 tomorrow night in the exhibition room of the Atlanta University library. Robert L. Cousins, director of the negro division, Georgia Department of Education, will discuss "Public Education and the Negro."

Lon Sullivan, commissioner of public safety, will address the Bell Y Club at 6:30 tonight. The meeting will be held at the Y. W. C. A. building at 37 Auburn avenue.

Annual business meeting of the Chi Phi Atlanta Alumni Association will be held at 8 o'clock Friday at the Piedmont Driving Club, preceding the customary dinner-dance, featured by election of officers. Present officers are Judge Virlyn B. Moore, president; Clement A. Evans, vice president; Albert Howell Jr., secretary; and Stephens Crockett, treasurer.

Citizens' Traffic Safety Committee, organized last year by a group of citizens interested in safety, will hold its annual meeting at 3 o'clock December 5, at the Ansley hotel. All persons interested in safety are invited to attend, according to Malcolm N. Fleming, chairman.

Public Welfare in Atlanta and Georgia will be discussed by Lyle Chubb, director of the government research bureau, Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, at the meeting of the Jewish Educational Alliance forum to be held at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday night at 318 Capitol avenue.

Bank clearings yesterday were $110,000,000 as compared with $10,000,000 for the same day of the previous year.

Past masters of Adamsville Masonic Lodge No. 171 will be honored at a meeting of the lodge at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the lodge rooms on Gordon road. Raymond Daniel, past grand master of Georgia Masons, will speak at the exercises.

Bishop Warren A. Candler and Bishop William W. Watkins, of Emory University, are attending the first annual meeting of the board of home missions and church extensions which begins in Philadelphia today and continues through Thursday.

Board of education of Trinity Methodist church will entertain at a reception at the church at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow night. Rev. and Mrs. Paul Turner, officers of the board of trustees, and their wives will be the honor guests.

Grady hospital and the Service Guild celebrated the opening of the Service Guild's clinic of obstetrics and gynecology yesterday at a tea in the new quarters at Grady hospital.

Atlanta Accident and Health Association held its first meeting recently, for the election of temporary officers. This is a local group of the National Accident and Health Association.

At the Courthouse

E. E. (Shorty) Andrews, assistant solicitor general, killed a buck deer with a pistol last week while en route to Ocala, Fla., to hunt birds, he reported yesterday. Andrews and Deputy Sheriff A. O. Derrick were riding on the highway near Ocala when the buck stopped at the edge of the forest. Because their guns were loaded with bird shot, Andrews borrowed Derrick's pistol and brought the deer down with one shot.

Frank Fling, clerk of the county commission, was sitting in his office yesterday afternoon when the phone rang. It was one of the girls in his office calling. "Mr. Fling, I didn't take my gun to noon," said the voice. "Can I go to lunch now? I want to have a permanent wave." "Sure, it's O. K.," he replied, "but that's a funny thing to have for lunch."

A not guilty verdict was brought in by a Fulton superior court jury yesterday at the request of the prosecution. The state was unable to establish that Vernon Gaines indicted for robbery, was even present when the robbery was committed. After Gary Thompson, named in the same bill, who has entered a plea of guilty to the charge, told the court that Gaines was not involved, the court directed the jury to acquit him.

Judge Virlyn B. Moore sat at the court and jury yesterday at find Henry Alexander, negro, guilty on one of three burglary charges and to sentence him to serve from four to six years in prison. Alexander was accused of breaking into three places but was found guilty only of burglarizing the filling station of E. H. Harper on July 14.

The case against F. L. Estes, route eight, accused of cruelty to animals for allegedly shooting a chow dog last September, was placed on the dead docket in Fulton criminal court when it was called for trial yesterday. Court attaches said they understood both sides agreed to this disposition.

SURVEY SCHOOL WORK. MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Nov. 27. Garland Holloman, member of the field staff of the Southern Study, arrived in Milledgeville last night to spend several days observing the filing station at the Peabody Training school. Peabody is one of 33 schools in the south participating in the study, which is designed to improve and aid school work.

FIRE RECORDS. (From 9 p. m., November 26, to 9 p. m., November 27.)

5:30-1100 Piedmont; awning.
10:35-880 Ponce de Leon; smoke scare.
A. A. M.
12:10-High Point road; garage of J. E. Sheridan.
8:05-Auburn and Ford; false alarm.
8:45-245 Pulliam; residence, Arthur Wolfe.
11:21-25 Main; oil stove.
11:35-25 Ponce de Leon; residence, Arthur Harris.
P. M.
12:11-106 Electric; residence, Sadie McElroy.
12:15-Pace's Ferry place; grass fire.
12:25-Techwood and Sixth; false alarm.
12:35-1820 Manassas; grass fire.
1:21-Cherokee and Robinson; grass fire.
2:16-Wiloughby and Ashby; grass fire.
2:25-Turkey and Fourth; grass fire.
2:35-1500 Decatur; awning.
2:45-Parkway and Fourth; grass fire.
3:15-Elizabeth place; no damage.
3:45-415 Langhorne; grass fire.
3:50-417 Peoples; residence, M. Fitzgerald.
4:03-Jefferson and Southern railroad; grass fire.
4:11-Terminal building; boxcar.
4:30-324 East avenue; garage, J. P. Cranley.
5:43-Bankhead and Elizabeth; woods fire.
5:53-76 Whitehall; clothing store.
7:15-Flat Shoals and Kirkwood; grass fire.
8:08-Pearl and Wylie; woods fire.

Don't Fire Up---
Softer!

USE LONG BURNING CAMPBELL COAL

FOR ACTION CALL JACKSON 5000

CAMPBELL COAL

What Secrets Hide in a Doctor's Heart?

Deep down in a doctor's heart, does he regard his patients as real people... or just "cases"? Does he look upon their personal problems as a human being, with individual emotions? Tune in to--

DR. MAONE WAGA 10:15 A.M.

Today's Hour-by-Hour Calendar

WGST, 890 Kz. WSB, 740 Kz. WAGA, 1450 Kz. WATL 1370 Kz.

Note: Where no listing is given, last program in preceding listing is continued.

5:45 A. M. WSB-Another Day.

WGST-Serenade; 6:10, ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS; 6:15, Get Up WATL-Cowboys; 6:15 Johnny Pierce.

6:30 A. M. WSB-Old Almanac; 6:45 Sunday.

WAGA-Wallace's Folio; 6:45 Merry-Go-Round.

WATL-Gatin's Band; 6:45 Top of the Morning.

7:30 A. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 7:30 Hank Penny's Cow-WAGA-News; 7:30 Yawn Patrol.

WATL-News; 7:30 Good Morning Man.

8:30 A. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 8:30 Old Times; 8:30 WSB-News; 8:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 8:30 Good Morning; 8:30 WAGA-News; 8:30 Good Morning.

9:30 A. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 9:30 Old Times; 9:30 WSB-News; 9:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 9:30 Good Morning; 9:30 WAGA-News; 9:30 Good Morning.

10:30 A. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 10:30 Old Times; 10:30 WSB-News; 10:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 10:30 Good Morning; 10:30 WAGA-News; 10:30 Good Morning.

11:30 A. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 11:30 Old Times; 11:30 WSB-News; 11:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 11:30 Good Morning; 11:30 WAGA-News; 11:30 Good Morning.

12:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 12:30 Old Times; 12:30 WSB-News; 12:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 12:30 Good Morning; 12:30 WAGA-News; 12:30 Good Morning.

1:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 1:30 Old Times; 1:30 WSB-News; 1:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 1:30 Good Morning; 1:30 WAGA-News; 1:30 Good Morning.

2:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 2:30 Old Times; 2:30 WSB-News; 2:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 2:30 Good Morning; 2:30 WAGA-News; 2:30 Good Morning.

3:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 3:30 Old Times; 3:30 WSB-News; 3:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 3:30 Good Morning; 3:30 WAGA-News; 3:30 Good Morning.

4:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 4:30 Old Times; 4:30 WSB-News; 4:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 4:30 Good Morning; 4:30 WAGA-News; 4:30 Good Morning.

5:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 5:30 Old Times; 5:30 WSB-News; 5:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 5:30 Good Morning; 5:30 WAGA-News; 5:30 Good Morning.

6:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 6:30 Old Times; 6:30 WSB-News; 6:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 6:30 Good Morning; 6:30 WAGA-News; 6:30 Good Morning.

7:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 7:30 Old Times; 7:30 WSB-News; 7:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 7:30 Good Morning; 7:30 WAGA-News; 7:30 Good Morning.

8:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 8:30 Old Times; 8:30 WSB-News; 8:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 8:30 Good Morning; 8:30 WAGA-News; 8:30 Good Morning.

9:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 9:30 Old Times; 9:30 WSB-News; 9:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 9:30 Good Morning; 9:30 WAGA-News; 9:30 Good Morning.

10:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 10:30 Old Times; 10:30 WSB-News; 10:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 10:30 Good Morning; 10:30 WAGA-News; 10:30 Good Morning.

11:30 P. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 11:30 Old Times; 11:30 WSB-News; 11:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 11:30 Good Morning; 11:30 WAGA-News; 11:30 Good Morning.

12:30 A. M. WSB-Sunday.

WAGA-News; 12:30 Old Times; 12:30 WSB-News; 12:30 Good Morning.

WATL-News; 12:30 Good Morning; 12:30 WAGA-News; 12:30 Good Morning.

GRAMS

Purchase of $387 worth of new traffic signs was authorized yesterday by the purchasing committee of city council and pushed the total expenditure for this purpose to $8,422 for the year. A total of $2,250 also has been expended for painting and marking non-parking curbing and traffic lanes.

Raymond W. Torres, engineering secretary of the City Planning Commission, yesterday prepared to assign a corps of workmen to place 23 historic markers throughout Atlanta. The spots will be designated in time for the world premiere of "Gone With the Wind." About 70 markers are to be placed throughout the metropolitan area, but only 23 of the spots are inside the city limits.

Thomas W. Clift, assistant superintendent of city schools in charge of business affairs, yesterday began work on the 1940 school budget. He announced that additional funds for supply and repair accounts are "almost mandatory for the new year." When the present fiscal year for school operation has ended, approximately $380,000 will have been expended, he said.

Jessie White, fireman, is slated to go on trial tonight on charges of being under the influence of intoxicants. The fire board will meet at 7:30 o'clock at headquarters on Alabama street.

Steve Felder, who has patrolled Atlanta streets as a city police officer for nearly 43 years, is expected to be granted a $75-a-month pension today. Felder is a native of France, and will be 70 years old December 25—Christmas Day.

FUNERAL NOTICES ENTREKIN—Died, Mr. J. A. Entekin, of 630 Simmons street, in his 85th year. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Howard L. Carmichael.

FUNERAL NOTICES NORMAN, Mr. Cyrus Worthington, in his 88th year, died last night at 10 o'clock. The remains were removed to the chapel of Awtry & Lowndes. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

FUNERAL NOTICES BUCHANAN, Mrs. M. A.—passed away at a local hospital in her 57th year. Survived by three sons, Messrs. Charles M., Clarence H. and Clifford H. Buchanan; one daughter, Miss Lorraine Buchanan; three sisters, Mrs. W. B. Taylor, Tampa, Fla.; Mrs. Eugene Reynolds, Sumter, S. C.; Mrs. H. M. M. Buchanan, a grandchild, Chickie Buchanan. Funeral arrangements announced later. Awtry & Lowndes.

FUNERAL NOTICES CATES (Mrs. Virginia B.)—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Virginia B. Cates, Mrs. Amanda Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Butler, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mr. Guy Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Carick Butler, of Boston, Mass., are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Virginia B. Cates, who died at 11 o'clock today (Tuesday) from Sacred Heart church. Father John Emmerich will officiate. Gentlemen selected to serve as pallbearers will please assemble at the chapel. Interment Dallas, Ga. Awtry & Lowndes.

FUNERAL NOTICES LONG, Mrs. Margaret L.—The friends of Mrs. Margaret Long, Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bair, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. (Bud) Long, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Long, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Long, Edward Wilson, Louise Bair, Joene Bair, Melba Long, Elizabeth Margaret Long and Clarence Long are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Margaret Long tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the chapel of Austin Dillon Co. Rev. L. E. Smith will officiate. Interment Greenwood. The following gentlemen will please act as pallbearers and meet at the residence, 425 Windsor street, at 1:45 p. m. Mr. Charles McIntyre, Mr. Long, Mr. R. J. Stabler, Mr. Ernest Barrows, Mr. Sam Williams, Mr. Raymond Smith.

FUNERAL NOTICES BERRY, Mr. William—passed recently at a local sanitarium. Funeral arrangements later. Hanley Company.

FUNERAL NOTICES SMITH, Mrs. Mary—of the rear of 458 Mitchell street, passed recently. Funeral announced later. Hanley's Ashby Street Funeral Home.

FUNERAL NOTICES GREEN, Mr. Elie—passed at the residence. Funeral announced upon completion of arrangements. Hanley's Ashby Street Funeral Home.

FUNERAL NOTICES KEITH, Mr. Rufus—of 1093 Hubbard street, died November 27 at the residence. Funeral announced later. Sellers Bros. McDaniel Street Parlor.

FUNERAL NOTICES ROBERTS, Mrs. Tennessee—of 263 Lawrie street, will be buried today (Tuesday) at 11 o'clock at our chapel. Interment Lincoln cemetery. Sellers Bros.

FUNERAL NOTICES HAMILTON, Mrs. Leila—of 81 Fitzgerald street, S. E. Relatives and friends of Mrs. Leila Hamilton, Mrs. Bessie Wilkerson, of New York; Mrs. Mary Wilson, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Huff and family, Mrs. Paul Hamilton and family, Mr. Dennis Hamilton and family, Mrs. Fannie Shanks and family, and Mrs. Rosa Hamilton and family are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Leila Hamilton today (Tuesday) at 1:30 p. m. from our chapel. Interment Lincoln cemetery. Hanley Co.

FUNERAL NOTICES DUNN, Mr. John—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Lucile Dunn and family are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. John Dunn today (Tuesday) at 8 p. m. from Inconium Baptist church, Rev. R. H. Muner officiating. The cortege will leave the residence, 943 Ira street, at 7 a. m. Wednesday for interment in Perry, Ga. Cox Bros.

FUNERAL NOTICES TURNER, Mr. Alonzo Oscar—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Berntha Turner, Mrs. Susie Mae Turner, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner, Mr. Dock Turner, Mr. Charlie Turner and family, Mrs. Lucene King and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paschal, Miss Florence Truitt are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Alonzo Oscar Turner tomorrow (Wednesday) at 2 p. m. from Mount Olive Baptist church, Rev. W. W. Weatherspool and others officiating. The remains will lie in state at the chapel from 11 a. m. Tuesday until 1 p. m. Wednesday. Interment Lincoln cemetery. Cox Bros.

FUNERAL NOTICES LAMAR, Dr. Nathaniel—The relatives and friends of Dr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Lamar, Nathaniel Lamar Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Sparks, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Messrs. T. Jefferson and Julian Lamar, of New York city; Mrs. Annie Bruce, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Mrs. Jennie V. Murray, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Reid, Misses Jessie Elsie and Mattie Reid, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parham, Mr. and Mrs. William Wise, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reid and Miss Edith Reid, all of Atlanta, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Dr. Nathaniel Lamar Wednesday, November 29, at 1 p. m. from Mount Olive Baptist church. Rev. W. W. Weatherspool, Rev. J. C. Wright and Dr. E. R. Carter will officiate. Pallbearers and honorary escorts will please meet at the residence, 207 Boulevard, N. E., at 12 noon. Interment South View cemetery. Hanley Co.

FUNERAL NOTICES ALLEN, Mrs. Pinkie—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. James Allen and family of R. No. 582 Lindsay street, are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Pinkie Allen today (Tuesday) at 2:30 o'clock from the First Baptist church in Bowdon, Ga. Rev. Joe Dunson officiating. Interment, Bowdon, Ga. Sellers Bros. of Carrollton, Croghan Mullins in charge.

FUNERAL NOTICES FRANKLIN, Mr. Roy—The friends and relatives of Mr. Roy Franklin are invited to attend his funeral today (Tuesday) at 2 o'clock from the First Baptist church in Bowdon, Ga. Rev. Joe Dunson officiating. Interment, Bowdon, Ga. Sellers Bros. of Carrollton, Croghan Mullins in charge.

FUNERAL NOTICES LAMAR, Dr. Nathaniel—The relatives and friends of Dr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Lamar, Nathaniel Lamar Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Sparks, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Messrs. T. Jefferson and Julian Lamar, of New York city; Mrs. Annie Bruce, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Mrs. Jennie V. Murray, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Reid, Misses Jessie Elsie and Mattie Reid, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parham, Mr. and Mrs. William Wise, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reid and Miss Edith Reid, all of Atlanta, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Dr. Nathaniel Lamar Wednesday, November 29, at 1 p. m. from Mount Olive Baptist church. Rev. W. W. Weatherspool, Rev. J. C. Wright and Dr. E. R. Carter will officiate. Pallbearers and honorary escorts will please meet at the residence, 207 Boulevard, N. E., at 12 noon. Interment South View cemetery. Hanley Co.

FUNERAL NOTICES DUNN, Mr. John—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Lucile Dunn and family are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. John Dunn today (Tuesday) at 8 p. m. from Inconium Baptist church, Rev. R. H. Muner officiating. The cortege will leave the residence, 943 Ira street, at 7 a. m. Wednesday for interment in Perry, Ga. Cox Bros.

FUNERAL NOTICES TURNER, Mr. Alonzo Oscar—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Berntha Turner, Mrs. Susie Mae Turner, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner, Mr. Dock Turner, Mr. Charlie Turner and family, Mrs. Lucene King and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paschal, Miss Florence Truitt are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Alonzo Oscar Turner tomorrow (Wednesday) at 2 p. m. from Mount Olive Baptist church, Rev. W. W. Weatherspool and others officiating. The remains will lie in state at the chapel from 11 a. m. Tuesday until 1 p. m. Wednesday. Interment Lincoln cemetery. Cox Bros.

FUNERAL NOTICES LAMAR, Dr. Nathaniel—The relatives and friends of Dr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Lamar, Nathaniel Lamar Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Sparks, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Messrs. T. Jefferson and Julian Lamar, of New York city; Mrs. Annie Bruce, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Mrs. Jennie V. Murray, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Reid, Misses Jessie Elsie and Mattie Reid, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parham, Mr. and Mrs. William Wise, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reid and Miss Edith Reid, all of Atlanta, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Dr. Nathaniel Lamar Wednesday, November 29, at 1 p. m. from Mount Olive Baptist church. Rev. W. W. Weatherspool, Rev. J. C. Wright and Dr. E. R. Carter will officiate. Pallbearers and honorary escorts will please meet at the residence, 207 Boulevard, N. E., at 12 noon. Interment South View cemetery. Hanley Co.

FUNERAL NOTICES ALLEN, Mrs. Pinkie—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. James Allen and family of R. No. 582 Lindsay street, are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Pinkie Allen today (Tuesday) at 2:30 o'clock from the First Baptist church in Bowdon, Ga. Rev. Joe Dunson officiating. Interment, Bowdon, Ga. Sellers Bros. of Carrollton, Croghan Mullins in charge.

FUNERAL NOTICES FRANKLIN, Mr. Roy—The friends and relatives of Mr. Roy Franklin are invited to attend his funeral today (Tuesday) at 2 o'clock from the First Baptist church in Bowdon, Ga. Rev. Joe Dunson officiating. Interment, Bowdon, Ga. Sellers Bros. of Carrollton, Croghan Mullins in charge.

FUNERAL NOTICES LAMAR, Dr. Nathaniel—The relatives and friends of Dr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Lamar, Nathaniel Lamar Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Sparks, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Messrs. T. Jefferson and Julian Lamar, of New York city; Mrs. Annie Bruce, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Mrs. Jennie V. Murray, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Reid, Misses Jessie Elsie and Mattie Reid, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parham, Mr. and Mrs. William Wise, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reid and Miss Edith Reid, all of Atlanta, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Dr. Nathaniel Lamar Wednesday, November 29, at 1 p. m. from Mount Olive Baptist church. Rev. W. W. Weatherspool, Rev. J. C. Wright and Dr. E. R. Carter will officiate. Pallbearers and honorary escorts will please meet at the residence, 207 Boulevard, N. E., at 12 noon. Interment South View cemetery. Hanley Co.

FUNERAL NOTICES DUNN, Mr. John—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Lucile Dunn and family are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. John Dunn today (Tuesday) at 8 p. m. from Inconium Baptist church, Rev. R. H. Muner officiating. The cortege will leave the residence, 943 Ira street, at 7 a. m. Wednesday for interment in Perry, Ga. Cox Bros.

FUNERAL NOTICES TURNER, Mr. Alonzo Oscar—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Berntha Turner, Mrs. Susie Mae Turner, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner, Mr. Dock Turner, Mr. Charlie Turner and family, Mrs. Lucene King and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paschal, Miss Florence Truitt are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Alonzo Oscar Turner tomorrow (Wednesday) at 2 p. m. from Mount Olive Baptist church, Rev. W. W. Weatherspool and others officiating. The remains will lie in state at the chapel from 11 a. m. Tuesday until 1 p. m. Wednesday. Interment Lincoln cemetery. Cox Bros.

FUNERAL NOTICES LAMAR, Dr. Nathaniel—The relatives and friends of Dr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Lamar, Nathaniel Lamar Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Sparks, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Messrs. T. Jefferson and Julian Lamar, of New York city; Mrs. Annie Bruce, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Mrs. Jennie V. Murray, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Reid, Misses Jessie Elsie and Mattie Reid, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parham, Mr. and Mrs. William Wise, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reid and Miss Edith Reid, all of Atlanta, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Dr. Nathaniel Lamar Wednesday, November 29, at 1 p. m. from Mount Olive Baptist church. Rev. W. W. Weatherspool, Rev. J. C. Wright and Dr. E. R. Carter will officiate. Pallbearers and honorary escorts will please meet at the residence, 207 Boulevard, N. E., at 12 noon. Interment South View cemetery. Hanley Co.

FUNERAL NOTICES ALLEN, Mrs. Pinkie—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. James Allen and family of R. No. 582 Lindsay street, are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Pinkie Allen today (Tuesday) at 2:30 o'clock from the First Baptist church in Bowdon, Ga. Rev. Joe Dunson officiating. Interment, Bowdon, Ga. Sellers Bros. of Carrollton, Croghan Mullins in charge.

FUNERAL NOTICES FRANKLIN, Mr. Roy—The friends and relatives of Mr. Roy Franklin are invited to attend his funeral today (Tuesday) at 2 o'clock from the First Baptist church in Bowdon, Ga. Rev. Joe Dunson officiating. Interment, Bowdon, Ga. Sellers Bros. of Carrollton, Croghan Mullins in charge.

FUNERAL NOTICES LAMAR, Dr. Nathaniel—The relatives and friends of Dr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Lamar, Nathaniel Lamar Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Sparks, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Messrs. T. Jefferson and Julian Lamar, of New York city; Mrs. Annie Bruce, of Milledgeville, Ga.; Mrs. Jennie V. Murray, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Reid, Misses Jessie Elsie and Mattie Reid, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parham, Mr. and Mrs. William Wise, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reid and Miss Edith Reid, all of Atlanta, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Dr. Nathaniel Lamar Wednesday, November 29, at 1 p. m. from Mount Olive Baptist church. Rev. W. W. Weatherspool, Rev. J. C. Wright and Dr. E. R. Carter will officiate. Pallbearers and honorary escorts will please meet at the residence, 207 Boulevard, N. E., at 12 noon. Interment South View cemetery. Hanley Co.